ALLEN POPULAR WITH FANS OF THREE STATES

Opponent For Jackson Has First Time To Strike Canvas

In bringing Del Allen to Klamath Falls to meet Dave Jackson, Tex Bickerstaff is introducing a new man to the fans of this section. But Allen is not a new man to the fight game. His reputation is firmly established with the fighting public from Astoria to Salt Lake City, having fought main events in all of the towns of importance from the mouth of the Columbia to the Great Salt Lake.

Due This Evening Allen is due from La Grande at 6:30 this evening and will work out at the Legion hall. He brings as good a reputation as any boxer appearing here in recent months, having more than held his own against Don Fraser, Buddy Washington, Ole Neisham, Willard Norton, Ray McQuillan and many other tough boys. He forces the fighting and will make Jackson extend himself. Not a boy to knock 'em dead, but a chap who carries plenty of power in both hands and wears his opponent down.

Never Off Feet It is kind of odd, but this chap who has had more than 60 fights has never been on the canvas. He is a great favorite in all the cities where he has boxed. He packs 'em in at Boise and Salt Lake City.

Dave Jackson, after a couple of days spent hiking in the hills accompanied by his pal Rex Lawson, returned to box 6 hard rounds last night before a large crowd of fans at the arena. He showed plenty of punching power, almost upsetting Joe Corbett and Honoluhua Joe. He boxed 4 real fast rounds with Dick Reed. He says he is going to try and put the tough Allen to sleep as he has developed a punch that will do the trick.

That Comedy Bout The bout that you don't want to miss is the 4 round comedy—Sammy Gordon and Benny Dyson—and what a farce this is to be. Can't tell you all but you will get a big laugh out of it. You know Sammy can put it on when he wants to. There will be flashlight pictures taken of this scream bout.

The boys will work out this evening at 7:30. All are invited. Tickets on sale at Waldorf, Mecca and Spar.

Gus Tosses "Lion" In Two Straight

SPOKANE, Wash., April 5, (AP)—Gus Sonnenberg, generally recognized as the heavyweight wrestling champion, tossed Al Karsick, the "Russian Lion," in two straight falls here last night. The champion took the first in 7 minutes 22 seconds of the fourth round with his famous flying tackle, and the second in 53 seconds of the fifth round with a head lock. Karsick, badly punished by the tackle, was groggy at the end.

KARPOLIS DOWNS VELCOFF WALLA WALLA, Wash., April 5, (AP)—Dr. Carl Karpolis of Cleveland took two straight falls from Nick Velcoff, Russian heavyweight wrestler, here last night.

Babe Didn't Like Personal Touch

WHEN YOU GET OUT ON THAT HIGH PITCHING MOUND WITH YOUR NEW SPIKED SHOES YOU'RE LIKELY TO FALL OFF AND BREAK YOUR NECK!

By AL DEBARTIS (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

A favorite method of goosing in baseball, which at times can be very funny, is to make sport of another's physical appearance. This is still practiced today, but I believe a verbal exchange between Hans Wagner and Kollie Zeider best illustrates it. Both Wagner and Zeider had very bowed legs.

"Kollie, your folks must have been so poor that you had to use a bear barrel for a hobby horse when you were a kid to get those legs of yours," was Hans' snappy comeback.

Even Babe Ruth is not exempt. A rival team was calling him all sorts of names, including "Big Ape." Babe sought his tormenters out in their clubhouse after the game.

"I don't mind you calling me a big fat so-and-so, but cut out that 'ape' stuff. That's personal," explained the Bambino.

If a player has an unusually large nose he is generally greeted with "If I had your nose full of nickels I'd get out of baseball and start an automat or a telephone company."

BERG STAGES GREAT BATTLE AND GETS NOO

Comes Back After Being Floored Twice in 8th By Tough Joe Glick

NEW YORK, April 5 (AP)—Jack (Kid) Berg, English lightweight, has given an amazing display of courage for the benefit of the same metropolitan fight fans who watched Phil Scott, British heavyweight, take what they thought was an "out" in his battle with Otto Von Porat here last December.

Floored Twice Berg was floored twice by low punches in the eighth round of his ten round bout with Joe Glick at Madison Square Garden last night. Berg got up to carry the fight to his opponent and earn the unanimous decision of the judges and referee.

Berg, a front-rank contender for the lightweight title and holder, at the same time, of the somewhat synthetic junior welterweight crown, was leading on points after the first seven rounds. Glick had put up a great fight in the first three rounds but tired badly thereafter. In the eighth Berg was smashed to the floor by a left hook that was palpably low. As Berg came to his feet at the count of seven, Glick smashed him again with another low left. Berg got up and flew at Glick like a wildcat and soon had the one-time Brooklyn pants presser groggy and bleeding from cuts over both eyes.

Gamer Than Scott Berg's gallant performance caused some ringside observers to recall Scott's performance in the same ring when he was struck by a low but apparently harmless left by Von Porat and stayed down until the referee disqualified the Norwegian on a foul.

Berg weighed 139½; Glick 137½.

Young Bowlers Have Chance Young and inexperienced bowlers as well as those of the fair sex are expected to have the edge in the Evening Herald's diamond bowling tournament which starts April 10th at the Klamath Recreation. Although the system of handicapping to be used is the most approved method, it is probable that one of the bowlers with the big handicap will have a good boost to postal company.

Otto Ellis says "If I win that medal I will owe my company a month's salary telegraphing my friends all about it." (A good way in which the Postal Telegraph company may save a month's salary of their local manager).

Clyde Hill of the Hamaker Motor company says, "It's a beauty and I sure would like to win it. But I will be satisfied if it stays among the members of my team." but Calvert of the Chevrolet Sales team thinks that the handicap his boys will receive assures one of them the prize.

Italy's population is growing at the rate of 400,000 a year.

Portland, Ore., April 5, (AP)—Charley Hansen, Seattle heavyweight wrestler, defeated Ted Thye, Portland, two out of three falls here last night. The match had a most peculiar termination. With a combination wristlock and hammerlock on Hansen, Thye forgot about his own shoulders and the referee started patting Hansen on the back in token of victory just as Hansen began pounding the floor in token of surrender from the pain of the hold. There was much confusion at the ringside over the decision and Thye protested bitterly. Thye took the first fall in 30 minutes, starting with a wristlock and ending with a hammerlock. Hansen used the same tactics in taking the second fall in 5 minutes, 45 seconds. The final period ended in less than five minutes.

Entries to Herald Diamond Medal Tournament Steadily Pouring In; Competition Hot

Archie Rice, the elongated, good-looking, pleasing dispositioned building inspector of Klamath Falls is an ardent bowling fan and is practicing daily as he has his heart set on winning the Evening Herald's diamond medal, emblematic of the 1930 championship.

"He will have plenty of opposition, however," says Al Sherman, the good-looking window draper at the Golden Rule.

Pleanty of Competition Otto Lorenz is another who is preparing to dispute Archie's right-of-way to the medal and so are Rex La Prairie, Otto Wilson, Tom Watters, Glenn Jester and just about 200 others.

Len Royce says he is the one to get Archie's goat and he certainly will have it in this contest.

Fred McMillan, the popular secretary of the Elks, is just as silent as ever upon the whole subject. He put in his entry with a smile and the simple statement, "I will be there at the finish," means a lot coming from Skinny.

Boost to Postal Company Otto Ellis says "If I win that medal I will owe my company a month's salary telegraphing my friends all about it." (A good way in which the Postal Telegraph company may save a month's salary of their local manager).
