Crowds Gather to Hear Evangelist

No blue Mondays at the large wooden tabernacle at the corner of 7th and Oak streets, in the Dr. Chas. J. Price great undenominational evangelistic campaign. Several hundred people gathered last night for the second service of the campaign, and enjoyed a very powerful message brought by the evangelist, and "The Joy of Christianity", taking for his text the words of the great Apostle Paul, "Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say Rejoice".

Dr. Price is a very forceful, but pleasant speaker, and he contends for a gospel which will not make long faced Christians, but joyful followers of Christ. He has had the joy of seeing no less than three hundred thousand people come, and kneel at the altars of prayer for salvation, in his campaigns over the United States, Canada, and Europe in the past eight years.

"Christ and His Crucifixion" is the theme of his message, and everybody can feel free to take an active part in helping to rescue the perishing in Klamath, and surrounding country. Tonight will be a message of very special interest to all, and continuing every night and twice on Sundays.

TENNANT

MRS. O. O. WINGFIELD

—TENNANT, Calif., May 12, (Special)—Mrs. E. H. Tardy complimented her mother, Mrs. W. P. Counts with a surprise birthday party Monday afternoon, May 11th at Mrs. Tardy's home on A st. We are not going to give the lady's age away, but will say that she was born shortly after the 15th president of the United States was inaugurated. Twelve guests were present to help Mrs. Counts enjoy her birthday. Contacts were the diversion of the afternoon, in the picture puzzle contest, Mrs. Dale Beeson won the prize, in the news paper story contest the prize was awarded to Mrs. C. R. Renfro and in the Jingle contest Mrs. H. D. Overman was the winner. Mrs. Tardy assisted by Mrs. Clay Parker served refreshments of cake, ice cream and coffee at small tables. At Mrs. Counts table two old time Southern Oregon friends, Mrs. C. W. Murphy and Mrs. O. O. Wingfield and the out of town guest, Mrs. H. D. Overman were seated. Mrs. Counts was presented with a lovely bouquet of snap dragons, stocks and carnations, also the birthday cake with one row of lighted candles around the outer edge. Those who enjoyed this birthday party were, Mrs. W. P. Counts the honor guest, Mrs. H. D. Overman of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. H. D. Overman of Los Angeles, Calif. is enjoying a visit with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Henry and her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Renfro.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McMichael and O. O. Wingfield were business visitors at Klamath Falls, Ore., Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton, son James and grand daughter Marna, who have lived at this camp for a number of years, left Thursday by auto for Everett, Wash. where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. King and two small boys left Sunday to make their home at Klamath Falls, Ore. Mr. King's work being nearer Klamath Falls he could be at home with his family more.

Mr. C. W. Murphy, camp superintendent, C. A. Kirstein and Jerry Murphy left Friday morning by auto for Klamath Falls, Ore., to attend the lumberman's conference which was in session Friday and Saturday.

Clackamas Line to Construct Feeder
 SALEM, Ore., May 13. (AP)—Information has reached the state public service commission that the Interstate commerce commission has granted the Clackamas Eastern railroad a certificate of convenience and necessity authorizing it to extend its line from Clackamas station four miles southeasterly along the Clackamas river. At Clackamas station it will connect with the main line of the Southern Pacific. The Clackamas Eastern was formerly the Portland Southern.

Sand Storm Hits Steamship at Sea
 PORTLAND, Ore., May 13. (AP)—A heavy volcanic sand storm, thought to have been blown down from some volcano in the Aleutian Islands, rained dry sand, two hours, on decks of the United States Line steamship Kautsky, 1125 miles from the mouth of the Columbia river enroute to Portland from Yakohama, leaving one-fourth inch of sand on her decks, the vessel radioed the Mackay Radio and Telegraph company Portland office today.

CROSS AFRICA IN TAXI
 KIMBERLEY, E. A.—Across Africa in a taxi promises to provide many thrills for 60-year-old Mrs. Douthirt, who recently left Windhoek in Southwest Africa on such a trip. She drove to the borders of Angola, where she hired a Portuguese car and started off across country bound for Morocco. Much of the distance traveled will be through unexplored regions where trails will have to be cut.
