GOOD CROWD AT BASEBALL OPENING HERE

Columbia Wins by One Tally Home Team Shows Promise

The opening game of the season was a hard fought exhibition of the national pastime and the fans went home well pleased.

The Pelicans won only a few nights of practice, surprised the Columbia U team by holding them to a close score. The Irish team, composed of young men who have been playing together and winning from the best teams around the north for the past four months, yesterday won one of those games that is not settled until the last man is out.

Pelicans Score First.
Klamath scored the first run of the game in the first inning when Fuller, shortstop, tripped to left and scored on an infield out.

Peterson, lanky Pelican third sacker, poled one over the left field fence in the second inning for a beautiful home run. It was a Babe Ruth sock.

The college boys scored their first run in the second, a run which wasn't earned. The blowup of the game and which spelled defeat for the home club came in the fifth inning. Everything happened in this frame and after the smoke cleared the visitors had scored six runs—just enough to win the old ball game.

Boys Kept Trying.
Sandy's boys didn't stop trying though, for in the last inning they almost won the game. With the bases thickly populated, Zachary cleaned the bags with a triple to left. With the tying run on third, Red Donovan, who showed in his three times to bat that he can hit the old apple, in his fourth struck out, ending a game full of everything that can be crowded into one meeting between two baseball teams.

It was an exciting time for the boys and they went home well satisfied.

With four new men to be on deck for the opening of the league season, Red will have a team that will more than hold its own.

Brady Montgomery did a good job umpiring.

Arthur and Lena Good Friends Now

CHICAGO, April 21, (AP)—Baseball's boxing act has broken up—For Arthur (The Great) Shires and Russell (Lena) Blackburne are just a pair of buddies now.

When the St. Louis Browns, with whom the former White Sox pilot now serves as coach, came to Chicago for a series with the Sox the erstwhile sparring mates exchanged the grip and declared their high regard for each other. "I sincerely believe," Shires said, "that Blackburne is as good a friend as I have in baseball."

"Shires is okay and a hustling ball player," Blackburne said.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

By AL DENNEY
(Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

It is too early to predict how the majority of fans think the teams in both the National and American leagues will finish. The votes are coming from previous ballfests and the counting and tabulating of them is a tedious job, but the results will be interesting.

The first few hundred ballots counted show that not all regard the Cubs and Athletics as sure bets to repeat. Hornsby's heel and the hole at third base unless Blair comes through or Bell's arm improves will undoubtedly hurt the Cubs.

On the other hand Grimes' absence from the Pirates' pitching staff and the absence of Traynor and "Little Poison" Waner does not help the Pirates' chances.

In the American League the Yanks look better than they did a year ago and the Browns and Indians look stronger.

Come on, fans, vote today and let's see how the final figures will look like. Send your ballot to me, in care of this paper.

WILLIE HOPPE TO PLAY HERE

World's Greatest Cue Star to Appear at Klamath Parlor

Billiard player and 15-year holder of the 15-2 title, will appear in exhibition games at the Klamath Billiard Parlor on Wednesday at 3:30 and 9 o'clock.

Began Early
Hoppe began playing billiards when only six years old, using a box or bench to stand on in order to make his shots. In 1906 when only 15, Hoppe went to France and played in the Grand Hotel in Paris on January 15 of the same year against Maurice Vigneux, the "Old Lion" and champion of the world at 15-1 and 15-2 ball-line billiards. The match was for the championship and Hoppe won 500 to 323, this being for the 15-1 title.

The games here will be at both three cushions and ball-line billiards. Hoppe meeting the best local players. After each match Hoppe will entertain the fans with fancy shots on the billiard table.

The Nut Cracker

There were four set of brothers with National League teams in the south this year: the Wainers, with the Pirates; John and Vince Sherlock, with the Phils; Ernest and Paul Ossatti with the Cards; and Lance and Ed Richbourg with the Braves.

There also were some 600 cousins, comments O'Goofy. He says he means the Braves and Red Sox.

