IRISH FIGHTER PACKS WALLOP IN EACH MITT

O'Dowd Gives Fans An Eyeful of Boxing And Slugging.

Cash customers at the Legion smoker Friday evening will get their money's worth, or there are a lot of fans around Klamath Falls who have been guessing wrong on this fight game all the time.

A goodly number of admirers of the gentle art of self defense watched Jimmy O'Dowd work out last night at the pavilion, and they are convinced that Willie Feldman will have to extend himself to an even greater extent than he did in his close decision over Tiger Bob Robinson.

This Irish boy not only shows exceptionally clever boxing form, but he can hit like a trip hammer. If Feldman isn't on his guard every second this boy is liable to put him to sleep.

O'Dowd comes to Klamath Falls with eight straight victories to his credit, all of them in San Francisco and vicinity, where fast boys only get a look in on the gate receipts. In his work-out last night he mixed freely with Battling Siki and Dynamite Lee, and showed the fans that he knows what it's all about.

Feldman in the Pink
On the other hand, let nobody labor under the impression that the Jewish champ won't be able to deliver his end of the contract. He has been working out with Gene O'Grady the past ten days, and has become acclimated. He suffered a slight handicap on that account in his fight with Tiger Bob, but with more time to develop his wind here, he shows no traces of fatigue, and is set to go ten hard, fast rounds, if necessary. As "Tex" would say: This will be one sweet fight.

Tiny in the Semi-Final
Believing that Tiny McCumber has shown himself worthy of more honor than has been given him up to date, Tex has arranged a match for him with Battling Siki, promising and experienced colored boxer of San Francisco. Thus far Tiny has fought almost 14 rounds and acquired an enviable reputation as a knockout artist, with a record of seven knockouts in seven times up. At that, Tiny and his backers are in a stage of uncertainty relative to his actual strength, for the simple reason that most of his fights have been set-ups. It is only fair to this promising young man that he be given an opportunity to face an experienced fighter—one that will give him some ring tricks and give him a few wallops, just to let him know what a fighter has to take. It is believed that Siki will give him this bit of training, and if the colored boy should land a haymaker on Tiny's jaw the big Dairy boy will have an opportunity to think over the boxing game with a serious mien.

However, the worry is not all on Tiny's side. Siki wants to steer clear of that egg-crate wallop, or he's liable to wake up after the main event is over with.

It is said that all of the Yonka valley boys will be at the ringside to watch their favorite son in his first real battle. So far, Tiny is the best boy ever developed in this section, and if he is to go on up in the game he will have to begin soon to take in more territory. He looks good at this stage of the game. Not only does he handle himself with confidence, but he lives clean, trains faithfully, and exhibits a fine sportsmanship that wins for him the respect and best wishes of the fans. If that counts for anything, Tiny is destined to meet some of the best men in his weight class.

Rose Faces Wright
The bout that may steal the show is the special event. Ray Rose, the Spar champion, faces the most popular little Indian fighter ever developed in Clatsop—Harold Wright. Ray caught Harold out of condition when they met before, and gave the Clatsop lad a nice beating. But the little redskin has been working hard for this return match, and will be right there doing his best to reverse the decision. Anyhow, this bout is a natural, as shown by lots of money being wagered. The betting is even—take your choice.

There will be two red-hot preliminaries. It looks like a capacity house, from the way fans are warming up to the card.

Tickets are on sale at the Meads. Phone 153.

Occasionally when the uniforms of major league clubs are returned after being dry cleaned a small piece of paper is found in the pants pocket on which has been written the name and telephone number of one of the more adventuresome and romantic girls at the laundry.

These phone numbers have caused some real laughs. I remember one newspaper scribe making a date with one of the girls and wearing Christy Mathewson's mackinaw whose name was on the inside of his coat. In after years she boasted that she had once been out with "Big Six."

Some of the single fellows used the clubhouse boy as a "decoy." They would date the girls up and then send him out ahead to look them over. They had great confidence in his judgment of feminine pulchritude, and by the way some real romances were started in this manner.

