NEWS IN BRIEF

Character Close-Ups

Correction Of Error—

Mrs. Lena Dennis requested the city council Monday night if it was agreeable for her to notify the state that the city would take up some of the city's bonds held by the state on January 1, 1931. The issue does not fall due until 1932, but the state was enquiring when the city planned to pay, as bonds in Klamath Falls have been taken up before maturity in many cases, and the state treasurer's office wishes to know in advance the plans of the city. The matter was erroneously quoted through an error yesterday, and The Herald takes pleasure in making the correction.

Rites Held This Morning—

Final rites for Mrs. Elizabeth Boyle were held this morning at the Sacred Heart church, when Requiem High Mass was celebrated for the respose of her soul. Father Anglin officiated, and interment was made in Mt. Calvary cemetery. Mrs. Julius Haines, of Portland, mother of Mrs. Boyle, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haines, also of Portland, brother and sister-in-law of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Klein, parents of Mr. Boyle, were in the city for the funeral ser-

Officers Elected—

Officers were elected and installed at the regular meeting of the Building Trades Council Tuesday night at the Labor Temple. Officers elected are: H. W. Waits, president; O. O. Wayman, vice-president; E. R. Eustace, financial secretary; Harry Trenerri, recording secretary; H. T. Black, treasurer; J. S. Collins, sergeant-at-arms. H. W. Waits, was also elected as business representative, and F. Clarke, W. Poland and A. Collins as trustees.

Eagles Sponsor Dances—

Due to the success of the dance which was sponsored last week by the drill team and drum corps of the Eagles Lodge, plans have been made to hold a series of dances. The first will be held Thursday night, January 30, and the others will continue on following Thursdays. Music for the dances will be furnished by Baldy Evans' orchestra.

Divorces Granted—

Two divorce complaints were heard and granted by Circuit Judge William M. Duncan Tuesday afternoon. Vera Hayes was given a divorce from Gilbert D. Hayes, and the marriage bonds between Nora L. Harris and Ora Ray Harris were severed. The plaintiff had her maiden name of Nora L. Gray restored to her.

Klamath Milk Tests High—

During the past month the milk sold in Klamath by all dairies operating in the city had an average test of 92.4 per cent, Lee Craft announced Tuesday. This test is unusually high, but Klamath milk has a reputation for high grades.

Entertain With Cards—

The Drill Team of the Rebekah lodge will entertain with a card party on Thursday evening. Both bridge and 500 will be enjoyed. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Ivy Propst, Mrs. Louis Hoagland, or Mrs. Mabel Hunsaker. The public is invited.

Organizing Class—

Miss Maisie Wetzel, county health nurse, will visit schools at Merrill and Malin on Thursday. In Merrill she expects to organize a class in Home Hygiene and care of the sick. Last week Miss Wetzel vaccinated 36 pupils of the Malin school for smallpox, and gave the third inoculation of toxin-antitoxin against diphtheria at Bonanza.

"40 Et 8" Will Entertain—

The "40 Et 8," fun division of the American Legion will entertain at the next meeting of the group, it was announced last night. The next meeting will be held on the last Tuesday in February.

Returned From Berkeley—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gordon returned this morning from Berkeley, where Mrs. Gordon has been visiting her mother for the past two weeks. Mrs. Gordon has resumed her position in the ready-to-wear department at Moe's store, and Mr. Gordon with the Klamath Furniture company.

Announce Birth of Daughter—

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Goddard of 919 Oak, announce the birth of a daughter weighing seven pounds and thirteen ounces at the Klamath Valley hospital, this morning. Mr. Goddard is connected with the Pastime Pool hall.

Receiving Congratulations—

Mr. and Mrs. George Meuller of Klamath Falls are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of an eight pound eleven and one-half ounce daughter that was born to them at the Klamath Valley hospital on Tuesday.

Starting French Class—

Mrs. Pearl McPherson of 2337 Garden, is starting an evening French class at her home. There has been a very satisfactory enrollment.

Announce Birth of Daughter—

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Ferris of 1545 Oregon Avenue, announce the birth of a daughter at the Hillside hospital this morning. The baby weighed nine pounds and six ounces.

Klamath Agency Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Elliott and their daughter, Miss Clarice, were visitors in Klamath Falls Tuesday.

Returns From Fisco—

E. E. "Pete" Driscoll returned from San Francisco this morning, after having spent several days in that city.

Olene Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. McKimmens of Olene were business visitors in Klamath Falls Tuesday.

Highway Blocked—

The Columbia river highway is blocked between the Cascade Locks and Portland. Traffic is being routed over the inter-state bridge at Vancouver, and the toll bridge at Cascade Locks.

"How long this condition will last is not known," states the information department of the local chamber of commerce, in conjunction with the Oregon State Highway association, "It depends upon the nature of the blockade, how long it will take to clear the highway."

Portland Registrants—

Among the guests at local hotels today and late yesterday from Portland are R. Goodell, B. C. Taylor, L. F. Brazen, B. A Schallhorn, W A. Ward, D. B Hansen, H W. Randall, W M. Rugh, G. W. Linberg, E. S. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Johnson and C. G. Peterson.

Visited Klamath Falls—

Skiing and skating parties went out from Medford early Sunday morning to various destinations, ranging from Crater Lake highway to Klamath Falls. Among those who enjoyed skating on Klamath Lake were Bob Sleeter, Jack Walker and Alvin Potter—Medford Daily News.

