"Snogo" Plows Road—

Possibility of keeping the Medford-Klamath route via Crater Lake National park open all winter was seen yesterday when reports were received in Medford of successful operation of the "Snogo" plow now being tested.

The plow has cleared the road as far as Anna Springs camp, and an effort will be made to reach the rim of the lake soon. As only a one-way road has been cleared, motorists are being warned not to drive past Union Creek.—Medford Daily News.

Frozen Fish Revive—

Three goldfish are swimming in their bowl at the home of Mrs. M. C. Paistler at The Dalles, apparently none the worse for an arctic adventure that resulted in their being frozen for three days in a solid block of ice. Mr. and Mrs. Paistler were called away during the recent zero weather, and forgot to provide protection for the goldfish. When they returned, water and fish were frozen into a solid block of ice.—Medford Mail Tribune.

Take Game Out of Cold Storage—

Those having game in cold storage must take it out and use it by February 15, Marion Barnes district game warden has stated. "There is a large quantity of game in storage in the Klamath and Storage plant, one whole deer, still unskinned, is in storage," Barnes said. He stated that the game must be used by February 15 and that the owners must take it out of storage.

Judge Brower Ill—

C. C. Brower, well known attorney of this city, is critically ill with an attack of pneumonia at the D. A. Kenyon home, 235 North Tenth street.

Mr. Brower was taken ill early in the week, and for a time his condition was very serious. However, his condition is somewhat improved today, it was reported.

To Hold Meeting—

The Lakeview Round-up association will hold its annual meeting Thursday night, February 6. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the proposed plan for selling the local grounds for an industrial site and to hold election of officers. If the sale of the site should be approved, it will mean no more Lakeview Round-ups. If the round-up is to be carried on next year the officers will be elected and plans for a bigger show than ever will be made.—Lake County Examiner.

New Snow Plow—

The new rotary snowplow, a "Snogo," which was purchased for use in Crater National park and arrived here last Sunday from Dubuque, Iowa, in its test on the Crater Lake highway above Union Creek, has done wonderfully well, and if its further operation inside the park up to the rim shows as well, there is no doubt that by the use of this plow the matter of opening the roads in the spring or early summer will no longer be the costly bugbear.—Medford Tribune.

Freak Talk Years Ago—

It is amusing now to think that southern Oregon people ever contemplated such action as the following item under a Medford date line in the Portland Journal twenty years ago, implied: "The Southern Oregon leaders in the movement to carve a new state out of Southern Oregon and Northern California, to be known as Shakiyou, are active with arrangements to call a convention at Yreka to devise ways and means."—Medford Mail Tribune.

State Retail Merchants Meet—

Prospects for one of the largest meetings of the Oregon Retail Merchants' association ever held are bright, for the 25th annual convention at Corvallis, February 10, 11 and 12, which is sponsored by the merchants' association and the school of commerce at Oregon State college, with the Corvallis chamber of commerce also aiding in the plans.