ROSE CLASSIC FAVORS BEARS AND RAMBLERS

Price And Rockne In Line for Contest Of Season.

By PAUL B. ZIMMERMAN Associated Press Sports Writer.

PASADENA, Calif., Nov. 21, (AP)—While those who have the say-so mark time, awaiting the outcome of Saturday's important gridiron battles, the unofficial selection of the Eastern and Western candidates for the annual Tournament of Roses here New Year's Day goes on at an increased pace.

Prevailing opinion marks the Golden Bears of the University of California at Berkeley as the most probable Western representative, but only the outcome of the big game with Stanford this week end definitely will answer the question of whether Coach Clarence "Nibs" Price's aggregation will be in a receptive mood for such an invitation.

By the process of elimination, the potential possibilities in the Eastern section should also be well defined by the time the smoke of battle has cleared away, with Notre Dame and Pittsburgh most prominently mentioned.

Only a decisive beating at the hands of Coach Glenn, "Pop" Warner's Cardinals, those close to the situation say, could eliminate the Bears, who have yet to be defeated. St. Mary's college, with its goal line uncrossed this year, patiently awaits such a chance occurrence, ready to jump at an offer to appear here January 1.

Of the Eastern aggregations, it is believed there are two good-sized hurdles in the path of the Ramblers in Northwestern and the Army. The question also crops out as to whether the South Bend, Ind., mentor will be in the proper physical condition to stand an additional month of stress a western jaunt would place upon him.

cept this challenge depended upon the game Washington played with Benson yesterday. As the final score was a 7 to 7 tie, and this did not alter the status of Washington in the Portland standings, the high school officials announced that if Bend defeats The Dalles in the scheduled game Friday the turkey day tray here would go through as originally planned.

Eldon Jenne, coach of Washington, states that his team is in top shape, and is ready to meet an invading Bend eleven.

LEWIS TOSSES ANOTHER. DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 21, (AP)—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, former heavyweight wrestling champion of Los Angeles, defeated Pat O'Shocker of Salt Lake City here last night.

O'Shocker was injured when Lewis tossed him in 25 minutes, 4 seconds, with his famous headlock, and was unable to return for the second fall.

OREGON FACES TOUGH BUNCH IN HAWAIIANS

Island Boys Display Unusual Talent In Football.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 21, (AP)—The university of Hawaii football team was to arrive here today after a 2800 mile journey from its fortress in the mid-Pacific. Two days of practice lay in store for the invading islanders before engaging the University of Oregon eleven on Multnomah stadium field Saturday.

The Hawaiian gridlers made two stops en route here from Honolulu, one at Berkeley Tuesday and the other at Ashland, Ore., yesterday. An intensive practice session was held at Ashland by Coach Otto Klum, a former resident of that town. The Hawaiians breezed through 45 minutes of mock scrimmage, the squad of 23 having been divided into two teams, and later signal drills saw the regulars parade up and down the field.

One White on Team
Eight native Hawaiians, a Japanese, American negro from Cheyenne, Wyo., and a white student, Noel Howell of Honolulu, compose the proposed starting lineup as announced by the Hawaiian mentor. It includes the Nobrigan twins, Ted and Arthur, and Captain Rusty Holt, ace ball toter. The latter is the triple threat menace from the mid-Pacific gridiron fortress, and he astonishes spectators who watched him yesterday with his excellent passing, kicking and running.

Weather Displeases
Dr. R. B. Faus, physical director of the island university, who accompanied the Hawaiian eleven on its long journey, did not appear overly satisfied with the Oregon weather.

"I fear I shall have more trouble with frost bite than gridiron injuries," he declared.

The weather here has been unusually warm for this season, however, and Coach Klum and Manager Chadeey P. Enshallow were more optimistic.

"The weather won't bother us if it stays like this," Klum declared.

The University of Oregon team will leave Eugene Friday, arriving here the same day in time for a light work-out on Multnomah field.

