JONES FEARS BATTLE ROYAL ACROSS SEAS

Golf Ace Entertaining No Illusions About British Talent

NEW YORK, April 29. (AP)—Seven of America's eight Walker Cup golf representatives had gathered here today and the eighth was no further away than Washington.

With their departure on the Mauretania set for tomorrow afternoon, Bobby Jones, captain of the invading expedition; Francis Ouimet, Tom Moe and Dr. O. F. Williams all arrived in town yesterday to join three other members of the team, Harrison R. (Jimmy) Johnston, national amateur champion, George Von Elm and George Volgt. The eighth member of the squad, Roland MacKenzie, is expected from Washington today or tomorrow.

Practice Not Needed

Whatever other members of the team may decide to do, Jones will play no golf here.

"I have been playing much more in the winter than usual," he said, "and do not feel the need of additional play until we get over there. We will have no team practice or anything of that sort here. There will be plenty of time for that when we get to England."

Opposition Looked For

Jones believes that the Americans will have a real battle on their hands when they meet the British Cup players at Sandwich May 15 and 16. "I have seen only the old-timers play but I have the greatest respect for them and I hear the younger players are as good or better than the veterans."

Jones said that the squad would play no other team match in England and that as far as he himself was concerned, he probably would restrict his golf to the Walker cup matches, the British amateur and open championships and possibly only one other tournament in England.

Will Visit Continent

"I hope to visit France and Germany and possibly Italy between the amateur and open events," he declared, "possibly an 18-hole match or so."

The three big English events are spread over a period of about five weeks. The Walker cup matches will be held at Sandwich May 15 and 16; the British amateur at St. Andrews May 26 and 27; and the open at Hoylake from June 16 to 21.

FELDMAN HITS LIKE SLUGGER

Develops Great Punch And Expects to Stop Bob Robinson

Willie Feldman and Tiger Bob Robinson top a card arranged by "Tex" that has the fans all hopped up. Willie, in his first appearance since he made a trip south, will blossom out as a full-fledged light heavy. He tipped the scales yesterday at 172, and expects to enter the ring around 170. The added weight has given him more hitting power, and the way he handles his sparring partners the Tiger had better be on his toes, for if Willie connects with that right Bob is liable to find himself listening to the bird music.

Tiger on Way

Bob will arrive from San Francisco tomorrow morning, and word from his manager, Joe Robinson, chief of detectives at Oakland, is to the effect that the Tiger is in wonderful shape, and that it is his desire to get Feldman back in the ring, as Willie holds a hair-line decision over him. Bob has won his last four fights around the Bay district. A terrific hitter, and game, he is going to make Feldman step his best to beat him. Bob will work out Wednesday evening at the Legion for convenience of the fans. 6:30 is the time. Admission is free.

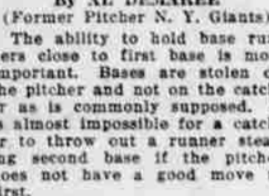

Fast Sam Wins

Young Sam Langford and Steamboat Jackson in the semi-final six rounds is some fight in itself. Both are hard-working welters and boys who can stand the gauntlet. It will be as tough a fight as ever witnessed here. Sam, with his big reputation, thinks Steamboat is a soft one. Well, they don't make many Steamboats these days. He has never made a bad fight here; always in there doing his best. He wants to know Sam so he can get a shot at Willard Norton, a popular ringman, who is at Chiloquin on a visit.

Holding Runner On First Base

By AL DEMAREE (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

The ability to hold base runners close to first base is most important. Bases are stolen on the pitcher and not on the catcher as is commonly supposed. It is almost impossible for a catcher to throw out a runner stealing second base if the pitcher does not have a good move to first.

Charley Root of the Cubs possesses one of the best moves in the major leagues to prevent a runner's getting a flying start.

His move could almost be called a half balk and was originated by Dick Rudolph of the Boston Braves.

Root leans or sways slightly toward the home plate and then turns and throws to first.

