

NEWS IN BRIEF

Character Close-Ups

WHEN THE FACE VEERS TO ONE SIDE THE SUBJECT IS QUITE LIKELY TO BE TRICKY IN BUSINESS

Portland Registrants—Portland registrants at local hotels this morning and yesterday include H. E. Bous, R. E. McConnell, H. H. Long, Dora L. Hegler, E. G. Levitt, G. S. Yorbey, J. E. Brownley, Robert Barclay, C. J. Hubbard, Berton Smith, Frank N. Chamberlain, C. J. Neiter, Ben H. Resenthein, A. H. Quinn, H. S. Murray, G. W. Bramhart, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Harlan, A. E. Deaver, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. French, B. R. Kwanon, E. N. Maclelin, Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Milan, Chet Hillbury, C. F. Vallentyne, C. W. Hixon, H. A. Thomas and A. W. Gellin.

Harry Key Leaves—Harry Key, prominent rancher of the Klamath Basin, was among those leaving on the S. P. train Sunday morning. Mr. Key is going to New York where he will remain indefinitely and possibly make his home there. Mr. Key's daughter lives in New York. "If the east doesn't appeal to me I'll soon be back in Klamath 'hanching,'" Mr. Key stated.

Weyerhaeuser Men Here—Charles H. Ingram and A. H. Onstad, both men prominently identified with the Weyerhaeuser interests with headquarters at Tacoma, arrived this morning to spend a short time here visiting the local mill and attending to business matters. They are guests at the Willard hotel.

Married in Lakeview—B. B. McGilvery and Miss Theda Howell, both of Klamath Falls, were married at the Methodist church here Saturday morning. They were accompanied by Mr. W. H. Varner, also of Klamath Falls. Rev. W. W. Switzer read the ceremony.—Lakeview Tribune.

My Residents Leave—L. S. Ewin of My, Ore., left Sunday for Superior, Wisconsin, enroute to St. Louis where he plans to remain over the Christmas holidays visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Ewin will return to Klamath Falls shortly after the first of the year.

Brooks Move—Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Brock have moved from their former home at 1116 High, where they have resided for the past year, to the White Pine apartments. Mrs. Emma Miller, sister of Mrs. Brock, is residing with them.

Returned Home—Mrs. Olmsted has returned to her home at Medford after a visit in Klamath Falls with her aunt, Mrs. Marie Davern. Mrs. Olmsted attended the shower given on Tuesday evening for Clarice Elliott at the Davenport home.

Attractive Paper—The Modoc County Times at Alturas led their Christmas number of the paper on Thursday, Dec. 12, "all dressed up" in an attractive colored outside section, depicting Santa Claus and other Christmas emblems.

Enroute Home—C. R. Trawbridge purchased a ticket Sunday for Alturas. From that place he will leave for his home at Denver, Colo. Mr. Trawbridge spent a short time in Klamath on business.

Left For Portland—Joseph Ewing, 800 Upham street, was another Klamath resident to leave Sunday for Portland where he will remain a short time.

Continues Journey—Mr. Charles E. Roe of Portland continued his journey to Denver on the "Sierra" on Sunday, after stopping for several days in Klamath Falls. He spent part of the time visiting with friends in Medford.

Visiting in Portland—William E. Thompson, well known resident of Chiloquin, left on the Southern Pacific for Portland yesterday morning.

Left This Morning—H. Van Bibber of Klamath Falls left this morning for Fernley, Calif., to remain for a short visit with friends and to transact business matters.

County Nurse Is Ill—Miss Lida Frick has been ill at home for the past three days.

Returned South—Mrs. Geneva Wilson of San Francisco, who spent a short time visiting friends in Klamath Falls, returned to her home in the southern city via the Southern Pacific route.

Here On Business—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Harlan, residents of Portland, are in Klamath Falls for a short time on business and are guests at the Willard hotel. The visitors arrived this morning.

Old Nelson Leaves—Old Nelson, who gave his address as the Imperial room, left on the "Westcoast" Sunday morning for Portland on a short business trip.

