Portland Prepares Marine Celebration

PORTLAND, March 21, (AP)—A committee of 25 Portland business men prepared today to begin plans for the annual Marine Day celebration. Sponsored by the Portland Shipping club, Marine Day last year brought thousands to the waterfront, where aquatic sports were held and two battleships laid near the wharves.

Oregon Incomes Denote Prosperity

PORTLAND, March 21, (AP)—Total of 49,429 federal income tax returns were filed at the Portland internal revenue office, as against 24,275 last year, Clyde G. Huntley, collector, said today. Most of the 4,164 increase is in the returns on incomes exceeding $5000. This group totaled 19,250 returns, with 13,058 the figure last year.

Propose Addition To State Prison

SALEM, Ore., March 21, (AP)—The state emergency board will meet Friday afternoon, April 4, for the purpose of considering the authorization of an expenditure for construction of a new wing at the state penitentiary, and also a number of other requests from various state departments. The call for the meeting was issued today by Secretary of State Hoss at the request of the state board of control.

In the neighborhood of $55,000 will be requested by the penitentiary, and it is estimated that other requests will bring the total to around $100,000. The state treasurer, the secretary of state, reclamation commission and the supreme court will ask for funds. The need for a deficiency appropriation for the supreme court has arisen, it was said, from the expense of the Joseph and Mannix disbarment trials.
