"Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain."—Exodus 20:7.

PROFANITY is not a serious matter to many—not a vice, only a sin! If it deprived others of their property, it would plunge the offenders into a law-suit; if it wounded people's bodies or endangered lives, the profane person would be jailed at once. But it only wounds people's reverence for God and endangers souls by infecting them with insensibility to God.

Only a habit! A habit is a settled attitude of mind. What must be the condition of a mind habitually callous toward God?
