

NEWS IN BRIEF

Officers Meet Monday—Officers of the community chest who were elected last year are requested to meet at the chamber of commerce Monday evening, Dec. 16, to discuss plans for bringing some Christmas cheer into the lives of the needy at Christmas time. Anyone else interested in the work is also invited to attend, according to C. S. Robertson, president. Officers of this civic work include C. S. Robertson, president; T. B. Watters, vice president; George Lindley, treasurer, and Miss Edith McGinn, secretary. The executive committee is composed of the heads of various lodges and civic organizations in the city.

Entertainment Held—The Christmas party of the Women's Library club, which was held this afternoon, proved to be a decided success, and much enjoyment for all present. The business meeting at 2:30 was presided over by Mrs. Geo. R. Lindley. In the absence of the club president, Mrs. Claud H. Davis, who was ill. A special musical program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, following which a clock was presented to the club by Mr. Glover and acceptance made by Mrs. Lindley. Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Duke, assisted by several of the members.

Musicals Announced—A musical will be given at the vesper service of the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 8:30, December 15. The high school band will play several numbers. Lloyd Darry will play two saxophone solos. J. J. Ralph will sing, and Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford will sing a duet. There will be a ten minute talk on the subject of "The Relationship of the Church to the Stranger in the Community," by Earl Murphy.

Developments Planned—Extensive developments are planned at the Oregon Caves resort during 1930, according to George C. Bablin, manager of that resort, and he states there is still hope for an appropriation from congress to provide an illumination system for the caves.

Visiting Daughter—Mrs. Stella Lippert is here from Portland on a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Keith Cramer, 726 Oregon avenue, and will visit with other relatives and friends in Fort Klamath before returning to her home.

Organize New Club—Frank Sexton, county club leader, organized a cooking club of 11 girls at 8ly on Monday. Miss Esther Moore, primary teacher at 8ly, is the leader. Last week a cooking club of 19 girls was formed at Hildebrand, with Miss Doris Watson, principal of the school, as the leader. Several of the girls in the Hildebrand school are enrolled in division three cookery. This is a new division in home cookery, and quite a number in the county who have completed other work are enrolled in the new branch, according to Mr. Sexton.

Asks for Rural Route—With the first of the year only a few weeks off, which is the date set for the discontinuing the star mail service route from this city to Malin, Postmaster John McCall wired Washington, D. C., yesterday, asking for prompt action on the establishment of a rural route. McCall stated that about 125 families resided along the proposed rural route, and that rural route service must be started as soon as the star route is discontinued. Several weeks ago the postal inspector was here, went over this district and mapped out a route for mail service.

Plan Entertainment—The Zion Lutheran Young People's society is planning an entertainment and box social to be given Friday, December 13 (today). All members of the congregation and friends are invited to attend. Each lady attending is asked to furnish a box with enough to eat for two.

Announce Sale—The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will hold a cooked food sale and apron sale at the Sanitary Market, Saturday, December 14.

W. B. Burnett Leaves—W. B. Burnett left this morning for Clayton, Wash. on an extended trip. Mr. Burnett's residence is at 2265 Applegate avenue.

Left For Portland—George Thompson, resident of this city, left Thursday evening for Portland, where he will receive medical attention.

Returned Home—Franklin O. Parker returned home to Corvallis this morning on the Southern Pacific, after a short visit with friends in this vicinity.
