

NEWS IN BRIEF

Character 'Close-Ups'

IF THE KNEE IS KNOBBY—NEITHER POINTED OR PLUMP YOU'LL FIND THE OWNER EVEN-TEMPERED THOUGH TO RESENT A WRONG

Held Annual Christmas Meeting.
The Hi-Y club of the Klamath Union high school held their annual Christmas meeting at the high school last night. Ben Wilson, president of the organization, presided and Lewis Clark, advisor, took a prominent part in the activities. The program carried out the Christmas theme throughout. Mr. Clark gave a reading, "The Other Wise Man" and several musical numbers were enjoyed. The principal address was given by Rev. Everett of Corvallis, student pastor of the Oregon State college.

Left For Kansas.
Mrs. Garnet M. Glenn left on the "Sierra" Tuesday evening for Kansas. Mrs. Glenn plans to be back in Klamath Falls shortly after the first of the year and will visit friends and relatives in the east over the holiday season.

Transacted Business.
A. C. Stickle, who is traveling passenger agent for the Northern Pacific, returned south today after spending a brief time here on business and conferring with local railroad men.

Returned Home.
Jim Hamilton, whose home is in Caldwell, Idaho, returned this morning to that place after a brief business visit in Klamath Falls and vicinity.

Coming Home For Holidays.
Jean Joyaux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Joyaux of this city, is expected to return to Klamath Falls this coming Sunday to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents and friends here. Jean has been attending school at St. Mary's Preparatory college in Berkeley, Calif., and is in his senior term. Next year he plans to go to St. Mary's university where he will take a pre-medical course. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Joyaux returned from an extended trip in southern California cities and visited with their son over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Truck Loaned To Postoffice.
One of the large trucks of the U. S. Reclamation Service has been loaned to the postoffice for use in delivering holiday parcels, according to John A. McCall, postmaster, and three extra carriers have been appointed to work on the truck. Each year this department of the government assists the Klamath Falls postoffice by loaning a truck during the enormous influx of mail at the Christmas season.

Another carrier has also been appointed for each of the regular mail trucks to aid in the distribution of the many packages.

George Bishop Wanted.
George Bishop, local carpenter, is wanted by relatives in Sacramento and the sheriff's office here has been requested to get in touch with him and notify him of the illness of his daughter. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Bishop is requested to notify the sheriff, phone 21, and to notify Bishop of the word that the sheriff's office has here for him.

Veterans To Elect.
The Veterans of Foreign Wars will elect officers for the coming year at a meeting to be held tonight in the basement of the court house. It was announced last night. All members of the organization are urged to be present for the election.

Sears In Portland.
W. S. Sears, affiliated with the Pavell Eley realty company of this city, has gone to Portland to spend four or five days on business.

Lions Club Holds Feed—

The Lions last night held their annual duck feed at the Pelican grille. Members of the club and their wives were host to a large number of guests.

Jack Bowring's orchestra played for dancing during the dinner. Miss Evelyn Mills and Miss Caroline Dotson entertained with a special tap dancing numbers.

Past Matrons To Meet—

The Past Matrons of the Eastern Star will enjoy a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. H. F. Murdock on the Keno Road. Mrs. A. L. Leavitt and Mrs. Oscar Peyton will act as assisting hostesses. Each member is to bring a gift to cost not more than 25 cents and a gift exchange will be held among the members.

Arriving Home—

Bob Zimmerman, who has been employed in the office of M. C. Mogensen & Co., Inc., advertising company of San Francisco, is expected home this Sunday to spend the Christmas holidays in Klamath Falls. Bob is the son of Mrs. Lynn Zimmerman, advertising manager of the Evening Herald and Klamath News.

License Issued—

A marriage license was issued yesterday at the office of the county clerk to William Marion Gray, 25, truck driver, and Retha Bell Buck, 21, laundry worker, both of Ashland.

Will Entertain Club—

Mrs. Henry Gloystein will entertain Neighbors of Woodcraft Thimble club at her home on North Eighth street on Friday afternoon.

Leaves For Portland—

Rev. D. A. Thompson, whose address was not given, left this morning on the "Westcoast" for Portland.

