BUBB CHOSEN CHAMBER HEAD

Directors Elect Banker To Fill Presidency At Special Meet

E. M. Hubb, cashier of the American National bank and prominent in civic affairs for a number of years, was yesterday afternoon elected president of the Klamath county chamber of commerce at a special meeting of the board of directors held at 4 o'clock. Officers to serve with Mr. Hubb were all re-elected and inable interest is manifested here in colony of beavers established on the North Fork of the Pit river, about 15 miles above this city. Although beavers operated at this point years ago, it was supposed that all of the animals had died or been illegally killed. This colony is within a stone's throw of the state highway running between this place and Lakeview and within eight miles of the Snake Lake valley. This spring the animals have built a dam of considerable proportions, utilizing as its base an old beaver dam which has existed there for years. There is known to be four colonies of beaver in the county but these are located at a considerable distance back in the wild country.

Sarazen Thinks Golf Improving Except for Pros

CHICAGO, May 3. (AP)—Gene Sarazen, former National open golf champion, believes golf conditions have become better in the last few years for everyone except professionals. "One of the principal money making mediums for the pro is his shop," said Sarazen, who is in Chicago playing in a vaudeville act with Johnny Ferrell, another former open titleholder, "but you'd be surprised at the number of golfers who know somebody who is able to get them a price on equipment."

At The Churches

Immanuel Baptist Church, Corner 11th and High street, Rev. A. G. Broyles, pastor, Rev. H. J. Lorenz, assistant pastor and superintendent of the Sunday school. The pastor will preach Sunday morning at 11 a. m. The subject being, "Have We Scriptures for the So-Called Close Communion?" The ordinance of the Lord's Supper at the close of the service. There will be interesting music. The pastor will bring the message from the subject, "The Fatal Blunder of A Shrew Governor," at the 8:00 o'clock hour next Sunday. You should hear these timely subjects. Lively congregational singing and a solo.

The unday school meets at 9:45. This should be the very important part of the child's training. Sunday school and church attendance has kept many a boy and girl straight in the hour of strong temptation. If boys and girls go wrong and the parents have never taken the responsibility of bringing them to the church services, they have no one to blame but themselves. Many a boy is in the penitentiary today because parents failed in this opportunity given them.

The Intermediate and Junior B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:30. The Senior B. Y. P. U. will meet at 7:00 Sunday evening. The seniors so enjoyed the picnic which they had a few weeks ago that they are planning to have another. The teacher training class will start Monday evening at 7:00 and Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 and 3:30. Every one who wishes to join this class may. There are no charges except for the text book.

The Bible study and prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8:00 p. m. The women's society will meet next Thursday at 2:00 p. m. That was a very glowing report which the clerk of the church gave last Sunday evening. "The prospects are as bright as the promises of God." All are welcome to this home-like church to every one of its gatherings.

First Pentecostal Assembly, No. 19 Main St. Sunday services: Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. E. J. Davidson, supt. Morning worship at 11:00. Subject, Judging With Righteous Judgment.

Communion will be given, also our foreign missionary offering taken at this service. Evening evangelistic service at 7:30; Monday night services at 8 o'clock; Tuesday, chart lecture on Revelation. Subject, The Battle of Armageddon; Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 the woman's prayer circle, will meet at the assembly hall for prayer; Thursday, evangelistic service 8:00; Friday, Young People's meeting, testimonies and song service; Saturday afternoon at 2:30 children's meeting. Sister Trooper in charge; Saturday, the Loper Bible study class will meet at the hall at 8:00 p. m. A hearty welcome to all denominations. Rev. J. H. Stevenson, pastor, Phone 55.

First Baptist Church, Eighth and Washington. Next Sunday morning will be Enrollment day in the Sunday school. If you have been planning on starting Sunday school that will make a convenient time in which to begin. Effort is being made to break all former attendance records. Mr. Cecil Brown is the superintendent.

The message will be preached at the 11:00 o'clock hour by S. E. Milam. Those who know of the ministry of this man expect a great help from this spiritual message.

B. Y. P. U. meets at 6:30. The meetings of the past few Sundays have been growing in interest. Mrs. Fred Southard is the director.

The evening worship service will be conducted by the pastor. The theme of the sermon will be "Harvest Men Needed in Klamath Falls." We are all very happy to have Brother Tenove back to direct our music in these services.

Community Church (Congregational) 2027 Wantland Ave., Mills Addition. T. Davis Preston minister. Services for Sunday May 4th, 1930. 10:00 o'clock, Church school and Young People's discussion group; 11:00 o'clock service of worship. Sermon by Mr. Preston—"Religion and Health."

The Community church is seeking to serve the Mills addition in worship and the development of Christian character. The church school is being developed along approved educational lines with Christian character material adapted to the growing needs of children and young people. We suggest that parents bring their children and see what we are doing. We solicit the cooperation of Congregationalists of the city who do not have present church affiliation.

