IDAHO'S FLASH HOLDS LEAD AS POINT-GETTER

Holsten of Washington State Crowding Him For Position.

SEATTLE, Jan. 22. (AP)—Harold Stowell, flashy forward of the University of Idaho basketball team, continues to lead the northern division, Pacific Coast conference point-getter, after two weeks of play, with a total of 62. Stowell, third place winner for the season last year, took the lead in his first game this winter, and has not been headed since.

Holsten Crowding Close. Claud Holsten, lanky forward of the Washington State college quintet, boosted his stock last week by jumping from fifth to second place in the standings, with a total of 53. He has been gaining on Stowell with each game, and the Washington State-Idaho battle at Moscow next Saturday night will see the pair waging an individual fight for points.

Grayson Makes Jump. Buck Grayson, Oregon State college guard, has also moved up the ladder, jumping from eighth to third place after some fine shooting in the Washington-O. S. C. tilt here last Friday and Saturday. Keenan of the University of Oregon is high point man for the Webfooters to hold seventh place. Hank Swanson, elongated forward of Washington, is the best shot for the Huskies with 26. Washington has played only two games, compared with four and five for the other four schools in the northern section, and Swanson will have a chance to catch the leaders when the Huskies meet Oregon at Eugene Friday and Saturday.

PELICANS SCORE HIGH

By ED ARTHUR. The faster than ever Pelican five ran away from the Merrill boys last night on the Pelican court and scored 75 points to win against 25 for the invaders. This is the fourth consecutive time that the Merrill boys have scored 25 points against the Pelicans. That is one for Ripley's "Believe it or not."

Steve Beck, nable to get in a suit, guided the team from the sidelines, making several substitutions and, during the half, told them what they should know about basketball. Steve will make a good coach, and while not in a suit will make up for his absence by directing the team.

The Merrill boys were expecting to give the Pelican five a closer game and no doubt were somewhat surprised at the final score. The Pelicans are working the ball in, and when they get there, sink it for a mark. They made a large per cent of their shots for goal shots.

Merrill is fast rounding into shape and will give the Pelicans a better game next time the boys meet. This will be at Merrill February 5.

Peterson was high point man with 23 and Chet Sessler was at his heels with 22. Fisher was high point man for Merrill with 19 counters. Peterson was out most of the third quarter or possibly would have sunk 30 points.

Curley Wakeman and Louis Anderson started at the guard positions and are one tough combination to get around. Wakeman is filled with more fight than a whole average team and doesn't know the word quit. He is fast and shoots a mean ball.

Night Baseball Gets Spotlight

CURSES! I'VE FORGOTTEN MY MOON GLASSES!

NIGHT BASEBALL WILL START SOME BACAN! NEW ALIBIS!

By AL DEMAREE (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants). Fred Keyser of the Des Moines club of the Western league, created quite a furor during the minor league meeting in Chattanooga, by declaring he would play night games during the 1930 season.

When Eddie Herr, the Yankee scout, heard of this he piped up with, "Well I guess my fella's will have to get a flashlight to look over 'em players."

"But suppose," he continued, "that I'm scouting the Des Moines center fielder, and my batteries get so weak that I can't see him?"

"Don't let that worry you," answered Pat Monahan, the ivory bawler of the Boston Red Sox, "Just have the guy you're interested in wear a tall light so you can follow him!"

Winner of Olympic Marathon Now Successful Wholesaler

By TED VOSBURGH. Associated Press Sports Writer. NEW YORK, Jan. 23. (AP)—A cheerful little man with eyes beamed over a desk in his office on Forty-second street and scrawled down an order for canned fruit.

About him there was nothing to indicate that he was the hero of the most dramatic event in all Olympic history, but hanging above the desk was a faded photograph of a great stadium in London where, 22 years ago this summer, a pint-sized New York department store clerk by the name of Johnny Hayes won the classic marathon as the Italian, Dorando, fainted, fell and was helped across the line.

Has Fine Philosophy. The years have dealt kindly with Johnny Hayes, and filled him with a fine philosophy. Out of the obscurity of a department store counter he came to gain athletic immortality on that burning hot day in 1908, and to comparative obscurity he has returned with no regrets.

Keeps in Condition. "I don't have time to do very much running any more, but I have kept it good condition. In the 22 years I have put on just 22 pounds. I still can step occasionally, and I run to and from the ferry boat on which I commute to my home in Woodcliff, N. J.

"The other day a doctor was looking me over—not that I needed it, but I guess because he wanted to see what made me go.

