AT THE THEATRES

AT THE PELICAN
In its premier last night at the Pelican theatre, "4 Devils," which features Janet Gaynor in her first talking picture, was accorded an enthusiastic reception. Miss Gaynor's large army of local admirers have awaited with keen anticipation her "talkie" debut, and the winsome Fox star scores a personal triumph in this new medium.

Blue now at the Pine Tree theatre.

Monte Blue portrays such a character in "Skin Deep." The man returns to his homeland with a face so repulsive that he is shunned by his closest friends.

His efforts to gain honest work have been futile. A path of crime is the only one open to him to secure a living.

Although he follows a life of lawlessness, beneath his skin is the ardent desire to go straight.

"Skin Deep" depicts the dramatic events in the underworld life of this man, who marries a cruel woman who plots to send him to prison.

Betty Compson and Alice Day have the supporting feminine roles in "Skin Deep" which Ray Enright directed, while the stellar cast also includes Davey Lee, John Davidson, John Bowers, George Stone, Tully Marshall, Robert Perry and others.

Gordon Rigby adapted the story for Vitaphone from the widely read magazine story "Lucky Damage" by Mark Edmund Jones.

AT THE PINE TREE
While part of the world may turn with aversion from those disgraced by war—larger part of it feels reverence for those who have paid so dearly for what they believed to be right. There is a story of the Prince of Wales and one of these men, which has the ring of truth.

Wales entered one of the hospitals where the unspokably disgraced are kept from curious eyes. When he suddenly found himself in the presence of one of the men he for a moment stood silent, then unable to speak, stooped and kissing the brow of the soldier, hurried out.

What happened to some of the unfortunate men who returned from the World War hideously scarred for life is vividly dramatized in "Skin Deep." Warner Brothers all-talking Vitaphone production starring Monte Large burners are installed at the Court House, Arcade Hotel, Winter's Apts., Oaks Hotel and Crater Rooms. Smaller burners at C. F.
