Clothing Needed For Salvation Army

A special call for clothing has been issued by the local Salvation Army post.

Ensign Ford states that the recent cold weather, unemployment and sickness has depleted their supply until now but a few garments and shoes remain and these are not serviceable.

What is needed most is children's and men's shoes, little children's and men's garments of all kinds. Call Ensign Ford by phone 591-W., on Monday, February 24, and donations will be called for.

WORKERS PROTEST ARRESTS TAMPCICO, Mexico, Feb. 21, (A.P.)—The General Workers' Federation last night gave approval to a general strike in protest at arrest of several labor leaders in connection with the recent attempt against the life of President Pascual Ortiz Rubio. Date of the strike was not fixed.

Deeds—Not Words

"Deeds, not words." Who could be a person of deeds, not words and not be respected? Words are so unnecessary, so foolish—it seems unbelievable that so many people use them so extravagantly.

Many great men are noted for their silence. A man who is in the habit of doing and not saying is bound to get ahead, he cannot be kept down.

Idle talk, is a most venomous procedure. It has ruined many people, often branding an entirely innocent person with a bad reputation. Business deals have often fallen through because of idle talk.

Let us take for an example of this topic, two salesmen. One, we shall say, is what is known as high-pressure; the other just a representative of his company's products. We shall, for a time, tune in on the results of the two.

The first is a great salesman, he is very anxious to impress the fact on his victim. He is selling more of his "line" than any other salesman—and so on indefinitely. The second does not try to leave an impression of himself, but rather of his "line". He explains, pleasantly and politely, all the good points, admits the bad, and agrees on possible improvements, but tries to give the business man the best service that can be obtained.

There is no need to express which man will win. If the personality of one is so minus that he must emphasize it instead of the goods he is selling he cannot expect to win the vote of the modern business men. They want to know the virtues of the goods in question, not of the man selling it.

The above is but one example of the many ways in which indirection in the use of words may be disastrous. We may all profit by the motto, "Deeds, not words".

Jokes

Mr. Street—"Now, come along, and I'll teach you to milk a cow." Billy Streeter—"See'in' I'm new to it, Mister, hadn't I better learn on the calf?"

"I'm in love," chortled Mervyn Wilde, "I'm in love with a chorus girl."

"So you want to get off this afternoon, eh?" snorted Mrs. McComb sarcastically. "I suppose your grandmother died, eh?" "No, mam," replied Ivan, "She eloped."

Man has never succeeded in totally wiping out any known destructive insect.

The Malin basketball team was met by the Merrill team on their floor February the 17th and were defeated by a score of 13 to 15. Merrill was in the lead throughout the game.

The score in the first half was 9 to 4.

The large number of fouls, that were called was an outstanding characteristic of the game. Winifred Dewel of Merrill was high point girl with 9 points to her credit.

Malin (12) Merrill (15)

Game Played at Merrill Gymnasium

Fast playing was a characteristic of both teams, but with Malin's close checking, fast breaking, and accurate shooting, the Merrill team was unable to halt the rivals. Malin ran up a lead in the second quarter, making the score 19 to 4 at the end of the half. Merrill came back strong in the second half, but were still unable to stop the visitors, who ran the score up 19 to 8.

Several substitutes were used by Coach Fisher, of Malin, in the game, which showed some valuable variety material coming up.

Rajnus was high point man of the evening with 16 points, who was followed close by Kalina with 12 points, both being from Malin.

The line-ups—
Malin (29) Pos. Merrill (8)