DUNDEE NODS AKERS

SALEM, Nov. 21, (AP)—Pat Dundee won a ten-round decision over Art Akers here last night. Dundee led virtually all the way. The boys are welterweights. Cliff Wetzel won on a technical knockout over Jack Summers, when the latter failed to answer the bell at the start of the fifth round. Summers was on the floor taking the count when the gong ended the fourth.

Huskies and Chicago To Meet Saturday

CHICAGO, Nov. 21, (AP)—The University of Washington and Chicago football teams have not met before, and the rival captains, Paul Jessup of the Huskies, and Pat Kelly of Chicago, came from different parts of the country, but Saturday's game at Stagg Field will not be their first meeting.

Jessup who live at Bellingham, Wash., and Kelly, a Chicago youth, conditioned themselves for football last summer "mucking" in the same lead-silver mine at Mullen, Idaho. They will not be directly opposed Saturday, however, Kelly being an end, and Jessup being stationed at center, although he has played at tackle heretofore.

Ashland Preparing Homecoming Event

A real welcome is promised alumni and former students of the Southern Oregon Normal school when they celebrate the annual homecoming on November 23 at Ashland. Several student committees have been working for the past two months, and the results of that labor are beginning to be apparent. As a matter of fact, homecoming at the Southern Oregon institution is rather becoming a week of festivities, instead of one day.

The principal event of interest is the football game between the SONS and Humboldt State college of Arcata, Calif. The visitors are coming primed to win. Coach Tetonicher of the coast institution has had teams competing with the men from Southern Oregon in years past, and knows what to expect. His team has had a fairly successful season thus far, their worst defeat being at the hands of Monmouth Normal, the score being 31-0. Coach McNeal's team recently defeated the strong Chico State Teachers college team, and are rabid to triumph over another California institution. A record crowd is expected.

All alumni and former students are invited to attend a homecoming banquet to be held at the Luthia Springs hotel in the evening after the game. Plans have been worked out by a committee.

SAMMY FIGHTS TONIGHT

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 21, (AP)—A topheavy favorite and with nothing to lose, Sammy Mandell, world's lightweight champion, tonight will meet Joe Accarella of Milwaukee in an eight round non-title bout. Weight has been set at 135.

ALBIE BOOTH MAY NOT PLAY

Toy Bulldog of Yale Team Still Carries Limp and Indulges in Lightest Practice

NEW YORK, Nov. 21, (AP)—With the climax of the 1929 football season coming Saturday for half a dozen of the most important Eastern elevens, hard work has all but been finished for the week.

The big question all along the Atlantic seaboard is whether Albie Booth will be able to lead Yale's attack in the Harvard stadium, and if so, for how long a period. The tiny minute man of the Elis appeared in uniform at the practice field in New Haven yesterday, but merely tried his hand at forward passing and spun a few drop kicks at the bar. He is the only one of the leading Eastern scorers with a field goal to his credit this season, and has yet to miss a goal from touchdown in a major game.

Booth limped less, but Hal Stevens, Yale coach, insisted that it was still "uncertain" whether the Toy Bulldog would face the Crimson.

Adam Watson sent the Yale line through a session of "live" tackling as the backs went through a passing drill. Later a dummy scrimmage was held against the scrubs, who used Harvard forward and lateral passes. The practice was secret.

At Cambridge, Harvard reported great success by its varsity in halting the Yale running attack, as played by the Crimson scrubs. The Harvard team returned to work after a brief vacation at the Myopia Hunt club.

Camel has the quality that smokers depend upon

It is all right to experiment but a pity to spend too much time experimenting when you might be enjoying the fragrant pleasure of smoking Camels.

It has been the experience of many smokers, after trying other brands, that Camels give constant and unflinching pleasure. Their mildness, due to choice tobaccos and expert blending, makes it possible to smoke them liberally without any tiring of the taste. This quality, which smokers have learned to depend upon, will be maintained, because Camels are made for those who know and appreciate the real pleasure of smoking.
