HOOVER AGAIN MENTIONED IN SUGAR INQUIRY

Lobbyist Claims He Has Personal Method of Approach.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—A letter read today before the senate lobby committee said W. C. D'Arcy, publicity man of the Coca Cola company "has a personal method of approach to Hoover and is going to see that Hoover gets full but concise data on the sugar industry."

The reference was contained in a letter written by H. H. Pike, Jr., Wall street sugar broker, to P. A. Staples, of Cuba, who is connected with the Central Hershey company. Pike, who was on the witness stand, testified his information was received "from some one" but he said he had forgotten who it was.

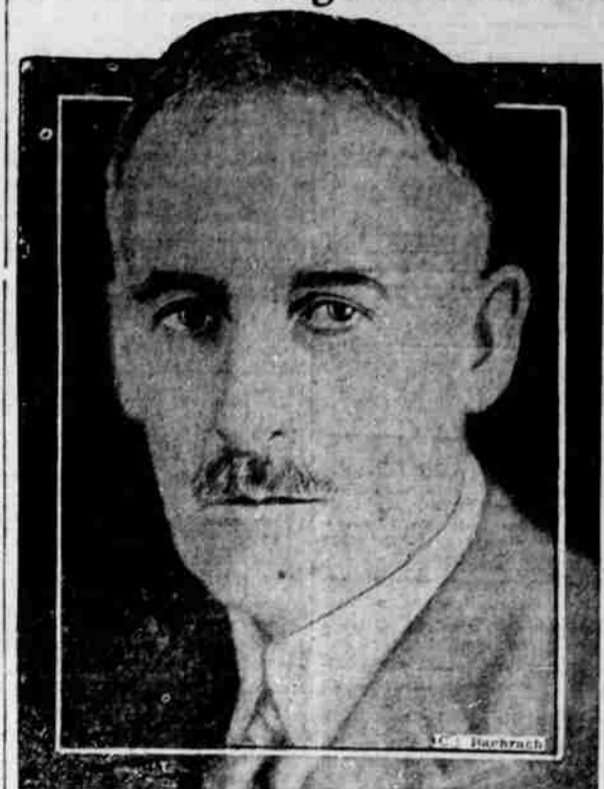

Robinson Resents Inference Senator Robinson of Indiana, the only regular republican of the committee, asserted that the letter indicated D'Arcy has "some back stairs way of getting to" the president.

When Pike said he did not know who gave him the information Robinson shouted: "Then you ought to have kept quiet, this is the purest kind of lobbying."

"I can tell everything now that I knew then," Pike replied. Robinson asserted that the reference was unfair to the president but Pike said he understood D'Arcy either knew Mr. Hoover or could reach him through a friend.

Pay Well for Lobbying Pike had previously testified that he was directing a fight against a higher duty on sugar for the Hershey company and the Coca Cola company. He said the companies had arranged to spend as much as $25,000 each in their effort to keep a higher duty from being placed on sugar.

Heads U. S. Delegation to London

Here is the latest photograph of Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, who heads the United States delegation attending the naval arms limitation conference at London this month. He is President Hoover's personal representative at this important gathering.

When Pike said he did not know who gave him the information Robinson shouted: "Then you ought to have kept quiet, this is the purest kind of lobbying."

"I can tell everything now that I knew then," Pike replied. Robinson asserted that the reference was unfair to the president but Pike said he understood D'Arcy either knew Mr. Hoover or could reach him through a friend.