Mrs. Bergendorf Leaves—Mrs. E. Bergendorf of the Valley hotel of this city left this morning for Oakland to remain until after the holidays visiting with friends and relatives.

Returned Home—Ben Benson, who spent several days last week here on business matters, has returned to his home in Portland.

Left For East—Mrs. A. C. Linton, resident of this city departed on Friday for Coal City, Ill.

Returned To Dorris—Joe Andrews returned this morning to his home at Dorris after a brief business visit in Klamath Falls over the week end.

Returned Home—Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Favell returned home from Klamath Falls having left Friday when Mr. Favell was called there on account of business. Mrs. M. E. Harrow accompanied them on the return trip.

Left For Portland—Guy L. Derrick of 1310 Pleasant avenue left Sunday morning for Portland where he will remain for a short time on business.

Jewell Bennett Returned—Jewell Bennett returned on Friday to her home in Clayton, Washington, after a brief visit here.

Continued To Seattle—A. Heady of Van Francisco continued his trip north to Seattle Saturday morning after a brief stop in Klamath Falls.

G. L. Brown Left—G. L. Brown, business man of Eugene who has been spending a short time here on business, has returned north to his home.

Visited Here—J. E. Monteigh stopped over in Klamath Falls over the week end to visit for a short time with friends enroute to Reno, Nevada.

Visited Medford—Klamath Falls visitors at Medford in the last few days included Hans Frei, Charles Sellers and A. B. Johnson.

Dan Malloy Here—Dan Malloy, prominent sheep man of the Lake county district, was another visitor in the city on Saturday and Sunday from his home at Lakeview.

Miss O'Connor Gets Prize—The two lots donated to the Sacred Heart church of this city by Mr. Joe McDonald, one of the pioneers of the parish were awarded at ten o'clock Saturday night to Miss Bridget O'Connor of Merrill, Ore. Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, wishes to thank all those who so generously assisted in this feature of the St. Mary's Altar society bazaar.

Returned From California—Mrs. J. A. Driscoll has returned from a month's trip in California during which time she visited in a number of southern California cities with friends and relatives. Mrs. Driscoll returned to Klamath Falls Saturday morning.

Home Destroyed—According to word received here today from Langell Valley visitors in the city, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Walker was recently destroyed by fire. The loss was partially covered by insurance. It is not known whether or not Walkers plan on rebuilding.

Visited Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parker were Klamath Falls visitors in Ashland yesterday. While in the valley they visited with Mrs. Margaret Pitts of this city who is spending the winter months in Ashland.

Here From Wenatchee—Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McNeil were visitors in Klamath Falls over the week end from their home at Wenatchee, Wash., center of the state's apple industry. The visitors were guests at the Willard hotel while here.

Californians In Klamath—Guests here from California today and yesterday include H. Janett, Oakland; M. Sessler, Vallejo; M. P. Doran, Hollywood; C. W. Hixon, Sacramento; Evelyn Murphy, Los Angeles; Robert Barclay, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Sacramento; and Robert Matson, Red Bluff.

Shopped Here—Among the guests in the city Saturday to shop and visit friends for the day from Langell Valley and Lorella were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Turner, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McDonald and others.

Visiting in Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hopkins, well known pioneer residents of Bonanza, spent the week end in Klamath Falls visiting and shopping. Mr. Hopkins is connected with the reclamation service.

Chiloquin Man In City—E. A. Blockinger, well known lumber man whose mill is located at Chiloquin, is among the business visitors in Klamath Falls.

Here From Algoma—Mr. and Mrs. Austin Parks spent Sunday in the city visiting friends and transacting business matters from their home at Algoma.

Visited in Klamath—Joan Hammond, resident of Merrill, spent Saturday in Klamath Falls shopping and visiting friends.

Here Saturday—Oscar Stewart spent Saturday in Klamath Falls from his home at Bly. Mr. Stewart is a butcher.

Charles Lambert Visited—Charles Lambert, who drives the stage from Silver Lake to Medford, was another out of town visitor in Klamath Falls over the week end.

