Tuning in on the Talkies by Walcott

THE drive to lengthen skirts finds Shakespeare, in "Romeo and Juliet," on record thus: "Men's eyes were made to look, and let them gaze."

Why should there be a "Weary River" when it can so readily take a rest in its own bed?

"Money Talks" in film titles and between the fingers of some men a penny cries "Ouch!"

Lotti Loder

Technicolor permits blue eyes to register, in natural color, on the screen and that includes "Smiling Irish Eyes."

"Puppy Love" seems to have an influence on many an old dog.

For "Double Feature" Day "They Had to See Paris" "Back Home and Broke."

Some Random Shots

Even "The Unwelcome Guest" gets the best room.

"Garments of Truth" are seldom worn threadbare.

"The Unpardonable Sin" is the one at which we are caught.

"The World's Applause" is what keeps actors steamed up.

"The Way of the World" seems to be paved for fast driving.

Told in electric lights: "She Goes to War"—Talking.

Making a "Wise Crack" John Barrymore, in "General Crack," bears the high-sounding name of Christian Rudolph Augustus Christopher Ketter.

The first letter of each name combines to spell Crack.

Allans Visiting Here—

Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, recently of Salt Lake City, Utah, where Mr. Allen was known as a prominent musician and a member of the Claude Kiff orchestra of that city, are visiting in Klamath Falls with Mr. Allen's mother, Mrs. Dewey Powell.

DRY ENFORCEMENT ACT
PORTLAND, Ore., March 8. (AP)—If Chauncey Bannan, 40, takes a nip of liquor during the next five years, he will have to serve a five-year sentence in the state prison for assault with intent to rob.

Bannan, who pleaded guilty to attempting to rob a loan office here, was granted the novel parole condition after Presiding Judge Stevenson talked with Mrs. Bannan and she promised that if her husband drank a drop of liquor during the next five years, she would report him as a parole violator.

The cheetah is used for hunting in India.

"Christians Awake"
Who has a 1½ ton truck that they will give for the Lord's work, to be used as a gospel wagon on the streets of Klamath Falls? This will be a profitable investment for some one. Jesus said: "Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through and steal."—Matt. 6:20.

The Selby-Reed Realty Co.
Make Their Bow to the Public

Over a period of several months and at considerable expense, we have been studying both city and farm prices and values. We have a most carefully selected list of properties of exceptional values.

For various reasons many owners seem determined to sell their properties; hence they are offering them away under real values. You have only to see our listings to be convinced. Come to our office at 630 Klamath Ave. and see them. We have a busy crew ever ready to render you courteous service. We solicit the listings of all property holders who wish to sell, and all buyers who are looking for exceptionally good values. We do not care to list any inflated values. We also welcome your listings for rentals and leases, and will arrange to make your collections for you.
