Membership Meet At Pelican City

Tonight there will be held, at the Pelican Community club, a regular membership meeting, for all members of the club. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock. The social committee has been fortunate in securing for this meeting the program sponsored by the Oregon State Board of Forestry, Oregon Fire association and the United States Forest Service. The program is termed "The Story of the Forest" and this story is graphically told by motion pictures and one of the finest sets of hand-colored lantern slides ever collected on the subject.

There are three parts to the program: First, "The forest and its beauties," scenery, wild life and recreation; second is "The forests and its industries," logging, lumbering and grazing, and last is "The forest and its tragedies," forest fires, deforestation and erosion.

These pictures have been shown throughout the state in schools, theaters, grange halls, service clubs and on the Ellswood-White Chautauqua platform.

Mr. Fuller, known as "Oile" for his Swedish stories, and George E. Griffith of the forest service will be in charge of the lectures and pictures.

Previous to the "Story of the Forest" there will be the regular business meeting and following it there will be refreshments.
