

NEWS IN BRIEF

Character Close-Ups

Mrs. C. B. Eberhard Here—
Mrs. C. B. Eberhard, wife of Senator Eberhard, arrived in Klamath Falls today and is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schupp, while she is here attending the P. E. O. convention which convened here today. Mrs. Eberhard is from La Grando, Calif., where she has been visiting her son, who is a student at Stanford university.

Take Part in Play—
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dean and little daughter, Dorothy and La Vaughn and son, Junior, motored to Grants Pass over the week end and visited friends. Dorothy and La Vaughn Dean both take part in the play, "Abba San of Old Japan", which is to be presented Friday, May 23rd, by the Congregational Community Circle of Mills addition. A large attendance is expected to attend the play.

Add Names to Cast—
Due to an oversight on the part of the committee, the following names did not appear in the cast of the play "Abba San of Old Japan" recently published in the Klamath News and Evening Herald. Mrs. C. M. Reynolds takes the part of O. N. O., maid of all work; Mrs. L. H. Avery, as Madam Masaro, the director; Madam Jones and Aikabelle Avery, porters.

Mrs. Martin to Entertain—
Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin will preside as hostess at the next meeting of the Aloha Past Matrons club which will be held at her home on Fourth and Washington streets at 1:30 p. m., Friday, May 23rd. Mrs. H. E. Mommery will be assistant hostess. This is the final meeting of the social season.

Meeting Announced—
The Harmony circle of the First Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. N. T. McCoy, 1940 Portland, on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, according to an announcement made this morning. All members are urged to attend the gathering.

Copco Men Here—
R. S. Daniels and S. M. Bulfinch, representing the Copco Co. made a short business trip to Klamath Falls from Medford.

Road Contractor Here—
F. J. Kernan, road contractor from Reedsport, Oregon, made a business and pleasure trip to Klamath Falls.

P. E. O. Ladies Arrive—
Mrs. Max Cunniff, Redmond, Mrs. L. M. Bechtel, Prineville, Mrs. Gust Pollard, Springfield, Mrs. Grace Burnett, Eugene, Mrs. J. H. Stojil, Eugene, Mrs. Fred J. Clark, Eugene, and Mrs. Ivan C. Heers, Woodburn, are registered at the Valley Hotel. They are in Klamath Falls to attend the P. E. O. convention here.

Final Card Party—
The final afternoon of play of the series of six card parties by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Eagles will be held on Friday afternoon, May 23, at the lodge rooms on Ninth and Walnut. Grand prizes will be awarded at this time. The public is cordially invited to attend these affairs.

Dance Plans Continue—
Plans for the hard times dance which is to be given by members of the Royal Neighbors organization on Friday evening at the Moose hall, are continuing under the guidance of the committee appointed to take charge. Music will be furnished by Jack Bowring and his orchestra.

Making Business Tour—
Frank Vannice, of the Golden Rule Stores, with headquarters in Grants Pass, is spending this week with his brother, Ed Vannice, of this city. The Vannice brothers spent Monday in Chiloquin, and will motor to Alturas Wednesday to look after branch stores in those towns.

Will Hold Dance—
The Royal Neighbors will hold a "Hard Times" dance at the Moose Hall Friday, May 23. All Royal Neighbors not in costume will be fined 10 cents. Jack Bowring's orchestra will furnish the music. Cake and coffee will be served.

Arrives From Medford—
E. A. Littrell, business man from Medford spent some time in Klamath Falls. He was a guest of the Valley Hotel while in the city.

Portland Registrants at Valley—
P. H. Dunn, J. C. Tolman, Leonard Webber, Mr. and Mrs. L. Larson and J. W. Hanners were among those who are registered at the Valley Hotel from Portland, Ore.

Special Meeting—
A special meeting of the Lionesses club is called for Thursday at 8:15 p. m. at the home of Mrs. T. R. Gillenwaters on Roseway drive. Mrs. Flock, president, urges all members to attend.

Friendship Club to Meet—
All members of the Friendship club are notified of the meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Bidden, 642 South Riverside, on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

License Issued—
A marriage license was issued Saturday by the county clerk of Jackson county, Medford, to Hazel Crawford, 25, and Fred Hogan, 31, both of Klamath Falls.

Guests at Pelican—
Mr. and Mrs. Russ Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Rains, all of San Diego, Calif., were guests at the Pelican Hotel last night.

Granted Marriage License—
Oren O. Wyman, 33, and Ruth Haynes, 21, were granted a marriage license this morning in the county clerk's office.

Will Visit South—
George Blass, clerk at the Arcade Hotel, and his sister, Mrs. Gus Lampropoulos and children will leave this evening for Sacramento, where they will visit with relatives. They plan to be gone about three weeks and will spend some time in San Francisco and other California cities, as well.

