RAMBLERS AND PITT CONTEND CHAMPIONSHIP

Two Teams Paired in Race for National Football Flag.

By ALAN GOULD.
Associated Press Sports Editor
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 18. (AP)—Notre Dame, if it continues along the unbeaten football trail, may have to share a full portion of the national championship honors of 1929 with at least one other team, Pittsburgh, but the dramatic laurels of the season already belong to the Ramblers and Rockne.

Football has witnessed few such illustrations of inspiration, few such examples of magnificent team spirit as that manifested so far in the all-conquering march of the stalwarts of Notre Dame, while their guiding genius, Knute Rockne, has been fighting a battle of his own against a badly infected leg.

Rockne Directs Three Games
Rockne has been able to direct personally only three of the seven games won thus far, but so sound is "Rock's" system, so dynamic his influence, even under handicaps, and so capable his corps of assistants, led by Tom Lieb, that Notre Dame has swept on with relentless determination. This was the year that "Rock" predicted the boys would come through, and if they make it a clean sweep, as they seem likely to, it will be one of the greatest tributes of all time to any football coaching skill. If "Rock" is bundled in a cot on the sidelines, needed a tonic Saturday he got it in the spectacular 13-12 victory his pupils scored over the gallant Trojans of Southern California. It was the first time since the Carnegie game three weeks previous that Rockne was able to be on the field. In spite of the strain, the hand-sawing and the uproar, he felt "great," he said afterward, and he looked it. Something in the unquenchable spirit of the "Rock" has been transferred to his men.

Had Staff Schedule
No team in the country has played any stiffer schedule than Notre Dame. No team except Pittsburgh, and possibly Purdue, can show a record of sweeping triumph as convincing. It would take a hardy critic, who has seen both the Panther and the Rambler, to say which had the best defense, which the harder punch. Measured by cold results, Pitt's powerhouse has generated 257 points to show a distinct scoring edge over Notre Dame, with 112, but Pitt has had at least a few soft spots to send the figures soaring.

Pitt Meets Penn
This week Pittsburgh rests up in preparation for the Thanksgiving day final with Penn State. This held forth bright prospects a week ago, after State walloped Pennsylvania, but Bucknell battered the Nittany Lions last Saturday, 27 to 6, and Pitt should have comparatively little trouble rounding out an unbeaten season.

Notre Dame faces Northwestern this week and Army the next, with no chance of a let-up, even though each of these teams has been twice beaten. It would make the campaign a success now for any team to bowl over the Ramblers. Rockne is always the main target and West Point, with Red Cagle making his last eastern fling, will make it a grandstand finish before 50,000 in the Yankee stadium November 30.

Vast Crowds Fill Stadium
The week's biggest spectacle will be staged with all traditional pomp and panoply at Cambridge and Palo Alto, though neither can measure up to the amazing turnout of 123,000 spectators for the Notre Dame-Southern California battle at Soldier Field. Harvard and Yale will wind up their season before 58,000, while California and Stanford will battle in the far West before 37,000, with the Pacific Coast conference title at stake.

Championships have virtually been decided in the East, with Pittsburgh at the peak, and in the Big Ten, with Purdue crowned for the first time, untied, unbeaten, and boasting a record that compares favorably with those of Pitt and Notre Dame.

The intercollegiate program this week features the invasion of mid-western gridirons by two more Pacific Coast teams. Washington, in spite of a disastrous season at home, has a good chance to win from Chicago, but Oregon Aggies will run into one of the strongest teams in the country, Detroit, which is unbeaten and tied only once.

WOOD RETAINS TITLE.
HONOLULU, Nov. 18. (AP)—Craig Wood, Bloomfield, N. J., professional, today held the second annual Hawaiian open golf championship, after a stellar performance on the tricky Waialeale course that saw him rise from twelfth place at the end of the first day's play to capture the title and $1,600 in prize money.

Japan's population increased more than 100 per cent from 1848 to 1929.

Stocks Down So Sharkey Can Buy

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)
A short time ago I was talking to Jack Sharkey and he was saying that he had set a goal of $1,000,000 in gilt edge securities before he quit the ring. Jack has drawn down $200,000 in the last year as his bit in his Stripling and Loughran bouts and is well on his way.

Not so long ago, in 1899 as a matter of fact, there was an almost equal interest in the Jeffries-Sharkey fight because it was billed as the "Hundred Thousand Dollar Battle."

Only a few years before, fighters and spectators had to slip away to some out of the way clearing or some barge on the river and watch the fight with one eye and look out for the sheriff with the other.

The immortal Bendigo, champion of England in the 1830's won a series of championship fights whose length and number would shame any modern boxer's record; yet in his later years he sought to support himself by turning preacher. As great a boxer as Bob Fitzsimmons made a pitiful amount of money in the ring and became an evangelist in his later days.

