Today's Markets

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 31. (A. P.)—Accumulating egg supplies have brought another price reduction. The Pacific Co-Operative Poultry Producers today announced a cut of 2c in all grades, bringing fresh extras down to 31c.

Butter prices were steady, but the undertone was weak. Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland Bureau of the United States department of agriculture says:

"An abundance of southern fruits and vegetables is now available at Portland, and trading on the wholesale market is good—but at slightly lower prices in many lines, than prevailed last week. About 20 different fruit and vegetable commodities are now on track; track holdings still totalling about $9 cars.

"Cabbage from local storage and from California is selling to retailers as high as $4.00 per cwt., for best stock. California's heavy cauliflower shipments are being reflected in price declines on this stock, to $1.50 per crate on the Portland market. Imperial valley lettuce, although of excellent quality, also weakened to $4.75-5.00 per crate, for best 5-dozen sizes.

"Demand for tomatoes is very slow, and the market is dull. The present supply, other than a few hot-house arrivals, is entirely from the west coast of Mexico.

"Hot-house rhubarb from Sumner, Washington, which started to arrive in limited volume two weeks ago, is more plentiful, but prices are still high."

GRUNDY MISX'ORMEY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (A. P.)—Testimony that Joseph R. Grundy, republican senator from Pennsylvania, had said at a meeting of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers prior to Herbert Hoover's inauguration that Mr. Hoover "never ran for even the office of dog-catcher and doesn't know anything at all from experience what legislation means," was given today to the senate lobby committee.