Lakeview Visitor—Roland Post is spending several days in Klamath Falls doing Christmas shopping. Mr. Post is a resident of Lakeview.

Guests From Oregon—Guests from Oregon points, other than Portland, registered at local hotels over the week end are: Gilbert Brown, Lakeview; R. S. Ballou, Fort Klamath; John Schmor, Medford and A. T. Reasen, Ashland.

Meeting Announced—There will be a meeting of the St. Mary's Altar society on Wednesday evening at the parish hall.

The meeting will be called to order at 7:30 and all members are urgently requested to attend.

B. L. Scaggs In City—B. L. Scaggs, connected with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company with headquarters in Portland, spent Sunday in Klamath Falls on business.

MORTGAGEE

You may lose if title to your security should be proven worthless, or you may be at a great expense protecting the title to property on which you hold a mortgage.

Have the title insured before accepting mortgage

Title Insurance Policies

guarantee that title is free from defects and that you will not suffer any financial loss whatever.

Issues reliable policies - - - Opposite Courthouse

Wilson Title & Abstract Company

CLAUDE FURNITURE

EVERYONE NEEDS AND WILL APPRECIATE SOMETHING FOR THE HOME

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

Things to Buy Christmas

When you spend your money for a Christmas present for friends or family, get something that will have a lasting value. Make your gift one that will be cherished for its usefulness and lasting quality as well as for its beauty. Buy a present this year that will stand the year 'round in the home ever a pleasant reminder of your thoughtfulness.

USE YOUR CREDIT

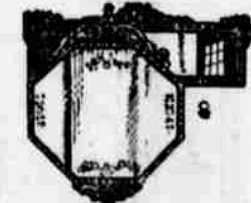

Smokers

Every living room needs one or more smoking stands and ash receivers in this day and age. We have a large and varied selection of smokers that will delight any hostess. Dainty ones for milder, or the more masculine type for the man of the house. Priced from $2.50 to $20

Magazine Racks

Magazine racks and end tables are other clever and useful things to give as Christmas presents. If a spot of bright color is needed, a gay magazine rack can provide it.

Venetian Mirrors

If you are in doubt about a gift for the home, give one of these beautiful mirrors of the finest plate glass. We have them in any size and price to meet your needs. $6.50 to $20

Pottery

A fine selection of Italian pottery awaits your choice at prices that are surprisingly low. There is always a corner in every home where a small pitcher "just fits in." A pottery vase is another thing that every woman loves to receive.

Tables

Large tables, small tables, dining tables, console tables, coffee tables, are here in fine assortments. What would be nicer than a new table for the home?

GIFTS FOR THE YOUNGSTERS

Mirth-provoking, happy things for the youngsters that will bring shrieks of excited joy. A veritable fairyland of ingenious articles that will make Christmas really seem like Christmas for the Kiddies. Fun and entertainment here will last—yes, even under the pummeling of rough play.

Bring the Children to Toyland

Following Are Some of the Many Things To Be Found in Our Toy Department—

Tricycles
Sleds
Wagons
Hobby Horses
Rocking Horses
Steam Shovels
Fire Trucks
Dump Trucks
Doll Furniture
Doll Buggies
Dolls
Dishes
Stuffed Soft Toys
Large Barking Dogs
Black Boards
Trunks

Lamps

Floor and table lamps in the style moderne are here for your selection in simple or elaborate design. Prices range $4.00 and upwards

Cedar Chests

Why not a cedar chest for mother, sister, wife or sweetheart this Christmas? We have a very fine selection of walnut chests, cedar lined. Prices ranging from $20 to $35

Sofa Pillows

Silk sofa pillows are dainty gifts to give the women Christmas morning. If there is a bride on your list, be sure to see these pillows. Priced $2.50 to $7.00

Occasional Chairs

Coxwell chairs, the most popular chair in the home because of its wondrous comfort and delightful beauty. In smart upholstery.

Claud H. Davis Furniture

Phone 581-W

721 Main St.