When a pitcher is easy to hit or a batter is soft for the pitcher, he is known as a "nutcracker." The title hasn't been officially awarded, but we think Lefty Grove and Lefty O'Doul should be called nutcrackers-in-law.

Somebody stole Primo Carnera's shoes in Los Angeles. Probably some amateur gardener with a flair for fancy window boxes.

O'Goofy says the police ought to look up the people who own bass fiddles, as a possible clue to primo's gondolas.

O'Goofy also asks that he be allowed to state that with his shoes stolen, Primo will be on his feet again. We feel obliged to refuse the request, however.

Judging by the way the Cincinnati ball club has been belting away at that old apple in the south, residents in the neighborhood of Redland field had better have all their windows insured.

London's City Remembrancer has to investigate all prospective legislation and call to the attention of a special committee all legislation affecting the city of London.

SENATORS REAL SURPRISE TEAM OF AMERICANS

Playing Upsets Early Season Dope; Brown Pitching Ace

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

The Washington Senators have taken a place in the front rank of the major league teams which have started the year by upsetting some of the dope. One good reason for their good showing so far is found in Lloyd Brown, big left-handed pitcher.

In Second Place
Brown is the only major league hurler to pitch two full games so far this year and to win them both. He held the Boston Red Sox to three hits last Tuesday and yesterday scored his second triple by doubling the New York Yankees, 6 to 3. The triumph put the Senators in a tie for second place in the American league instead of in the second division where the dope says they belong.

The Yankees, losing their fourth straight game, sent Sam Byrd in to replace Allen Cooke in the outfield with the announcement from Manager Shawkey that he would remain there against left handed pitching, but the change brought no improvement.

Brown, Seibold Win
Eight pitchers appeared on the mound for the second time at the start of yesterday's six games, and only Brown and Harry Seibold of the Boston Braves remained to the end. Seibold won his game from the Brooklyn Robins, 7 to 3, as two Brooklyn errors and a home run with loaded bases provided six runs in the seventh inning.

Young Willis Hudlin of Cleveland and old George Uhle of Detroit both went nine innings in a fine duel and Cleveland nosed out a 2 to 0 victory. Hudlin made the nearest approach to Brown's record, for he hurled the greater part of a losing ten inning duel with Chicago on his first appearance. A pinch double with two bases full by Burnett gave him yesterday's game.

Athletics Score Victory
In the third American league game, the Philadelphia Athletics scored their third successive victory of the year by bunting five hits off Dan MacFayden in one inning and downing the Boston Red Sox 5 to 2. MacFayden went the entire distance but Ed Rommel, who started for the world's champions, had to give way to Jack Quinn.

The New York and Philadelphia National league clubs, which have started out as if to revive the title of "Hitless Wonders," staged another close duel yesterday, the Giants winning by a 2 to 1 count. Carl Hubbell held the Phillies to four hits, two of them by Tommy Thoren while the Giants reached "Old Pete" Alexander for the greater part of ten, but still it took a home run by Mel Ott to win the game.

A similar battle between the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds marked the remaining National league struggle. The Cubs, won 4 to 3, after Cincinnati had scored three runs in one inning off Fred Blake.

One game in each league suffered the common early season fate of being rained out.

Speediest Racing Dogs of Nation at Girard for Races

GIRARD, Kas., April 21, (AP)—The speediest racing dogs of the nation gathered here today for inauguration of the annual spring meet of the National Coursing association.

Prizes to winners during the six day meeting will total approximately $15,000. The richest purses will be given in the national futurity and the national Waterloo events. Waterloo nominations are limited to 64.

Recent rains have softened the ground, which will be of great benefit to the racer's feet. Frequently the dog's feet become sore from extensive rabbit chases over hard earth.

Defeat Of Indians In Easter Games Puts Them Near Top

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21, (AP)—Manager Carl Zamocho's magic must be considered successful thus far in the Pacific coast league pennant chase.
