

NEWS IN BRIEF

Character Close-Ups

A THICK THUMB IS A SIGN OF A SLOW AND CAREFUL THINKER

H. H. Martin, vice president of the Northwestern Mutual Fire Insurance association, and also vice president of the Martin General Agency of Portland, was in Klamath Falls on Thursday visiting with Tom Richardson, local representative of the Northwestern company.

Mr. Martin expresses himself pleased with the possibilities of Klamath Falls and is returning in about a month to continue a deal which he started yesterday. On this trip he will be accompanied by Mrs. Martin who will attend the P. E. O. state convention to be held here, and also Mr. Burkhardt, Marmon agent of the northern city.

Mr. Martin is past president and one of the present grand trustees of the Sigma Chi, national fraternity.

Announce Sale of Home—

Sale of the Walter Beane home at 1105 Pacific Terrace was completed yesterday and the new owners, Mayor T. B. Walters and his family, plan to take possession within a week.

The house is of Dutch Colonial type and has seven rooms. The purchase price was not made known.

Mr. Beane, who recently sold the Klamath Iron & Steel Works to Carl F. Gerlinger of Dallas, and Mrs. Beane are leaving in the near future for Europe to spend the next three or four months touring, after which they will return to Portland. Mr. Beane has accepted a responsible position in the northern metropolis.

Charter Roll Nearly Completed—

With only 20 subscribers needed to complete the charter roll of the new Piedmont Golf and Country club, it is expected that Sunday will see the completion of the organization. Grant Hess, a director, stated last night, it is expected that an over-subscription will be received.

The fairways are now ready to be seeded and the greens are being leveled and shaped.

Pipe for the sprinkler system for the course has arrived and will be laid within the next week. The directors expect to call a meeting of the entire membership within two weeks to elect permanent officers for the club.

Files Divorce Suit—

Roy D. Givens yesterday filed suit for divorce against Elizabeth Givens, charging cruel and inhuman treatment and alleging that Mrs. Givens kept company with other men against his consent and to his embarrassment. They were married in Denver, Colo., on September 25, 1925.

He asks that the care and custody of a 3-year-old son be given to the mother of Mrs. Givens, Maud Fallis, in Castle Rock, Colo. David R. Vandenberg is attorney for the plaintiff.

Visitors From Portland—

Those visiting in the city on Thursday from Portland, registering at the local hotels, include Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Desmond, C. Wundt, Joe Sharkey, A. F. Seranians, C. R. Daffol, J. H. Ellars, C. E. Miller, C. Wever, J. Hement, F. D. McKewen, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sluffer, E. J. Russell, J. S. McKewen and Walter Miller and daughter, Corinne.

Park Road Improves—
Cars are now able to get within two miles of Crater lake, was the word received here yesterday. Several motorists report that during the first of the week they were able to get within that distance of the lake's rim. From there many have continued on up to the lake by trail.

According to present plans the lake concessions and lodge will be open for the summer tourist season on July 1.

Club Leaders to Meet—
A meeting of the 4-H club leaders of the Klamath country will be held tomorrow noon at the Pelican Grille. Lunch will be served at 75c a plate and the organization, which started on March 1, will be completed.

H. C. Seymour, state club leader, will be present, as well as Fred Peterson, county superintendent of schools, and all others interested in club work of this type.

Mrs. Leon Wiese is returning this evening to her home in Berkeley after spending the past few days in Klamath Falls with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wiese formerly resided in Klamath Falls, where Mr. Wiese was connected with the S. P. company. He is with the same company in the south.

Misses Virginia West, Katherine Ulrich and Harriet Baldwin, all teachers at the local high school, left yesterday for Portland to remain for a brief time, enjoying the Easter vacation visiting friends.

Oscar Hoover Leaving—

Oscar Hoover, scout executive, is leaving Sunday for Portland to join executives of the north-west in a conference at Sand Lake camp on the Tillamook coast, lasting for one week. Special training is being given at this camp and many new ideas will probably be brought back by Mr. Hoover.

Portland Man Here—

John E. Tourtelote, well known Portland architect, was a registrant at the Willard hotel yesterday. Mr. Tourtelote was the architect who designed the recently completed building of the Haisiger Motor company, home of the Ford agency here.

Arthur Watson Visits—

Arthur Watson was among the business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday from his home at Chehalis, Wash., where he is connected with a prominent insurance company.

A. Z. Dean in City—

A. Z. Dean, Union Oil representative of Portland, was included in the business visitors here on Thursday from Portland. Mr. Dean makes frequent visits to this district.

Out-of-Town Visitors—

D. H. Falor, I. R. Combant, Ruth Snyder and Ernest Thompson were included among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday. All were registered from Grants Pass.

Medford Guests Here—

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. R. Adams and family, all of Medford, spent Thursday in Klamath Falls, visiting friends and tending to business matters.

The average man has reached his maximum height when he is 25 years old.

KIWANIS WILL MEET APRIL 23

Presentation of the Pasco Traveling Bell will be made to the local Kiwanis club by Dr. Crandall, president of the Ashland Kiwanis club, at an inter-club meeting to be held at the Willard Hotel on Wednesday evening, April 23. It was announced last night by Percy Murray, president of the local organization.

This is expected to be one of the largest inter-club meetings ever held in Klamath Falls and plans for a superb entertainment and banquet are materializing.

Is Ladies' Night

In addition to the inter-club meeting at which the Kiwanis presidents of Ashland, Medford, Bend, Portland and Klamath Falls will be in attendance, Wednesday evening has been designated as ladies' night and all local and visiting Kiwanians are to bring their wives or lady friends.

The district governor of the Kiwanis club, Dr. W. G. Houck of Roseburg, will also be present and will give a short talk.

Bell Is Traveling

The Pasco bell was presented to the Kiwanis club of the northwest district by Pasco, Wash., club and is to be passed through the hands of every Kiwanis club in the district before it is returned to its source. It has been traveling for the past four and a half years and has just reached southern Oregon on its way back north. It is kept by each club for about a month.

At a later date the presentation of the bell to the Bend club by the local members will be made at a joint meeting of the two organizations to be held at either Klamath Falls or Bend.