The members of the Ladies Aid of the church are rehearsing a comedy-drama "Abba-San of Old Japan" which will be given in the auditorium of the Mills school in the latter part of the month, date to be announced later.

Sacred Heart Church, 5th and High, Rev. A. F. Looser, Rev. T. Anglin. Sunday masses at 6:30, 8:00 and 10:30, evening devotion at 7:30; week day mass at 7 a. m. Morning first and third Sunday masses at 8:00. All are cordially welcome at our services.

First Church of Christ Scientist, 19th and Washington, Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Sunday service at 11 a. m. Subject "Everlasting Punishment." Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. Free reading and free lending library open afternoon on week days from 2:30 to 4:30 except on Wednesday and holidays, also before and after the Wednesday evening meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend the services and use the reading room.

First Christian Church, Corner Pine and 9th. Sunday school at 9:45. R. H. Dunbar, supt. Morning service at 10:45; Holy Communion followed by sermon. The pastor will use as his sermon subject, "The Saints in Caesar's Household." Special music by the choir.

The Endeavor Societies meet at the usual hour. A special invitation is expected to all young people to attend these services. In the evening the pastor will speak on "Whatever a Man Soweth." A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend these services. Arthur T. Eaton, pastor.

Zion Lutheran Church, 1925 High Street, G. W. Hoffman, pastor. Morning worship begins at 10:30. The topic of the sermon will be "Three Comforting Assertions by Christ." Sunday school and Bible class meet at 9:30. The following meeting will be held during the next week, Ladies Aid, Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 and Mid-week Bible class Wednesday evening at 7:30. Strangers and visitors are invited to attend our services and meetings.

First Methodist Church, Tenth and High streets, Frank L. Wemmet, minister. Tomorrow night at 7:30 Mr. Wemmet delivers the first in a series of Sunday evening patriotic addresses under the general title: "Some Modern Apostles of Righteousness." The subject for Sunday night, May 4th, will be "John Brown—a Prophet of Freedom." This little known and oft misunderstood character is one of the most picturesque and heroic figures in American history. His idealism, courage and martyrdom present great lessons for us who are living today.

At the eleven o'clock worship hour the pastor speaks on the topic: "Wanted, a Religion of Reality." Church school at 9:45. Young People's meeting at 9:30. Meeting for Prayer and Fellowship on Wednesday evening at 7:30. Three great services on "Mother's Day," May 11th. Strangers will find a cordial welcome at all services.

Klamath Temple Church of the Four-Fold Gospel, Corner of Eighth and Oak Sts. An old time revival still continues. Tenish Evangelistic services are to be conducted by the young people of the church, all are welcome. Sunday morning at 9:45 a lively Sunday school is held. Competent teachers and classes for all ages. Mrs. John Lindesty is superintendent. Eleven o'clock morning worship. This will be Communion Service and the pastor has a very special message for all Christians.

The young people have their service at 6:30 in the evening. All young people are invited. The 7:30 evangelistic service will be a singing service conducted by Mrs. Guy DeVries and special musical numbers brought by the orchestra and choir. This will be followed by a powerful sermon by the pastor on "The Two Destinies of Man."

Mid-week services as usual. Cottage prayer meetings continue with great success. Everybody is looking forward with great interest to the city-wide denominational revival campaign to be conducted by Dr. Chas. S. Price in the large Tabernacle at the corner of Seventh and Oak streets. The great opening service Sunday May the eleventh at 2:30 p. m. Pray for the Salvation of the lost of this city. Our motto is—"Klamath for Christ." The pastor Guy DeVries, 739 Oak street, phone 1573-J.

First Presbyterian Church, Sixth and Pine streets, Rev. Drury V. Haight, minister. Mr. George N. Taylor will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening and will bring a message for old and young. Mr. Taylor is in Klamath Falls to meet the graduating class of the high school in the interests of Albany college, the rapidly expanding Presbyterian college of the north-west. His subject in the morning (11:00 a. m.) will be "Let Him Prove It—Impetatives that Your Maker Waits to Add."

A Chalk Talk will be given by Mr. Taylor at the Sunday school hour which every member will wish to see and hear. Parents who wish to put their boys and girls in the school will find excellent classes not only for them but classes that they will greatly enjoy themselves.

At the evening service (7:30 p. m.) there will be two beautiful numbers by a ladies' trio, and Mr. John Houston will lead a song service of stirring hymns. You will enjoy singing them under his leadership. The Intermediate Endeavor meets at 6:00 p. m. and the Senior Endeavor at 6:30. On Monday evening the Kedron Club meets with Mrs. Fred Fletcher at 702 Conger Avenue. A large attendance is expected.

The Stewardship Club meets at 7:30 Monday evening in the church parlors. This group of young men is taking up a rapid survey of the Bible and welcomes all who are interested in this study and discussion.

The 19th chapter of the Book of Acts will be considered at the Church Night gathering, Wednesday at 7:30 in the church parlors. The Women's Friday Morning Bible class meets in the parlors from 9:30 to 11:00, a class all the women very much enjoy.
