

NEWS IN BRIEF

Character Close-Ups

Leave for Alturas—

Mrs. Nannie Deyo and her sister, Mrs. Wakefield, are leaving on this morning's train for Alturas where funeral services for the late Harney Allen Deyo will be held on Saturday afternoon.

Visiting Here—

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. E. Williams and Ruth Williams arrived in Klamath Falls on Thursday afternoon to remain here for a short time visiting friends and looking over the city.

Business Visitors—

Frank Hull and W. R. Walker, both of Medford, are business visitors in Klamath Falls, having arrived here late last evening.

Divorce Suit Filed—

Roy T. Premo yesterday filed suit for divorce from Louise Campbell Premo, charging cruel and inhuman treatment and desertion on April 20, 1930. They were married in Chehalis, Wash., on February 5, 1928. The complaint asks the restoration of her maiden name of Louise Campbell. R. C. Groesbeck represents her.

A demurrer to the complaint was filed yesterday by Maxine, McCulloch and Driscoll and Ralph W. Horan for the defendant.

Decree Granted—

Hearthel M. Mitchell yesterday was granted a decree of divorce from Lyle H. Mitchell and was granted the care and custody of Nadene Mitchell, a minor child. Mrs. Mitchell was allowed $25 a month alimony for the care of the child, $75 attorney's fees for D. E. Van Vactor, who represented her, and $25 court costs. Judge W. M. Duncan issued the decree.

Leaving May 1st—

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fish are leaving Klamath Falls on May 1 for New York where they will visit Mr. Fish's sister and then will leave for Washington, D. C., on an extended visit with other relatives. They plan to make their home somewhere in the south and will not return to Klamath Falls for some time.

Left for New Mexico—

William B. Ayres left Thursday for Carrizozo, N. M., accompanying the remains of his wife, Allie May Ayres. Mr. Ayres is connected with the Southern Pacific company of this city.

Install New Machine—

Connolly Brothers have purchased a double stitching machine for canvas work and are now equipped to make any size or type of tent or canvas that is desired by the hunters, fishers or campers of the Klamath empire. It was announced last night by Charles Schaal, vice-president. The stitcher has been installed at their Store No. 1 and is now ready for use. "We can make each one a different size tent or canvas or make it any shape one wishes," Mr. Schaal stated.

Eighth Graders Visit—

An assembly was held this afternoon at the high school in honor of the eighth graders, who will be guests of the school.

The program consisted of a talk by Lloyd Emery on Japan; a piano solo, and a reading. After the assembly the eighth graders went with the freshmen and sophomores to their afternoon classes to become acquainted with the routine of the school which they will enter next fall.

Returns After Rites—

Deputy District Attorney T. R. Gillenwaters returned last night from Goldendale, Wash., and will again assume his duties in the office of the district attorney today. He was called to The Dalles by the fatal injury of his brother, Dr. Orin Gillenwaters of Goldendale, who was in an automobile accident. Dr. Gillenwaters was buried in Portland Monday and Deputy District Attorney Gillenwaters then went to Goldendale with his mother, Mrs. J. W. Gillenwaters, to help arrange the business affairs of his brother.

Called by Illness—

Mr. and Mrs. Vera Vaupel of this city have left by motor for North Dakota, where Mr. Vaupel's mother is seriously ill. Mr. Vaupel is a pharmacist in McGill's Drug company here.
