Fat Girls! Here's A Tip For You

All over the world Kruschen Salts is appealing to girls and women who strive for an attractive, free from fat figure that cannot fail to win admiration. Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one-half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Be sure and do this every morning for "it's the little daily dose that takes off the fat." Don't miss a morning. The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful acids and gases are expelled from the system.

At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are toned up and the pure, fresh blood containing nature's six life-giving salts are carried to every organ, gland, nerve and fibre of the body and this is followed by "that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

Get an 85c bottle of Kruschen Salts at Whitman Drug Co., or any drug store (last 2 months) with the distinct understanding that you must be satisfied with results or money back.—Adv.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE PELICAN

"Buildog Drummond," playing at the Pelican theatre now, has been acclaimed by the leading critics of the principal New York newspapers. Here's what they say of this picture:

Times: "It is the happiest and most enjoyable entertainment of its kind that has so far reached the screen."—Mordant Hall.

Herald-Tribune: "Moves with a gratifying rapidity talking pictures seldom achieve. One of the distinct achievements of the talking photoplay."—Richard Watts.

Evening World: "Ronald Colman reveals one of the best speaking voices of any screen star. He is superb. Don't miss this one."—George Gerhardt.

World: "Ronald Colman gets my vote. Here, my dears, is an actor. The dramatic force and movement of the picture is compelling. My advice is, see it—and I mean it."—Quinn Martin.

News: "A 4-star picture. A peach of a happy, snappy thrilling picture that will endear Ronald Colman more than ever before to the hearts of his public. You'll simply adore him in this role."—Irene Thirer.

Sun: "Buildog Drummond" is a superior sound production, exquisitely photographed, a masterpiece. Ronald Colman is perfectly at home in dialogue."—John S. Cohen, Jr.

Journal: "Gorgeous entertainment. One of the best talking films yet presented. Entire picture has everything that goes to make up an enjoyable evening. 'Don't miss it.'—Rose Peiswick.

Telegram: "Ronald Colman is splendid. Advise you to rush around to the box-office and seize a pair of tickets while the seizing is still good."—Katherine Zimmerman.

Evening Post: "Ronald Colman is about twice as attractive in the talkies as he was on the silent screen. Something which will keep you on edge the whole while."—Creighton Post.

Graphic: "Ronald Colman is perfect. It's the kind of picture you will enjoy from start to finish. Don't fail to see it at least once."—Lois Ball.

AT THE PINE TREE

Rin-Tin-Tin, the most popular canine star of the films, is at his best in Warner Bros. "Frozen River," which opened a four days' engagement at the Pine Tree theatre last night. Rinty's fans remain loyal because he is a good actor and the producers give him a good story and an excellent supporting cast of human players.

Scene from "Frozen River" starring Rinty as a Hermit Dog Production

In "Frozen River" Rinty is Lobo, a husky, reared among wolves, a killer with a price upon his head. But he makes friends with a little boy, Billy and later with his sister, Jane, and with a young mining engineer, Jerry. Potter and Pierre plot to compel Hazy, the girl's grandfather, to tell of the hiding place of his cache of gold at Frozen River. Hazy entrusts the secret to Jane and the villain plots to torture little Billy to make her disclose the hiding place. Lobo brings Jerry to the deserted cabin and then tracks the villains. A terrific fight ensues between Lobo and Pierre, who had once tormented the dog and between Jerry and Potter. Lobo defeats Pierre and drives him into the wilderness topees Potter over a cliff as he struggles with Jerry, and then saves Billy when the dog tears runs away.

Rinty is a dog and a hero to be proud of, and the audience was thrilled by his acting and the perfect recording of his personality. Davey Lee, star of "Sonny Boy" and the child with Al Jolson in "The Singing Fool," is Billy, and again demonstrates his charm and his histrionic gifts. Raymond McKee and Nina Quartero sustain the love interest.

AT THE LIBERTY
Behold the change in the lair of the film vampire, as revealed in the FBO production, "The Woman I Love," which is now at the Liberty theatre.

In the early days of motion pictures, breath quickened at the leopard skins and incense providing the setting wherein Theda Bara and Louise Glaum wore their spidery webs about their masculine prey.

Millions roved in the sight of those screen sirens rolling on their plush pillows. But the perior into which the innocent fly, as represented by the mer male, is lured these days, has changed its sinister aspect! At any rate, the trend of the times is shown in the residence where a modern vampire—Lola Lorraine—finds her seclusion in "The Woman I Love."