In order to outwit the baserunner vary this move at times by leaning slightly toward first base and pitching to the plate or leaning toward the plate and also throwing to the plate.

By constant practice you can learn exactly how far you can lean to the plate before throwing to first, and not have a balk called.

You will be surprised how many runners you can catch flat-footed off first or on their way to second with this comparatively simple half balk move.

Miss Collett and Team Disembark at Southampton Dock

SOUTHAMPTON, England, April 29. (AP)—The largest contingent of American women golfers ever to land in England arrived today when the Berengaria docked at Southampton with Glenns Collett and her team aboard.

Miss Collett, the American women's champion, headed a party of 20 including Virginia Van Wie and Helen Hicks, who she declared, "are just as good at golf as I am."

Maureen O'Grady, the other member of the American "Big Four," arrived several days ago. The squad started for London on a boat train which Miss Collett said would halt near Sunningdale so the girls could inspect the course and motor to London later. It is at Sunningdale the Americans meet an English team Thursday.

WASHINGTON, April 29. (AP)—The fans who take no chances are rapping at the Washington ball club's door for world series reservations already.

More than 200 requests had been received today, with Walter Johnson's lads having won seven straight.

MISSIONS AND DUCKS SPLIT DOUBLE MENU

Fullerton Wins Handily In Morning, Pilette In Afternoon

By The Associated Press

While the other clubs in the league enjoyed their regular Monday holiday, the Portland Ducks and Mission Reds put in double time at the Portland ball yard yesterday. The teams split a doubleheader, the home guard taking the first game, 5 to 4, and the visitors winning the second, 5 to 1, thus completing their seven-game series.

Featuring the day's play was Ted Pilette, brother of Herman, who is the senior pitcher on the Mission club. Ted held the Ducks to eight hits and in addition to hurling winning ball secured three hits.

Curtis Fullerton turned in the Portland victory, holding the opposition to nine safeties.

Teams Split

This week finds the Seals opposing the Sacramento Senators at San Francisco in their first series of the year. The Senators are in second place, but unless a fluke or shortcoming that has trailed them for years has left them, they probably will find themselves lower in the percentage column at the end of the week. For the past several years the Seals have had little difficulty in trimming the Sacramento club.

Oaks Meet Angels

Carl Zamloch's hard-hitting and fighting Oaks meet the Los Angeles club at Wrigley field. Zamloch has as good a squad of players as there is in the league, and the series with the southern club should be close and exciting.

In the north the Missions move on to Seattle, where "Red" Killefer will renew acquaintances and try to add a few points to his team's percentage at the expense of the Indians.

The Portland Ducks entertain the Hollywood Stars in a seven-game set.

Kid Chocolate in Bad With Ontario Boxing Officials

TORONTO, April 29. (AP)—Officials of the Ontario boxing commission today were holding up the purse of Kid Chocolate, Cuban featherweight, as a result of his showing last night against Johnny Erickson of New York.

Chocolate was awarded the decision after the ten-round bout by vote of the two judges, but Referee Lou Marsh declined to cast his ballot. The Cuban gave Erickson a thorough trouncing, and almost knocked him out in the last rounds, but the officials were dissatisfied with the Cuban's showing in the earlier rounds.

Referee Marsh warned Chocolate's manager, Louis Gutierrez, between rounds to order Chocolate to open up. Gutierrez said the Cuban had injured both hands in the first round, and was disinclined to extend himself when he could win easily anyway.

The majority of fans appeared satisfied.

BOSTON SAILOR BLASTS HOPES OF LOUGHRAN

Ernie Schaaf Belts Way To Decision Over Philadelphian

PHILADELPHIA, April 29. (AP)—Tommy Loughran's heavyweight championship aspirations have received another severe jolt, this time at the hands of Ernie Schaaf, 21-year-old Boston sailor boy.

Schaaf belted his way to a referee's decision over the former light heavyweight titleholder in a sensational 10-round battle here last night. One of the judges scored Loughran as the winner and the other voted for a draw.

