Mexican, to Portland from Klamath Falls to face charges of illegal entry into the United States. Inspector Wise of the Portland immigration office Monday left for Great Falls, Mont., to testify at immigration hearing for Henry J. Dunnachie, Scotchman, charged with illegal entry at Portland.

Avoided wherever she went ... until she ended "B.O."

THE OTHER seat was on the sunnyside not so desirable as this one. What made her young neighbor change? A trivial little incident, yet it spoiled her whole train trip. She remembered other similar experiences. For years, it seemed, people deliberately avoided her.

Now at last she knows the reason. "B.O."—body odor. She knows, too, the simple way to correct this distressing fault. Today she is no longer unwanted, has many warm friends. Loneliness vanished with "B.O."

"How can anyone have 'B.O.' and not know it?" you ask. Very simply. We all perspire. Pores give off a quart of odor-causing waste daily even in cool weather. We become so used to this ever-present odor that we don't notice it in ourselves. But others do!

Yet it's easy to avoid offending. Millions have found the way. Just wash and bathe with Lifebuoy. A delightful toilet soap—cleansing, refreshing, purifying. Its creamy, searching, antiseptic lather penetrates every pore—ends all danger of "B.O."

Keeps complexions clear, fresh

Lifebuoy keeps complexions young. Its bland, deep-cleansing lather gently frees clogged pores of impurities—coaxes back radiant freshness to dull, sallow skins. Its pleasant extra-clean scent—that vanishes as you rinse—tells you Lifebuoy purifies. Adopt Lifebuoy today.
