600,000 BOY SCOUTS

Honor
GENERAL SIR ROBERT
S. S. BADEN-POWELL
(father of scouting)

And all America extends their thanks to Him.

We of The Golden Rule ORGANIZATION

wish to extend our sincere gratitude to Mr. O. E. Hoover, the executive council, to all scoutmasters and to every Boy Scout in Klamath and Lake County for their efforts in making the scout movement here what it is today. Character is developed—not inherited. There is no greater way for a boy to advance than to follow the principles of scouting. Every boy upon reaching the age of twelve years may avail himself of the opportunities offered in scouting by seeing Mr. Hoover, Boy Scout executive.

NOTICE

All troops of Klamath and Lake county division will, on Friday, Feb. 14th, at the Legion hall, celebrate Boy Scout week by competing in scout training events. The public is cordially invited. No admission charge.
