NEW CONTRADICTION.
EUREKA, Calif., April 5, (A.P.)—District Attorney S. E. Metzler today said he had been advised by Pocatelli, Idaho, authorities that Mrs. Mianie McCoy, Malvern, Ark., girl whose body was found in the woods north of here more than a week ago, had $1,000 when she left that city February 10 with Clarence King, held here as her kidnaper. Metzler is checking the report. He said, because it brings a new contradiction to dates recounted by King concerning his movements preceding the murder.