Expected Home—

Mrs. Glenn Fouch is expected home this week from San Rafael, Calif., where she has been attending the Dominican college for the past few months. Mrs. Fouch will be remembered by many here as Thelma Low. Mr. and Mrs. J. Low and her sister, Hellen, are visiting in the south at the present time.

Plan On Trip—

Mr. and Mrs. John Kandara, prominent residents of the Merrill district, are planning to leave Klamath Falls tomorrow for the east and will spend the Christmas and New Year's holidays with friends in New York City. They will visit in other eastern cities before returning to their home at Merrill.

Postpone Meeting—

The meeting of the Fairview Parent Teachers association has been postponed until January, since the meeting would fall during the holiday season and school vacation. Exact announcement of the next meeting date and other particulars will be announced later.

Blanch O'Neill Ill—

Blanch O'Neill, popular student of the Klamath Union high school and a member of the junior class, is confined to her home on Monclair street with an attack of influenza. Miss O'Neill's condition is reported very much improved and she will soon be able to return to school.

Plan Services—

Under the auspices of the Klamath Ministerial Association of this city "Watch Night Services" are being planned for New Year's eve. Further announcement and plans will be made at a later date.

W. A. Goodman Leaves—

W. A. Goodman left this morning for Kansas City to remain over the Christmas holidays.

Suit Filed—

A suit was filed in circuit court this morning by R. E. Bradbury, plaintiff, vs. Grafton Jackman company to recover $742.25, which Bradbury, through his attorney, states that $663.25 is due him for 435 sacks of potatoes which he sold the company at the rate of $1.95 per sack and has never received payment. The other $75, he stated, is for expenses and damages.

Portland Registrants—

Among those from Portland at local hotels this morning and last evening were W. A. Marti, H. A. Beaton, A. W. Ramsden, J. C. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Jamison, C. A. McFarland, J. Coppedge, E. L. Owens, Wesley H. Egger, W. B. Craft, L. W. Froedhart, J. G. Cunningham, E. R. Hook, L. C. Thistle, R. E. McCormick, James R. Flemming, A. W. Quinn, W. E. Murray, C. W. Lambert and C. E. Jacobson and daughter.

Here On Business—

A. H. Bundy, B. D. Gray, S. E. Bullis of the Copco and H. R. Prentice are among the Medford visitors today at the Willard hotel.

McDoel Visitor—

Mrs. Irene Frothingham, of McDoel, was doing Christmas shopping in the city Tuesday.

Asks For Divorce—

Harry Wright filed a divorce suit in the circuit court this morning, asking the bonds of matrimony be dissolved between himself and Ethel Sarah Wright, whom he married at Calgary, Alberta, Canada, on February 17, 1915. The plaintiff is represented by David Vandenberg, attorney, and charges cruel and inhuman treatment.

No Forum Meetings—

No forum meetings of the chamber of commerce will be held during the next two weeks, according to an announcement made today by Earl C. Reynolds. Next Wednesday is Christmas day and the following Wednesday is New Year's Day, and for this reason the forum luncheons have been discontinued until January 8.

Will Vacation In South—

Mr. and Mrs. James Bishop Foster, and daughter Phyllis, will leave immediately after Christmas for California, where they will spend several weeks.

McDoel Visitor—

Mrs. Irene Frothingham, of McDoel, was doing Christmas shopping in the city Tuesday.

Have Notices In Thursday—

Ministers of the city having special Christmas services on Sunday or on Christmas day, are asked to have church notices in to the Evening Herald office by Thursday evening of this week, in order that the notices will all be published on Friday.

Announce Birth Of Son—

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Luderman, of Chiloquin, announce the birth of a baby boy, weighing nine pounds, and twelve ounces, at the Klamath Valley Hospital, Monday.

Modoc Point Visitors—

Mrs. N. Y. Stoddard, and daughter Miss Edna Stoddard, were in the city on a shopping tour Tuesday.

Motored From Algoma—

Mrs. Matt Egner, of Algoma, was among the out of town visitors Tuesday.

Merrill Visitor—

Mrs. A. O. Dunn, of the Merrill Route, was shopping in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Tule Lake Visitor—

W. C. Dalton was in the city Tuesday from his ranch in the Tule Lake district.

Party This Evening—

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will give a Christmas party on this evening at 8:30 which will consist of a special program and refreshments. The party is to be given at the I. O. O. F. building and all Neighbors of Woodcraft and their families are invited to attend. The Christmas program will be in charge of Mrs. B. F. Owens and Mrs. Nan Kraneburg has charge of the refreshments that are to be served.

