

MALIN-BONANZA GAME IS CLOSE

The Bonanza town team defeated the Malin town team last Saturday night by a close, fast game. The score was 19 to 21.

The Malin towners were leading throughout the game until the last quarter, when the Bonanza team opened up and won the game by two points.

This was the first game that the Malin team played together, although two of the players played with the Malin-Merrill team. They will play with Bonanza again next Wednesday night at the Bonanza gym. Homer Reinhart, Bonanza's center, was high point man, scoring 16 points against the Malin team.

Bonanza—Klicher (4), forward; Goffman (1), forward; H. Reinhart (16), center; E. Reinhart, guard; Bray, guard.

The Sophomore English class held several debates at Malin high school last week. They had little time in which to prepare them, but were very successful.

The first debate was held on Wednesday on the question: Resolved, That all grammar school text books should be bought by the state. The affirmative was upheld by Bertha Reddy and Annie Micka, and the negative by Olga Kunt and Frances Hood. The speeches of both sides were exciting and interesting in every way. The negative won by a wide margin of seven to one.

On Thursday the second debate was held. The question for this debate was: Resolved, That all game seasons should be closed down for a period of five years. The affirmative was upheld by three speakers: William Streeter, Fred Fisher and Delmer Williamson; the negative by Edwin Stastney, Paul Petrasek and Louis Tozell. The speeches of both sides were knocking and effective, but the negative was a trifle stronger in their points, and won the debate by the score of four to three. On Friday the last debate was held, which was the same as the first. The affirmative was upheld by Edna Hansler and Mary Fabianek and the negative by Rex Stoffer and James Bradshaw. The speeches were short, but very interesting and speedy. The negative was fortunate enough to draw all the votes and win the debate by the score of eight to nothing.

Doheny and Wife at Bribery Trial

Mrs. Edward L. Doheny is at her husband's side in the trial of the California oil magnate on a charge of bribery in Washington. Here they are pictured as they arrived together at the District supreme court where Doheny is facing accusations of having given $100,000 to Albert B. Fall, then Secretary of the Interior, in return for a naval oil lease in California.

Miss Judy acted as chairman, and the public speaking class as judges to all of the debate.

The main aim of these debates was to give practice to the students in debating for the future years and as English work. The public speaking class got experience by criticizing the debaters.

Boys' Team Leaves For Valley City

The Malin High basketball team, accompanied by Coach Fisher, left for Ashland last Thursday noon, where they will take part in the Southern Oregon invitational basketball tournament, sponsored by the Southern Oregon Normal school. The tournament is the largest of its kind west of Chicago. This year the Normal school expects at least 25 teams to participate in the tournament.

The Malin boys went through the season this year winning eight out of ten games, and they are going to do their best to bring home some of the bacon from the tournament this year.

Those who made the trip were: Frank Kamarad, Louis Kallina, Mervyn Wilde, Willie Rajons, David McComb, Enoch Petrasek, Edwin Stastney, Paul Petrasek. Claude Layman was unable to make the trip as he got the mumps.

Christian Endeavor Party Given at Malin

The contest held by the Christian Endeavor society of Malin has been closed with the "Blue" or "Airship" side in the lead. The contest has been running for about three months, the "Blues" being in the lead during the whole period.

Since the winning side was to receive a party, the "Reds" or the "Dirigibles" honored the opposing side last Saturday night, March 15. A basketball game between the two sides was held. The "Reds" showed the hardest and best playing, thereby winning the game by a 12 to 0 score.

After the game ice cream and cake were served.

Boys Play Merrill, Score Ends 29 to 8

The Malin grade boys defeated the Merrill grade basketball boys by a score of 29 to 8 last Tuesday evening at the Malin gymnasium. Eddie Spolek was high point man, with 10 points to his credit.

A fast, clean game was played by both teams. Malin grade team's superior playing, is demonstrated in the fact that the total of points made by both teams during the season is 254 to the next highest of 114.

Malin Grade Girls Win Over Merrill

The Malin grade girls won over the Merrill girls last Tuesday evening, the 11th.

The girls, unable to outplay Merrill in their better team work, yet Malin won by a score of 17 to 13. Jewel Greene was high point girl, with 10 points to her credit.

Want Something Different in Coffee?

Then Try the Rare Tang and Mellow Richness of Coffees from the West Coast of Central America

PUBLIC SQUARE in a typical Central American city. Rare coffees grown on nearby mountains are brought to market here on mules.

FROM tiny volcanic districts along the West Coast of Central America come coffees with a flavor unlike any known before. They have a piquant tang and full body that experts concede are not duplicated anywhere else in the world.

We don't attempt to describe this coffee. We want you to taste it instead. To see for yourself why it is captivating the taste of the world.

Years ago we first introduced Central American coffee in the famous Bohemian restaurants of San Francisco. Travellers who first tasted it there wrote back for shipments. For it was obtainable in no other way.

Today, however, your grocer brings it to your door packed by Folger in flavor-tight vacuum tins.

Like No Other Coffee

Ordinarily you note little real difference when you change from one brand of coffee to another. That is because over 70 per cent of all the coffee entering the United States comes from one common region—where Nature gives it the same common taste.

Folger's flavor comes from an altogether different type of coffee grown in a different place—rare coffee grown in the brilliant mountain sunshine of Central America.

A Simple Test

Because Folger flavor is so distinctively different, we make an unusual offer. Buy a pound of this coffee today. Drink it tomorrow morning. Next morning drink the coffee you have been using. The third morning serve Folger's again. If for any reason you do not choose Folger's, your grocer will gladly refund the full price. We'll pay him. That's fair, isn't it? Why not try it today?
