LEGAL NOTICES

SUMMONS IN EQUITY

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Klamath.

John H. Phillipson, plaintiff, vs. Louise M. Phillipson, defendant.

To LOUISE M. PHILLIPSON, the above named defendant.

In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit and court, on or before Tuesday, the 26th day of November, 1929, and if you fail to so appear and answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit: For a divorce of and from you upon the grounds of desertion for a period of more than one year last past and immediately prior to the commencement of this suit and for such other relief which to the court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by the publication thereof once each week for a period of four successive and consecutive weeks (five insertions) pursuant to order of the Honorable W. M. Duncan, judge of the above-entitled court, made and entered on the 29th day of October, 1929.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE PELICAN

Thank the talkies, if you must, for bringing us a more powerful form of entertainment than their predecessor, the silent drama. One of the really fine things which had come to us out of this talking age is "Woman Trap," the Paramount all-talking attraction at the Pelican theatre for two days.

"Woman Trap" is from the stage play "Brothers" which is still showing to capacity houses wherever presented, and it is very easy to see why. The conflict of brother vs. brother started with the first two brothers on the face of the earth. But it remained for Paramount to give to the stage play that added life which is impossible to encompass on any stage.

It is a sensational, daring picture with a theme that moves audiences in perfect rhythm to its action. The theme touches your heart. The action moves so swiftly you gasp for breath.