Fans Displeased

The verdict of Referee Leo Houck precipitated a noisy demonstration on the part of the fans. Police were called to disperse the crowd, which stormed about the center of the arena for several minutes after the final gong. Most of the fans declared that Loughran should have gotten no worse than a draw.

Coming on the heels of his knock-out at the hands of Jack Sharkey last summer, the defeat, in the opinion of experts, has lowered Loughran's heavyweight prospects materially.

A year ago Loughran, then holder of the light heavyweight title, won a decision over Schaaf in Boston. But last night he found the Boston gob a greatly improved fighter. Loughran, still the clever boxer of old, excelled in that department, but Schaaf was by far the better fighter.

There were no knockdowns, but there were many hard blows exchanged and both men were bleeding from cuts on the face and over the eyes.

Senators Playing Heads-Up Baseball and Show Heels to League Despite Predictions

By HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer

In the face of expert opinion that said they would be lucky to finish any higher than seventh place, Walter Johnson's Washington Senators continue to set a dizzy pace to lead the American league.

No one can say, of course, where the Senators will finish but the fact remains that they are playing heads-up baseball, taking advantage of every break and winning consistently. The club has been fielding brilliantly, hitting opportunely and Johnson has shown rare judgment in juggling his pitchers with Lloyd Brown, Irving Hadley, "Fip" Marberry and Garland Braxton as a "big four."

Seven In Row

Yesterday's 6-5 victory over the New York Yankees was the Senators' ninth in seven games and their seventh in a row. Washington took an early lead, thanks to some spectacular hitting by Shortstop Joe Cronin, and then held on to it in the face of a Yankee rally in the later frames. Cronin drove in three runs with a home run, triple and double. The Yankees drove Marberry out of the box with a two run rally in the seventh but could do nothing with Braxton.

The Chicago White Sox moved up into second place with a 9-7 triumph over Detroit. Carl Reynolds hit a home run, triple and single, his home with Lyons on base in the seventh, really deciding the contest. The Sox got only eight hits to 14 for the Tigers but made full use of them.

The St. Louis Browns could get only five hits off the offerings of Pete Jablonowski, American Association recruit, and Cleveland won, 3 to 1.

Wildness on the part of McFadden and Morris and fielding errors by O. Miller and Regan enables the Philadelphia Athletics

GIANTS HOW TO BROOKS

In the National league, the New York Giants lost their first game of the season, bowing to Brooklyn, 2 to 4, when Harvey Hendrick doubled with the bases filled in the ninth. The defeat broke Bill Walker's string of 11 straight victories run up during the latter part of 1929 and this season. Travis Jackson of the Giants hit his fifth home run of the year.

Four home runs, two by Gabby Hartnett and the other by Charley Root and Cliff Heathcote, enabled Chicago's Cubs to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-4. Root was touched for 11 hits but tight-

Fire Insurance

a Key to Low Prices

Few have a true appreciation of the far-reaching effect of Stock Fire Insurance in holding down the cost of all merchandises.

No less authority than the Encyclopaedia Britannica contributes a "testimonial" as follows:

"In the United States, as in no other country, has insurance in all its various phases become universally recognized as an essential of commerce and industry. To this fact may be attributed in large measure the achievements of America in business-enterprises.

"Insurance encourages men and corporations to hazard their resources on new developments without fear of loss from natural and unaccountable catastrophes."

At every turn in the processing of materials—storage, manufacturing, transportation, wholesaling, retailing—the protection of Stock Fire Insurance contributes that indispensable element of certainty without loading prices for speculative risk.

By paying a premium which on the average is only a fraction of 1% of the amount insured, business transfers to the Stock Fire Insurance companies what would otherwise be an oppressive-carrying charge against the risk of destruction by fire.

The 239 Stock Fire Insurance companies constituting the National Board of Fire Underwriters have rendered their services at an average price that has constantly declined for more than twenty years.