"He told me I had a six-foot-er's heart and it only has to work half the time because in a little fellow like me it does not have so far to pump the blood.

"That, he told me, is the reason I was able to run so far and so fast. When I won the London Olympic race at 22, I weighed 118 pounds, and my height, of course, was the same as now, 5 feet 3 1/2 inches.

Believes in Heredity. "I am a great believer in heredity, too. I think I owe much of my athletic ability to my father, who came over to this country from Ireland when he was a young fellow. As a boy in the old country, he and his mates made a sport of coarsing hares with greyhounds, following them on foot. He also was a clever step-dancer, like many of the Irish, and dancing builds up the muscles that help most in running.

Racing a Mental Test. "But from all this some people get the idea that marathon racing is all physical. It isn't. It's a great mental test, too. This job of spreading your strength and speed evenly over a distance of more than 24 miles.

"As it is, I think most marathon runners are 'out on their feet' from about the fourteenth to the twenty-first mile. Then, with the cool of the evening, your powers return and you can go busting along with new energy if you have gauged your pace right.

"Far from hurting me, I think the effort of marathon races built up a reserve of stamina for me to draw upon these quieter days when my athletic activity consists of stepping around to sell canned goods. Life is largely business now, but I like to keep that picture there."

Del. and George Von Elm, the leading amateur, among the front rank contenders. Thirty-one players were clustered within half a score strokes of the lead; all of them potential money winners, with twenty Nash prizes offered.

Yesterday's high wind, which swept down from the mountains through Tijuana valley to throw the entire field off its game, thrust a number of the contenders completely out of the picture and caused the top contenders no end of worry.

HORTON SMITH AND ESPINOSA LEADING FIELD

Pair Have One Stroke Advantage as End Of Play Nears.

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN. AGUA CALIENTE, Lower California, Mexico, Jan. 23. (AP)—The stubborn, subtle Agua Caliente course which through 54 holes of play refused permission to pass its par barrier of 71 strokes, today stretched out in menacing fashion before 58 prospectors of the world's largest golf treasure, as they faced the final round of the $25,000 classic.

One Stroke Advantage. With the $10,000 first place prize almost within their grasp, two pacemakers, Horton Smith and Al Espinosa, clung to a meager one-stroke advantage as they turned to the final holes, already eleven strokes over perfect figures. Their score for the three days of play stood at 224.

Dozen Contenders. But any one of a dozen or more contenders pressed closely behind within striking distance of the championship as they paraded toward the post of gold which marks the end of the "Rainbow Trail" through Pacific coast winter money tournaments.

The nearest of these were Al Watrous, Detroit; Charles Guest, Los Angeles, and Ollie Dutra, Santa Monica, Calif., just a stroke behind the 21-year-old Missourian and the master artist of the fairways from Chicago. Two strokes away was Johnny Farrell, the strongest eastern threat, while Mortie Dutra, Tacoma, Wash.; MacDonald Smith, Long Island, N. Y., and Gene Sarazan, New York, held close to the front with 227.

Sarpolis Wields Body Scissors to Good Advantage

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 23. (A. P.)—Dr. Kari Sarpolis, wrestling physician of Cleveland, Ohio, former University of Chicago football star, defeated Howard Cantonwine, former Iowa football star, two out of three falls here last night. In doing so, Sarpolis introduced to wrestling fans his flying body scissors, seen here for the first time. Cantonwine took the first fall in 28 minutes and 15 seconds with a double wristlock. Sarpolis used little more than ten minutes in pinning Cantonwine for the next two falls with his flying body scissors, taking the first in 5 minutes, 20 seconds, and the second in 6 minutes, 45 seconds. The match was one of the best of the heavyweight clashes seen here this winter. It was announced the winner would meet Ed (Strangler) Lewis here next Wednesday.

In a 30-minute preliminary, Ray Jeffries took one fall and the decision from Joe Reynolds.

Concerning Sharkey, the English heavyweight said: "I think he is a good strong man, but I believe that a good boxer could beat him."

With conspicuous modesty, Scott refrained from announcing himself that boxer, but Jimmy Johnston, his American manager, was not so reticent.

"He's the next world champion," he declared.

Four million women are employed as farm hands in Japan.

Scott Returns to Claim Heavy Belt - If He Has Luck

NEW YORK, Jan. 23. (AP)—Weighing 215 pounds, five pounds over his fighting weight, Phil Scott, the battling British freeman, arrived here today from England to prepare for his match with Jack Sharkey in Miami, February 27.

Scott said he would leave for Miami Tuesday and do his training there and at Palm Beach.