Baby Daughter Born—

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Howell of 639 Washington street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a seven-pound baby daughter at the Cottage hospital, December 15.

Shopping In City—

Mrs. A. P. Heup, of Dorris, was in Klamath Falls Tuesday on a shopping trip.

Algoma Visitor—

Mrs. B. J. Loftsgaard, of Algoma, was in the city yesterday.

Shopping In Klamath—

Mrs. F. R. Moffatt, of the Klamath Agency, was a Klamath Falls visitor yesterday.

Special Holiday Display of Silk Ties

"Better Neckwear at Golden Rule Prices"

50c — $1. — $1.50 — $2.35

Silk ties—hundreds of them—in one great showing for Christmas. In every conceivable color and pattern. Give ties—no man ever has an over supply and too, it's a gift that is sure to be appreciated.

The money you have set aside for Christmas will go further and buy better gifts if the values offered by our men's department are taken advantage of.

Items "HE" Will Like

Wool Gloves in colors—heavy or light weight $1.65

Fur Lined Leather Gloves — $4.85

Silk Hose 2 pair in Holiday Box—fancy patterns 2 pr. $1.00

Choice lot of pure Silk Hose $1.00

Fancy Rayon Hose in fancy patterns and colors 2 pr. 45c

Rayon Scarfs 98c

Leather Bill Folds for new currency $1.25

Linen Kerchiefs

Holiday packed 3 in Box 89c

Belt Sets — — — $1.00

"POPPY" SILK SHIRTS

A dress shirt for the very best of occasions. Made of a high grade lustrous silk that washes perfectly. Collar attached. Colors of blue, green, tan and white. All sizes—in sleeve lengths. Golden Rule price only—

$5.50

Shirtcraft Broadcloth Shirts

In various colors and patterns. Collar attached. Collar guaranteed not to shrink.

$1.95

Beacon Cloth BATH ROBES

Women who know values will certainly be pleased with the quality of these fine robes. Heavy weight, warm and in pleasing patterns and colors. See our fine assortment.

$4.85 to $7.50

Collegiate COATS

For the high school boy and the man about town. Medium weight all wool coats that are made like the ordinary suit coat. In various colors and patterns. Very appropriate for gifts.

$10.50

Western Union Gift Orders Accepted By This Store.

Golden Rule Stores
ECONOMISTS IN DISTRIBUTION THE NAME OUR POLICY

To the Women Who Sew—
Make Your Christmas

BATH ROBE
SAVE HALF

Special Showing of Beautiful—

Bath Robe
Blankets

In large assortment of colors and patterns

SPECIALLY PRICED

$3.98

See these early, as they are very economically priced and the thrifty will take advantage of this offer.

Dry Goods Dept.—Main Floor

Golden Rule Stores
ECONOMISTS IN DISTRIBUTION THE NAME OUR POLICY

The World's Greatest Entertainer!

Straight from gay Paree to you — the man millions hail as The World's Greatest Entertainer! The magic of the talking screen brings you his charm and his magnetic voice! In this romantic drama of the nobody of the Paris streets who becomes the idol of the stage world!

PLUS
VITAPHONE VAUDEVILLE ACT
The NORMAN THOMAS Quintette in "HARLEM MANIA"

AT THE PINE TREE NOW PLAYING

At The LIBERTY Today
TOM MIX in
"ROUGH RIDING ROMANCE"

Poole's PELICAN Theatre

LAST SHOWING TODAY

Glorious! Glamorous!
Brilliant with life and love! Gorgeous scenes in Technicolor! And girls!
Girls! Girls!

"The Dance Of Life"

with
HAL SKELLY NANCY CARROLL

Thursday, Friday and Saturday
THE WORLD-FAMOUS FUN-MAKER

HAROLD LLOYD

in his hilarious
Talking fun riot

You HEAR the laughs

"Welcome Danger"

Produced by Harold Lloyd Corporation

A Paramount Release

NO ADVANCE IN PRICES!

BUY THEATRE SCRIPT