Today's Markets

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 13. (A.P.)—Following similar reductions by California refiners, Portland jobbers have reduced the price of all refined sugars five cents. Cane, berry and fruit are listed at $5.15 and beet at $5.00.

Butter and egg quotations remained steady and unchanged over the Lincoln holiday. Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the United States department of agriculture says: "The fruit and vegetable wholesale market was very stable, with good movement in nearly all lines, and very few price fluctuations. An active movement is taking place in apples, potatoes, lettuce, spinach and oranges."

"Rhubarb and tomatoes are meeting with very slow demand. Cabbage is in rather light supply, and prices are high. Bunched vegetables from California show very wide variation in quality. Good bunched beets are very scarce, and turnips are rather scarce also. "A few crates of California asparagus are arriving, for the benefit of the few millionaires who can afford so high-priced a luxury this week. Asparagus arrivals should begin soon though, and prices will speedily become more reasonable."

Butter, eggs, milk (butterfat), poultry, country meats, onions, potatoes, wool, hay, nuts, casars bark and hops, steady and unchanged. CANE SUGAR (sacked basis): Five cents lower. Cane, fruit or berry, $5.15 per cwt.; beet sugar, $5.00 cwt. FLOUR (city delivery prices): Steady. Family patents, 49c; $7.60; whole wheat, 49c, $6.70; graham, 49c, $6.50; bakers' hard wheat, 49c, $7.20; bakers' Blue-stem patents, 49c, $7.20; pastry flour, 49c, $7.30.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12. (AP)—Butterfat f.o.b. San Francisco, 42 1/2c. NEW YORK, Feb. 12. (AP)—Dried fruit and hops steady.

AT THE THEATRES

Scene from "Disraeli" starring George Arliss A Warner Bros. Production

Intrigue, melodrama, and high finance are intermingled in a brilliant story in "Disraeli," the Warner Bros. Vitaphone production now at the Pine Tree theater.

George Arliss portrays with fidelity the character of the powerful conservative British premier who, in the face of scoffing and ridicule by his opponents and powerful banking interests, acquired the Suez canal for England, outwitting Imperial Russia, solidifying the position of England in the Far East, and making Queen Victoria "Empress of India" through his action.

Woven through this plot of diplomacy is a charming love story carried by Anthony Bushell and John Bennett. Florence Arliss, the star's wife, plays the lead opposite him as "Lady Beaconsfield." Al Green directed this Vitaphone version of the highly successful stage play, "Disraeli" and which was written especially for Arliss by Louis N. Parker.

AT THE PELICAN Life in semi-primitive mountain regions "down east," and agony in the trenches of Flanders beautifully photographed and brilliantly directed are seen and heard at the Pelican theater where "Lucky Star," the first Janet Gaynor-Charles Farrell Fox Movie-tone talking picture is playing. This Frank Borzage directorial effort, one of his finest, will play all this week.

Janet is well cast as Mary Tucker, a sprite of a farm girl whose widowed mother has difficulty in getting the girl to assist her in the care of the farm and the younger children. She runs about with an ingenuous indifference and gives one of the finest characterizations of her career. Charles Farrell as Timothy O'Brien, an invalided war veteran has perhaps the most difficult role of his career. Is unaffected acting manner and speech convinces us
