

PREMIER HOME, FROM VISIT TO UNITED STATES

MacDonald Says Much
Good Will Result
From Trip

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 1. (AP)—Ramsay MacDonald, debarking today from the steamship Duchess of York, which brought him back to Britain from an American visit, declared he believed his trip had furthered the interests of world peace, and had been a success.

"I believe sincerely that my meeting with President Hoover and my conversations with him and with other United States statesmen have brought our two people much closer together and improved enormously their mutual understanding," he said.

Mission Fulfilled
"My mission has also, I am convinced, paved the way for more effectual co-operation with the other powers in maintaining the peace of the world. Strong in this conviction, I feel that thus far the purpose of my mission has been fulfilled, and that the way is now cleared for the next steps."

He said the exchange of views he had with Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada, both on his United States mission and on imperial affairs, was also most advantageous and timely.

Good Response
"Throughout my visit," he added, "I have endeavored as best I could to voice what I believed to be the peaceful aspirations of the British people in all parts of the empire, and to that I have met with nothing but the most welcome response."

"I am encouraged in this confidence by remembering that I have been accompanied throughout by representatives of the press of all shades of opinion, and that the press of this country, the United States and Canada, has been most uniformly favorable and helpful to the ends I have had in view."

Given Warm Welcome

MacDonald returned to an England coated with frost, but as warm in its welcome as the weather was chilly. On the dock, white with frost, a few hundred friends and well-wishers cheered him. Crowds of workmen shouted, "Good Old Mac," and "Glad to see you again, Mac," as his party debarked and made for the train shed, where a special car was attached to the regular boat train to London.

Lord Derby, Lord Mayor Miller of Liverpool and delegations of city councillors and labor organizations were among those who went aboard the ship to greet the premier. Miss Ishbel, receiving flowers from them, was an attractive, demure figure.

MISSION BELLS NEXT SUBJECT FOR PROGRAM

"Mission Bells," a Spanish romance, with the early missionary period of California for its background, is the story which the Empire Builders will tell Monday night, November 4.

A real musical setting has been arranged by Andy Sanella, whose orchestra is one of the enjoyable features of this series.

Bob MacGimsey, whistler extraordinary, returns to the air with Empire Builders on this occasion. MacGimsey's harmony three-part whistling is done without the aid of mechanical devices or the use of his fingers.

"Mission Bells" is based on the direction of the Mission of San Gabriel, near Los Angeles. As is usual in Spanish love affairs, the hero, Don Louis de Torre, fell in love with Carmen, beautiful senorita of Mexico City. Don Louis had to leave for the "far north," while Carmen was to come later when the mission bells were sent from Mexico City. In the meantime, the Indians attacked the little garrison, Louis disappeared, and the story reaches its climax when the mission bells are finally dedicated.

Empire Builders, which is sponsored by the Great Northern railway, is broadcast from 7:30 to 8:00 o'clock, Pacific standard time; 8:30 to 9:00 o'clock Mountain standard time; 9:30 to 10:00 o'clock, Central standard time, and 10:30 to 11:00 o'clock, Eastern standard time, over the following stations: WEZA, Boston; KYW, Chicago; WLW, Cincinnati; WEAP, Dallas-Fort Worth; KOA, Denver; WJH, Detroit; WEBC, Duluth-Superior; KPRC, Houston; WREN, Kansas City (Lawrence); KFL, Los Angeles; WTMJ, Milwaukee; WJZ, New York; WKY, Oklahoma City; KDKA, Pittsburgh; KGW, Portland, Ore.; WHAM, Rochester; KWK, St. Louis; KSTP, St. Paul-Minneapolis; KSL, Salt Lake City; WOAI, San Antonio; KGO-KFO, San Francisco-Oakland; KOMO, Seattle; KHQ, Spokane; WLS, Springfield, and KVOO, Tulsa.

ONE FOR BUSINESS

"Come here, Letty," said a visitor to the daughter of her hostess.

"Tell me how old you are."

"Do you mean when I'm at home or when I'm traveling?" asked Letty. —Answers.