Bears Undeatable
California's Bears, undefeated and untied in conference play, will make their final bid for glory with their oldest college rivals in the opposing role. Nearly 90,000 persons, taxing the utmost capacity of the huge, earthen Stanford stadium, will be on hand.

From Dark to Dawn
When the Bears nosed out a plucky Washington Husky eleven, 7-0, at Berkeley last Saturday they turned into the home stretch of a gridiron highway that has led them from the wilderness of early season speculation to within sight of the promised land. Unimpressive at the start, California has crushed four conference opponents as follows: Washington State, 14-0; Southern California, 15-7; Montana, 53-18; Washington, 7-0.

Those who came to weep for California have stayed to cheer for a great football team coached by a game little leader, C. M. "Nibs" Price. In the fact of many defeats and much grief, Price carried on to produce a machine this season as formidable as the powerful California eleven of the past.

Stanford Slumps
Off to a brilliant start, Stanford has slumped badly in the closing weeks, especially since its 7-0 defeat by Southern California, Oct. 26. Last Saturday it was caught unawares by an alert Santa Clara team and bowed to a 13-7 defeat. That outcome impressed on a few thousand spectators that the day of the upset is still with us.

Game of Year
It is safe to predict that the Stanford team that lines up against California will not perform like the one that lost to Santa Clara. Last Saturday's defeat, coupled with the intense rivalry in the forthcoming contest, should produce a fighting Stanford team that will be in there battling every minute. It will be the toughest game of the year for California.

FOOTBALL PAYS.
CHICAGO, Nov. 18. (AP)—Football's biggest crowd, the 123,000 persons who witnessed the Notre Dame-Southern California game at Soldier Field Saturday, drew a gate of nearly $250,000, a partial check up by South Park board commissioners has revealed.

ASHLAND WINS FROM PELICANS

Game Played Saturday Ended With 26-6 Score.

The Klamath Union high school Pelicans went down to defeat, 26 to 6, before a hard charging Ashland team Saturday afternoon at Ashland.

The game was never in doubt from the opening whistle, when the Grizzlies of the valley sent Reeder, halfback, over for a touchdown. Try for point was unsuccessful.

Again in the second quarter Ashland managed to keep the upper hand and by advancing the ball on a series of long end runs in which Hitchcock and McLeod played a prominent part, they took the ball over for a second touchdown. They again failed to convert.

The Pelicans came back with a vengeance and Jimmie Hall carried the ball for several gains which proved of no avail, since the half ended with no further scoring.

The Grizzlies received at the start of the second half, and after an exchange of punts, several long passes resulted in another touchdown. Klamath was not touched for the afternoon, however, and Virgil Grove, who played a brilliant game, caught a pass and raced 40 yards for a touchdown.

Following this, the Ashland team, led by the chunky Hitchcock, again scored, making a final score of 26 to 6.

The Pelicans were greatly handicapped by the loss of Guido Robustelli, star quarterback who was unable to play on account of illness.

Notwithstanding the overpowering score, the Klamath team felt jubilant last night at the prospects of the game next week with Medford, who has not been beaten by a Klamath squad since 1921. Ashland recently walked over Medford by a score of 19 to 7.

One of the Year's Best Football Action Pictures

Coach Phelan Says Woerner Greatest Pass Catcher—But—

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 18. (AP)—Coach Jimmy Phelan of Purdue's first western conference championship football team, after 32 years of weary waiting and disappointments, says Bill Woerner, the sophomore end who snagged two forward passes and scored the touchdown which gave the Boilermakers the title, in the Iowa game Saturday, is the greatest of pass catchers—but—

The "but," however, did not mean that Woerner is not an extremely handy athlete.

Woerner is the greatest pass catcher I have seen," Phelan said, "but he is about the worst runner I have ever looked at, after catching a pass. 'We just decided to keep

Oregon Star May Be Out For Good

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 18. (AP)—The possibility that Johnny Kittmiller, quarterback, and a famed "Flying Dutchman" of the University of Oregon football team, may never play another game, lowered a pall of gloom over the university campus here today.

Oregon's 16 to 0 victory over Oregon State here Saturday lost much of its glamor when the injury to the university's gridiron hero was contemplated.

Kittmiller was injured in the last play of the first half when two tacklers slammed him to the ground.

The injury consists of a fracture of the right fibula, a small bone in the leg, a few inches above the ankle, and dislocation of the right ankle. The dislocation is the more serious. The fibula and tibia, its companion bone, were spread apart at their juncture, tearing ligaments and tissue.

Danger of a permanently stiffened joint is seen by surgeons.
