ROTARY HEARS DEAN HEWITT

Speaker Insists Every Man Owes Debt To Society.

Convincing Rotarians that the life of sacrifice for the good of others is the only life that registers and brings joy and contentment, Dean Hewitt, of the College of Law at Willamette University at Salem, spoke for half an hour Friday at the regular weekly luncheon in the Pelican Grill.

Dean Roy Hewitt

Rotarians had looked forward for some time to Dean Hewitt's visit, knowing that in the brief time allotted him he would send a message into the hearts of men. They were rewarded Friday with one of the choicest short talks filled with stories illustrating his points, that has been delivered before the local civic club.

Dean Hewitt told of instances where his friends had rendered aid and comfort to young people in trouble, and how that service to humanity had been returned a hundred fold in satisfaction and peace of mind. He insisted that every man has an obligation to society which cannot be dodged. His advice to Rotarians was to open their minds to the troubles of others; not to live the oyster life with hardened shell and self-centered thoughts.

The speaker paid Klamath Falls a very fine tribute when he compared its present appearance with the Klamath Falls he last saw several years ago.

Ralph R. McCartney was chairman of the luncheon.

Program of Merit To Be Offered at Vesper Services

A beautiful program has been announced for the vesper hour at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday evening at 5:30. Several of the musicians of Klamath Falls have graciously contributed their talent to this service of worship. This friendly co-operation from week to week is proving a real service in bringing out increasing numbers to enjoy this hour of melodious praise. No little credit is due the committee which has assembled this talent. It is composed of Mr. E. L. Crumbitt, chairman; Mr. H. Grady Johnson, Mrs. L. L. Hendricks, Mrs. G. R. Hurn and Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg.

The following is the complete program:

- Organ Prelude — "Liebesfreud"
- Kreiser Hymn Invocation
- "The Blushing Rose" — Johnson K. U. H. S. Band Hymn
- "Calm as the Night" — Goetz Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford Scripture Hymn
- "Sweet Spirit Hear My Prayer" (Wallace) The Band
- Dedicatory Prayer
- Offeratory — "Pastorale" Richmond
- "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" (Ambrose)
- J. J. Ralph, Barytone
- "The Relationship of the Church to the Stranger in the Community" — Mr. Earl Murphy.
- "Miserere" — From II Trovatore
- "Sometime" — Anonymous
- Lloyd H. Derry, Saxophonist: Prayer
- "Twilight Thoughts" — Ribbie The Band Hymn
- Benediction (congregation seated)
- Postlude — "March Triomphale" Wachs

CHINESE BOMBED

MUKDEN, Manchuria, Dec. 13. (AP)—An official statement today said that the soviet was continuing its military operations in Western Manchuria. The Russians were said to have bombed Chinese positions in Pokoto, or Ebakedu, in the Khingan mountains.
