

Allen Will Give Jackson Plenty of Competition

BOTH FIGHTERS IN "PINK" FOR CARD TOPLINER

La Grande Fighter Wins Approval of Fans in Workouts

Nothing short of a packed house is expected at the Legion hall tonight to see the fight card with Dave Jackson and Del Allen as the headliners. At no time in recent months has Tex Bickerstaff pulled together such an array of high class boxing talent as he has on the program for tonight. From the Allen-Jackson match down to the comedy four rounds between Sammy Gordon and Benny Dyson, there will be nothing but fighting of the kind that Klamath fans are fond of.

Allen Fan Pleaser
This boy Allen is a fan pleaser. Arriving from La Grande Saturday evening, he immediately donned fight togs and repaired to the pavilion where he went five fast rounds, two with Tommy Thompson, heavyweight who shows plenty of speed, and three with Honolulu Joe, hard hitting welter. So pleased were the fans with his work that more than 40 ringside seats were sold as fast as Tex could turn them out.

Allen, who is a cousin of Milton Price of the Evening Herald force, is no stranger to Klamath county. He has boxed two main events at Chiloquin, and in company with his cousin visited that place yesterday. Living in the high country of northeastern Oregon, he is used to the rare air and needs no acclimating here. He is in stride and will be right there to put up a fast scrap from the first gong.

Jackson Going Fine
Dave Jackson, whose popularity has increased with each showing in Klamath Falls, has been doing the kind of training to give him wind and with that, endurance. He is expecting to extend himself tonight for he knows there is no use taking chances with this Allen boy. In his previous fights Dave has shown no inclination to use his right, but in his recent workouts he has shown a tendency to put that member to work and it is most effective. It will not be surprising if a knockout is delivered in the main event. Allen will have a weight advantage of three pounds, but this is not considered much of a handicap to the clever Dixie Flyer, who will weigh in at 140.

Hot Semi Final
What promises to be a genuine slugfest is the 5-round semi final between Steamboat Jackson and Joe Blackwell. Steamboat's popularity has been on the upgrade for the past several fights and fans know what to expect of him. Blackwell, although showing here but once and then against an inferior opponent, has demonstrated in workouts that he is familiar with the fight game. Blackwell has recovered from an injury to his foot sustained in training, and Steamboat will have to be on his guard to avoid a knockout. On the other hand, "Rowboat" is showing more TNT in his punches, so it is a toss-up on this bout.

Corbett-Adams Mean Business
The four round special between Joe Corbett and Bat Adams promises more action than the fans have seen in this event for months. These boys have the appearance of comers and they intend to make a rating for themselves tonight. At 155 pounds, they are fast and they slug. If one of them doesn't hit the canvas tonight it will be a miracle.

Comedy Sire Interest
Sammy Gordon, one-time coast champion, and Benny Dyson, not so slow himself, are billed in a comedy skit. It will be a four-round bout, if one or the other doesn't hear the birdies sing before the time is up. Only meagre details have been divulged, but it is hinted that Sammy will display a line of lingerie rivaling anything shown in the merchants' spring opening, while Benny promises something more original than anything Jean Patou ever thought of. Fans, don't fail to get in time to see this novelty.

McGraw Observes 57th Anniversary

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 7 (AP)—John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, celebrates his 57th birthday today in harness. McGraw's party, he hopes, will be at the expense of the Chicago White Sox, who meet the Giants here today in the eleventh game of their spring exhibition series, which started a month ago. The Giants are one up so far with five victories, four defeats and one tie. A minor celebration took place in Memphis yesterday when Carl Hubbel pitched the entire distance to beat the Memphis Southern association team, 7 to 3.

Hornsby Dubbed Modern Achilles

CHICAGO, April 7. (AP)—Rogers Hornsby, the modern Achilles of the Chicago Cubs, came back from the west coast today with his vulnerable right heel. Hornsby admits the heel hurts, but has no intention of letting it keep him out of the Cubs line-up. The doctor, however, will have something to say about that.

Fitzgerald Arrested On Check Charges

C. B. Fitzgerald, alias L. J. Cosgrove, alias Ross R. Simmons has been arrested in Eugene and faces a charge of issuing bad checks, according to word received by officers here last night. He stated he has a wife and child residing in Klamath Falls, but has given officers little information, according to reports from the valley. Eugene authorities learned, however, that he had issued checks in Oakland, Medford and in Washington, besides Eugene where it is stated he has a number out. Fitzgerald represents himself as a salesman and movie house manager and has been affiliated with theater work in Eugene. He will go on trial Monday, it has been learned. It is believed he is a former resident of this city where he was in business.

PROMINENT SEATTLEITE DIES
SEATTLE, April 7. (AP)—Leo S. Schwabacher, 59, president of a Seattle hardware concern, and one of the Pacific Northwest's leading business men, died suddenly from an attack of acute indigestion.

GAS BLAST INJURES 10

Song a Day Kept The Blues Away

DOWN BY THE OLD MILL—
STREAM WHERE I FIRST MET CHOO-O-T

YOU BIRDS CAN'T SING YOUR WAY THROUGH THIS LEAGUE, REMEMBER THAT!