Mrs. Balsiger Hostess—

Mrs. Elmer H. Balsiger has been appointed hostess of the Illinois-Ohio and Indiana table at the state dinner to be given at the Methodist church on Friday evening, Januar, 31, and requests that all those wishing reservations for that table call her at 1274.

Meeting Saturday—

A meeting of the Canby Chapter, C. A. R., will be held at the home of Mrs. Claude Daggett. A paper on "Life of Lincoln" will be given by Margaret Daggett. Music will be offered by Margaret Harvey.

Library Club to Meet—

The Women's Library club will hold their next regular meeting on Monday, February 3, at the city library club rooms with Mrs. Bert C. Thomas giving a book review on "Porgy." Mrs. C. B. Harding will preside in place of Mrs. Jackson Kimball, president.

Open House Planned—

An open house party is being planned for Thursday evening, starting at 8 o'clock, for the families and friends of the Loyal Order of Moose. A program is being planned by the committee in charge and refreshments will be served.

Visited Schools—

Miss Lydia Fricke, county health nurse, and Fred Peterson, county school superintendent, visited schools at Chiloquin and Forest Lumber company's camp on Tuesday.

Announce Birth of Daughter—

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Blake, of Bonnell Place, announce the birth of a daughter Tuesday night at the Klamath Valley hospital. The baby weighed seven pounds, three and one-half ounces.

Horans Visit Klamath—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Horan visited in Klamath Falls the first of the week with their son, Ralph Horan, member of Manning, McColloch & Driscoll law firm. Mr. Frank Horan is superintendent of the Forest Lumber company at Pine Ridge.

Eastern Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. H. Christensen are spending a short time in Klamath Falls and surrounding territory visiting friends and tending to business matters. They are residents of Marshall, Minnesota.

Spokane Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Putman and son, residents of Spokane, were among the out of town guests at the Willard Hotel yesterday.

Eastern Visitors—

H. C. Kelleran and H. N. Wallis, both registering from Buffalo, N. Y., were business visitors in Klamath Falls, Tuesday.

Returns From Illinois—

Mrs. Joseph Ewing, wife of the newly ordained priest of St. Paul's Parish, has returned from Illinois, where she was called by the serious illness of her father, who is now much improved.

Tule Lake Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. M. Stewart visited in Klamath Falls yesterday with friends from Tule Lake, their home.

Business Visitor—

Leo Sagehorn, lumberman, was among the business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday from Malin.

Expected Home—

Mrs. George Cunning is expected home soon from Colorado, where she was called by the death of her father.

Lone Pine Visitor—

L. O. Mills, a prominent farmer of the Lone Pine district, was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

Will Return Thursday—

Jacob Dobrin, field organizer for the Guardian Building and Loan association, is expected to return tomorrow from Portland, where he has been on business.

Alex Davis in City—

Alex B. Davis, sales manager for the Kesterson Lumber company, is among the business visitors in Klamath Falls today from Dorris.

Stops En Route to Canada—

Francis McCredy, of San Francisco, was in Klamath Falls yesterday, on business. Mr. McCredy is en route to Canada.

CHILDREN SEE MURDER.

WICHITA, Kan., Jan. 29. (A. P.)—While three of their six children looked on, Arthur T. Cartwright, 45, wealthy farmer living near Oatville, ten miles south of here, today shot and killed his wife, Eva, 41, then he critically wounded himself.

McDonalds Leave For San Francisco

(Special to The Herald)

Mrs. Gale, correspondent

LORELLA, Ore., Jan. 28.—Mr. and Mrs Levi McDonald left Friday to spend a week or ten days in San Francisco.

Miss Prosic has been visiting the Turner Hot Springs from her home in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thew and Mrs. Gaylord Loomis were in Klamath Falls shopping Wednesday.

Will and Oscar Campbell and Ben Schmid have been shipping quite a few hogs from this vicinity.

The Langell Valley Community club will give a public card party at the hall on February 1. Those wishing to play will be charged 50 cents a couple.

The Community club expects to install an electric plant at the hall in the near future, and are also planning to install a movie machine and a phonograph.

Oscar Campbell was recently called to Klamath Falls to serve on the jury.

John Gilliman, who was confined to the Hillside hospital for some time, passed away last week.

The Women's club is planning a White Elephant sale at the next club meeting, when Mrs. Thew and Mrs. Dearborn will be joint hostesses.

JOURNEYS TO ALASKA.

FARGO, N. D., Jan. 29. (AP)—Ole Eleison of Hatton, N. D., today began the long journey to Alaska to claim the body of his son, Ben, famous Arctic flyer, if and when it is discovered. He intends to bring the body back with him for burial in the Hatton cemetery beside Ben's mother and brother.

Somebody told your old man today that the opera he attended last night was sung in English Some people know just everything.

AT THE LIBERTY

Vilma Banky

—in—

"The Awakening"

One of the most beautiful stories ever brought to the screen.

Has Made Good with MILLIONS!

KC Baking Powder (double acting)

Same Price for over 38 years

25 ounces for 25¢

Pure — Economical Efficient

MILLIONS OF POUNDS USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT

Four Days—Beginning Today

Matinee Prices .....10c and 25c
Evening Prices .....15c and 50c

On account of our limited seating capacity, we urge you to attend the afternoon performances if possible.

THE PINE TREE

AT THE PELICAN

Today and Tomorrow