Pretoria Alarmed By Native Unrest

PRETORIA, South Africa, Nov. 21. (AP)—Widespread and serious native unrest, fanned by numerous organizations in many cases closely in touch with the Communist third international, faces the government of South Africa, Oswald Porow, minister of justice, said at a meeting here. It was a significant fact, he said, that native unrest was not confined to the Union of South Africa but was beginning to extend into southern Rhodesia. It was agreed on all sides, he said, that native unrest in the union had reached a dangerous stage. FOR RESULTS USE THE HERALD WANT ADS.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE PELICAN After Pathe first announced that Eddie Quillan would be featured in "Joe College," which was the initial title of "The Sophomore," hundreds of his followers wrote him asking just what the title meant. In view of the fact that the motion picture public as a whole could not definitely have a knowledge of college colloquialisms, it was deemed best to change the title to one that everybody readily understood. So it came about that "The Sophomore" was chosen as the final title of the dialogue picture in which Eddie Quillan, Sally O'Neill and Jeanette Loff are featured. "The Sophomore," at the Pelican theatre now, is a delightful story of college life in which Eddie Quillan as Joe Collins, a Sophomore, is a modern up-to-date young chap who does some wonderfully amusing things. There is a strong love interest in the story and the climax is quite unusual. In addition to those mentioned, the cast includes Stanley Smith, Russell Gleason, Sarah Padden, Brooks Benedict and Spec O'Donnell.

AT THE LIBERTY In presenting "The Black Pirate," which is coming to the Liberty theatre today, Douglas Fairbanks is up to one of his pioneering tricks again. The film is in natural color, and a vast improvement, we are told, over past efforts at presenting color. "Doug" has picked out tones which are calculated to rest the eyes—principally browns and greens and their complements. And all the color is selected in accordance with its dramatic value. Four months of experimental work was done along this line before a crank was turned on production. The story is an original from the facile pen of Mr. Milton Thomas. All the "go-ho" and "avast" of 17th century piracy are in "The Black Pirate," along with everything that any pirate did, from burying treasure to walking the plank. Without being specific, Fairbanks chose the Southern Seas as his locale, thus giving his adventures plenty of sea room. Albert Parker was custodian of the megaphone on "The Black Pirate." Billie Dove, that lovely young leading lady who is rapidly heading for stardom, furnishes the pulchritude in this picture and also Doug's motive for cleaning up a couple of shiploads of pirates.

AT THE VOX One of the most famous orchestras in the country will entertain patrons of the Vox theatre next Friday, when "Street Girl," the all-talking and all-musical Radio Picture featuring Betty Compton, opens. Guy Arnheim and his Coconut Grove Ambassadors, now playing at the Ambassadors Club in Paris, appear in several of the night club sequences of the Radio Picture. Four musical numbers, written originally for "Street Girl," are being featured by Arnheim and his band as they play for the dancers in the Paris club; and in each town "Street Girl" has appeared this season, these tunes have quickly become favorite with local orchestras. John Harmon, Jack Oakie, Ned Sparks, Joseph Cawthorn, Ivan Lebedeff and Eddie Kane head the supporting cast which Wesley Ruggles directed. The story tells of the adventures of a little group of musicians in a cafe of New York's "Little Hungary."

VILMA BANKY—THIS IS HEAVEN for comedy in the light situations of the earlier part of the picture, she has proved to her public that Samuel Goldwyn did a role in which she could be just a beautiful of our own times. "This is Heaven" gives her the part of a little immigrant Cinderella who arrives at Ellis Island and is immediately swallowed up in the seething mass of New Yorkers trying to earn a living. She goes to work as a waitress in a white-tiled restaurant, meets her dream hero under the impression that he is a chauffeur and does not discover that he is really a blue-blooded millionaire until his

Albany Youth Held For Misusing Mails

ALBANY, Ore., Nov. 21. (AP)—Arrested on complaint of Lois Wilson, motion picture actress, who told authorities he had annoyed and threatened her, Clifton Phelps, 21, Albany youth, was in jail today pending a sautty hearing. Albany police were informed Phelps had written Miss Wilson many letters and had made one trip to Beverly Hills, Cal., to see Miss Wilson. Phelps, according to police, mailed the movie star a large butcher knife smeared with red paint which was accompanied by a note bearing the likeness of a skull and cross bones. Phelps is charged with misuse of the mails, but authorities said the charge probably would be dropped if Phelps is found insane.

Relief From Curse of Constipation A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lax, dry, spasmodic bowel called "the colon." The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or increasing the dose. Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Hexal Orderite at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25 c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.—Star Drug Store.

ENJOINS FISH COMMISSION

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 21. (AP)—Fred Robitach, Tillamook county fisherman, is attempting to enjoin the state fish commission from enforcing an order closing Tillamook river to commercial fishing. Robitach avers that the order exceeds the authority of the commission and is tantamount to legislation.

Watch Tongue For Signs of Illness Your tongue is nothing more than the upper end of your stomach and intestines. It is the first thing your doctor looks at. It tells at a glance the condition of your digestive system—and physicians say that 90 per cent of all sicknesses start with stomach and bowel trouble.

A white or yellowish coating on your tongue is a danger signal of those digestive disorders. It tells you why the least exertion tires you out; why you have pains in the bowels, gas, sour stomach, dizzy spells. And it's a sign you need Tanlac. This good old reliable medicine has helped thousands who were physical wrecks. See how the first bottle helps you.

Tanlac contains no mineral drugs; it is made of barks, herbs and roots—nature's own medicines for the sick. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Your money won't hurt if it doesn't help you.
