LIGHTWEIGHT FIGHTER DIES FOLLOWING KO

Micky Darmon Fails to Revive After Blow Puts Him Down

DETROIT, Jan. 25, (AP)—Mickey Darmon, 20, Detroit lightweight boxer, died at 4 a. m. today in Providence hospital following a knockout in the Olympia ring last night at the hands of Eddie Kopy, also of Detroit.

Darmon, whose real name is Nicholas Darmand, did not regain consciousness after reaching the hospital.

Out in Fifth He was knocked out in the fifth round of a six round fight by a right to the jaw. The bout was one of the preliminaries to the Archie Bell-Tommy Paul fight.

Kopy, his manager, Charlie Moore, Referee Sam Hennessey, and Doc Casey, Darmon's chief handler, were questioned by Van H. Ring, an assistant prosecuting attorney, after the fight but were not held. Ring, who was a spectator at the ring-side, ruled that Darmon was the victim of a legitimate knockout.

Darmon was on the losing end of the fight from the start.

Fight Kopy's All Way Kopy tied him up with rights in the first round and had him on the verge of a knockout in the second. The end came suddenly in the fifth when Kopy connected with a smashing right while the fighters were mixing it in a neutral corner. Darmon fell to the canvas and struck his head on the floor as he dropped flat on his back. Referee Hennessey, at first not realizing the condition of Darmon, began the count. Soon, however, he realized that Darmon was not the victim of an ordinary knockout and began attempting to resuscitate him. A physician representing the state boxing commission also worked over Darmon, and when he failed to regain consciousness he was removed to his dressing room and then to the hospital.

In accordance with the rules of the state boxing commission Darmon was examined at weighing-in time by a physician and reported in good physical condition.

WHAT ATHLETE HAS THE GREATEST COMPETITIVE SPIRIT?

- DEMSEY RUTH
- WEISSMULLER
- COBB
- TILDEN
- CAGLE
- HAGEN
- JONES

By AL DEMAREE
 (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

Just what athlete of the present day or recent past, has the greatest competitive spirit under all circumstances, and the will to force himself to almost limitless lengths to win?

During a recent conversation with Grantland Rice, he picked Johnny Weissmuller as his choice, saying: "I have seen Johnny where he had to break his own world's record to win, but the competitive spirit was so highly developed in him, and he had such tremendous resources of will and body, that he never failed."

Baseball success depends so much on the co-ordination of the rest of the players that I eliminated Babe Ruth and Ty Cobb. My choice is equally divided between three men: Jack Dempsey, in the ring and Bobby Jones and Walter Hagen in golf.

What do you fans say? I will be glad to hear your opinions on this subject and give them publicity.

Tex Working for Devlin-Feldman Bout February 5

Tex Bickerstaff, who is spending a few weeks in San Francisco, writes the Herald that he is working for a bout between Willie Feldman and Chick Devlin in the Bay city February 5. Willie worked out at a gymnasium there Thursday and made a favorable showing.

For his next card at Klamath Falls, Tex has secured a colored boy to fight Austin Rosander in the main event. This colored boy, Eddie Moore, is rated one of the best in his weight around the Bay district and Tex looks for a real fight. It will have to be if the colored boy wants to stay in the ring with Austin.

It is Mr. Bickerstaff's plan to line up several fast boys for the spring cards here and at the same time put Willie Feldman in the kind of company he is entitled to.

Carnera Amazes Crowd With Showing of Speed, Agility

By ALAN GOULD
 Associated Press Sports Editor
 NEW YORK, Jan. 25, (AP)—Whatever else may be said about the American debut of Primo Carnera, biggest of all the heavyweights, it ranks distinctly as the greatest social and artistic success of Miami.

Without a hitch in any feature of the arrangements, the bally hoo or his showmanship, the 29 pound Italian giant knocked out Big Boy Peterson in exactly one minute and ten seconds of the main act in Madison Square Garden last evening. An appreciative, capacity crowd of 15,000 at a circus as a lot of small boys at a circus as the big, barrel-chested Carnera handled the blonde Scandinavian as though his 29 pounds were a mere featherweight.

Has Speed and Agility

Carnera displayed amazing speed and agility for his tremendous size. He also exhibited a wide range of punches in the brief period of action but he could not fail to look impressive against an opponent who was knocked down four times for counts of three, eight, four and ten from an assortment of left hooks and right uppercuts.

He took the final count while on his haunches, shaking his head like a shaggy dog and pawing at his chin. He was lugged to his corner without giving any indication he knew exactly what had happened. Big Boy remained seated for fully three minutes after the fight under the frenzied ministrations of his seconds, who could not have been more impressive if they had rehearsed their art.

Big Boy No Fighter

At no moment of the proceedings did Peterson make any menacing gestures toward his huge, dark-haired opponent. Twice Big Boy waved his left in the general direction of Carnera but he was back pedalling so fast at the time that it took only a light tap on the side of the head to send him sprawling to the floor for the first time. Thereafter, Peterson spent most of his time on the floor, blinking. All told he spent 25 of the 70 seconds that the "fight" lasted reclining on the canvas in a variety of poses.

Carnera A Clown

From the first, Carnera manifested ability as a clown and

Love-Making Not Good Training for College Athletes

EAST LANSING, Mich., Jan. 25, (AP)—Coach Van Alstyne of the Michigan State college basketball squad is of the opinion that love-making and athletics do not mix. Accordingly he has asked that members of his squad refrain from making "dates" during the remainder of the basketball season.

"Love's path is not a smooth one," he said in explaining his request. "There are little quarrels. There are fellows who do not know when to go home. There are some girls who know how to inspire a fellow to do his best on the basketball floor, but they are in the minority."

Emanuel was taken to a hospital but Dr. Bernard Davine said the boxer could leave the hospital at any time. Emanuel, who weighed in at 182 pounds to 199 for Maloney, had a slight lead on points at the end of the first round. It was Maloney's 21st victory in a home ring.