By AL DEMARREE (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)
The song birds of baseball have been numerous and famous. Walte Hoyt, Al Mamaux, Red Dooin, Bill McKechnie, Marty McHale, Fred Lindstrom have been perhaps the most outstanding. If you room anywhere near Hoyt, the Yankee pitcher, you can hear his melodious voice all hours of the day or night. A theatrical critic paid Hoyt, the son of a veteran minstrel, a fine compliment last winter.

"There is one fellow who could get by on his voice if he never had been on a big league diamond," he said. Tommy Griffith, the old outfielder of other days, possessed a good voice, but he once made the mistake of yodeling melodiously in the club house in Boston after a losing game. "You can't sing your way through this league, young fellow," yelled George, who always was a tough loser.

The Pirates around 1921 and 1922, perhaps were the singingest club in baseball. Charley Grimm, who plays the banjo, was orchestra leader. Barney Dreyfuss once told me the Pirates sang themselves out of the pennant, and maybe one of the reasons Grimm was traded to the Cubs was because he was too musical.

Jackie Fields to Meet Freeman in Non-Title Battle

NEW YORK, April 7. (AP)—Jackie Fields, Los Angeles holder of the world's welterweight championship, who manages to keep fairly busy plying his trade without risking his title often, is scheduled for a 12-round non-title bout at Cleveland tomorrow night against Tommy Freeman of Erie, Pa. Freeman has a record impressive rather for its length than the calibre of his opponents, although draws with Gorilla Jones and Andy Divodi are on his 1929 list. In 95 battles listed, he has scored 36 knockouts and has been knocked out but once, and then by the current champion, Joe Dundee.

Dundee, who lost the title to Fields, appears at Rochester, N. Y., tomorrow against Bucky Lawless of Syracuse in a 10-rounder. Primo on Coast
Primo Carnera of Italy takes his huge frame to Los Angeles tomorrow night, seeking his fourteenth successive knockout. His opponent, Nell Clichey, Riverside, Calif., negro, will have to concede the usual 40 or 70 pounds to the smilling Alp. He weighs an even 200 pounds. Like most of Carnera's opponents in his "funny hitting" tour, Clichey has no important triumphs on his record.

Herald's Diamond Medal Has Arrived; Contestants Eager for Tourney Opening

The handsome trophy for which more than 100 bowlers have signed to compete, reached the Klamath Recreation yesterday and it certainly is a beauty. Made up of yellow and green gold with a half carat diamond set in the center. It can be viewed in the show window of Evans Bros., Jewelers, 316 Main street day or night during the coming week.

The medal is made in the form of a shield with the words "Klamath Falls Oregon Evening Herald" inscribed in Gothic in three lines. Just below the inscription are two crossed pins resting above a bowling ball with the diamond set in the ball. Engraved around the pins and the ball are the words "Diamond Medal Bowling Champion." The date 1930 is engraved just above the pins.

Hayden Early Entry
C. A. Hayden, who is leading all local bowlers in average, deposited his entry fee hardly before the ink was dry on Tuesday's Herald announcing the tournament. "The greatest idea I have heard of in a bowling tournament and I want to congratulate the Herald on their enterprise. It certainly gives every bowler an equal chance, due to the excellent system of handicapping. I surely will try hard to win the handsome medal," said Hayden, as he viewed the colored sketch shown him at the Klamath Recreation.

More than 100 entries were received at the Klamath Recreation and nothing but praise for the idea is emanating from the devotees of the sport. Don't forget that the entries close April 8th and there will be no post entries.

Entries Close 8th
Remember tomorrow, Tuesday, is the last day on which you can enter this contest, so bring or mail your entry to the Klamath Recreation, 121 South 8th St. at once. Mail bearing postmark as of before midnight Tuesday will be accepted. But there will positively be no entries accepted after the regular closing hour unless mailed as above stated.

This tournament is a handicap affair and all have an equal chance for the handsome medal as well as for the other prizes.

For your benefit, the rules are printed again. Look them over and if you have not already entered; do it now.

Rule on Averages
To the average of the bowlers on March 29th will be added two-thirds of the difference between said average and 190. For instance should your average be 150 you would receive two-thirds of the difference between that and 190 for each game.

Another good feature of the tourney is that with the exception of the finals you can bowl on your favorite alley at any time.

It will cost 25c to enter the first round and that entry alone gives you the opportunity to compete for the consolation prizes. The average of each entrant will be passed upon by a secret committee, but any entrant feeling that an injustice has been done may state his objections in writing and addressed to Bowling Editor, Evening Herald, care Klamath Recreation, 121 South 8th Street.

Tiger Outfielder Out With Injuries

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 7. (AP)—Harry Rice, Detroit outfielder, will be out of the game for some time, as a result of injuries to his face received yesterday in an exhibition game with the Louisville Colonels. Rice collided with the wall of the bleachers while catching a fly ball. The Tigers showed some weak-fielding, and George Uhle allowed 12 hits in five innings, to lose by 5 to 7 to Louisville here yesterday. The teams meet again today.
