Leaving for Oklahoma—

Mr. and Mrs. Hambright will leave on Saturday morning for Tulsa, where they will visit with Mr. Hambright's mother and other relatives. They expect to be away about a month. Mr. Hambright is connected with the Southern Pacific company.

Snow Plows Tried—

Demonstration of three snowplows, the Davidson, built by Ike Davidson, a member of Crater park service, a Wright and a Snogo, were held near Government camp yesterday before a group of park officials.

The little Davidson, drawn by a tractor, cut drifts to a depth of four inches, throwing the snow as high and far as did the large plows. Two reels of moving pictures were taken by William Godfrey, chief park ranger.

Visitors for the demonstrations were Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Ewing, Mrs. J. W. Emmert, and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kottbauer, all of Yosemite. Superintendent O. A. Tomlinson of Rauter, and F. A. Kitzridge, chief engineer of the service stationed at San Francisco, are expected today.—Medford Daily News.

Anticipate Meeting—

Klamath Masons are anticipating the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons which will be held at Corvallis the third week in April, starting April 21. At this time the Grand Council, Royal and Past Masters and Grand Commandery of Oregon will hold their annual meeting to transact the year's business. Among the notable to attend will be Judge Dunn of Ashland, the present Grand Commander.

Pelican P. T. A. Postponed—

The meeting of the Pelican P. T. A. announced for April 16 has been postponed until April 23. Election of officers will be held at this meeting, which will be the last one of the year.

Fort Klamath Vexed—

Failure of the government to open the Crater Lake highway from Klamath Falls to Anna Springs is a cause for complaint by Fort Klamath and other Klamath county residents, according to Henry Gordon, cattleman, in Medford today from the Klamath section. Ten miles or so of highway is still blocked by snow, making it necessary for residents of the Fort to go through Klamath Falls to reach Medford. Otherwise, the trip could be made through the Crater Lake national park with a good mileage saving.—Medford Mail Tribune.

Brown is Promoted—

Lee P. Brown, who has been with the Crater National Park service as administrative assistant, since 1923, has been promoted to Olympia, Wash., where he will be the assistant supervisor of the Olympic forest. He has left for Olympia to make his future home. Mr. Brown has been making his home in Medford while he was not at the park.

Announce Opening—

R. V. Yaden has announced the opening of "Yaden's Grocery" on Klamath Avenue between 6th and 7th streets. The new grocery will be equipped with a delivery service, and is the only grocery on Klamath Avenue, Mr. Yaden states.

The Garden Club will meet on Monday afternoon, April 14, at the home of Mrs. Fred Schallack on Pacific Terrace.

Attended Beatty Meet—

A. M. Thomas of this city attended the Indian General Council meeting held this afternoon at Beatty.

Try to Locate Man—

A communication was received at the local chamber of commerce this morning, asking that anyone in this community knowing the whereabouts of one Charles Perry (Hotel Man) who ran the Ranier Grand Hotel in Seattle some time ago, request Mr. Perry to communicate with Anna S. Holman of 391 East 55 N., Portland, Oregon.

Cooked Food Sale—

The F. O. E. Ladies Auxiliary is having a cooked food sale Saturday, April 12th, at 802 Main St., formerly occupied by the Shepherd Music Co. All auxiliary ladies are asked to donate and to bring their donations to that address, or call Mrs. Ira Morris or Mrs. J. J. Lewis, and they will be called for. The sale is for the drill team benefit.

Condition Improving—

The condition of Mrs. Howard Metcalf, who has been ill with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism for the past two months, is reported to be improving. It is expected that she will be able to be about again in a week or ten days.

Recovering from Operation—

Lester Sampler of the Ewauna camp is a patient at the Hillside hospital where he is slowly recovering from a major operation. During her husband's illness, Mrs. Sampler is staying at the home of her mother, Mrs. Dora Corbin of Chiloquin.

Recent Medford Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Amaby, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Murphy and Joe Devine, all of Klamath Falls, were recent visitors in Medford from here.

Scout Executive Visits—

"Boy" Crompton, scout executive from Wenatchee, Washington, was in the city Thursday, and conferred with O. E. Hoover, local commissioner, both Thursday night, and Friday morning.

Leaving for La Grande—

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds expect to leave Saturday morning for La Grande, where they will spend next week. They will be accompanied by Miss Lillie Darby, supervisor of music in the city schools.
