VALUABLE WALL PAPER.

LONDON.—Many of the aristocratic homes in England are adorning their walls with "pictures" made from antique wall paper. This paper, made in the eighteenth century, is valuable as an antique. Some of it has the appearance of tapestry, and old forgotten rolls, hidden away in attics, are being unearthed and sold for considerable sums.

Queen Elizabeth of England was presented with a wrist watch on New Year's Day, 1872. It was a ruby and diamond studded affair.