Registrants at Arcade—
Mrs. N. Newton, San Francisco, Mrs. F. K. Blackador, Portland, L. A. Lewis, Medford, George Karslon, Sacramento, Fred D. Adams, Medford, and Marion Boyles, Dunsmuir, were among those registered at the Arcade Hotel yesterday.

Fairview Holds Exhibit—
At Fairview school on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, an exhibit of school work will be shown, at the same time the P. T. A. will hold its last meeting of the year, with election of officers. Special music will be furnished by the eighth grade.

Receive Announcement—
Announcements have been received of the wedding of Ray Artadi Talbot, who is well known in Klamath county, to Elena Celayeta. The wedding was solemnized in Stockton, Calif., on May 17.

Stage Official Here—
R. W. Lemen, president of the Oregon Stages, was in Klamath Falls last night en route to Portland. Mr. Lemen visited in the city and looked over the new stage terminal here.

Receives Word of Death—
W. W. McNeally received word Monday of the sudden death of his mother. Mr. and Mrs. McNeally left this morning for Patterson, Washington, where they will attend the last rites.

Condition Unchanged—
The condition of Mrs. Dolly Virgil, who suffered a paralytic stroke last Thursday, remains unchanged, according to reports from her home.

Insurance Man Visits—
H. J. McCracken, of the Standard Accident Insurance company, Portland Oregon, is spending several days in Klamath Falls on business.

Transferred From Riverside—
Roy H. Grumbles, former clerk at Riverside, Calif., has been transferred to the Klamath Falls postoffice to take the place of Glen Fouch, with whom he transferred.

Arrive From Spokane—
Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Payne, of Spokane, Washington, are spending a few days in Klamath Falls. They are guests of the Arcade Hotel.

Business Visitor Here—
Mary C. Farrell, owner of the building in which the Polly Shop was formerly located, is making a business visit to Klamath Falls.

KLAMATH VISITOR
W. B. Hinkle, appraiser for the Federal Land Bank of Spokane, Wash., is in the city on a business visit. He arrived Sunday and will leave Wednesday noon by way of Medford for Portland. He has visited several pieces of property in the county on which the bank has loans.

EARNINGS FALL LOFF
NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—The Union Pacific railroad today reported April net operating income of $1,262,638 against $1,394,513 in April last year.

HILDEBRAND

KATHER MICHAEL

KATHER MICHAEL
HILDEBRAND, May 20, (Special to the Herald)—Eighth grade graduation exercises were held Thursday night at the Grange hall. The graduates were: Helen Woolk, Audrey Lovelady, Helen Bodnar, Joe Vieira, Lee Casey, Earnest Flackus, Emmanuel Pool and Walter Pool. Helen Woolk read the "Class History". Helen Bodnar read the "Class Prophecy" and Walter Pool read the "Class Will".

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sexton of Klamath Falls attended the 8th grade graduation exercises. Mr. Sexton presented the Cooking club with one to five year pins. The ones receiving pins were: Helen Bodnar, Anna Bodnar, Audrey Lovelady, Maggie Lovelady, Edith Flackus, Walter Pool, Lucile Pool, Norman Biehn, Martin Biehn, Helen Woolk, Beale Harzle, Irwin Beck and Elmer Woolk.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Welch of Dairy, were dinner guests at the Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Michael home Sunday.

Ross Colahan and Miss Doris Watson were united in marriage Saturday, May 16th, at Klamath Falls. Mr. Colahan is a lumberman at Hildebrand school. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoefler of Dairy and Karl Zantinger of Klamath Falls were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ritter Sunday.

Mrs. E. P. Pool and family were visitors in Bonanza, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leslie and Everett Duncan, employees on the Bruce Dennis ranch in Yonka valley, left for their homes in Waila county Monday.

Mr. Howa, of the Standard Oil company of Klamath Falls, transacted business in our valley Thursday.

E. H. Peterson, J. Evans, A. R. Grey of Eugene and Bruce Dennis of Klamath Falls were business visitors at the Joe Smith home Friday.

Victor Holm was a visitor in Klamath Falls from his home in Hildebrand, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoefler of Dairy and Karl Zantinger of Klamath Falls were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ritter Sunday.

Mrs. E. P. Pool and family were visitors in Bonanza, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leslie and Everett Duncan, employees on the Bruce Dennis ranch in Yonka valley, left for their homes in Waila county Monday.

Mr. Howa, of the Standard Oil company of Klamath Falls, transacted business in our valley Thursday.

E. H. Peterson, J. Evans, A. R. Grey of Eugene and Bruce Dennis of Klamath Falls were business visitors at the Joe Smith home Friday.

Victor Holm was a visitor in Klamath Falls from his home in Hildebrand, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoefler of Dairy and Karl Zantinger of Klamath Falls were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ritter Sunday.

Mrs. E. P. Pool and family were visitors in Bonanza, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leslie and Everett Duncan, employees on the Bruce Dennis ranch in Yonka valley, left for their homes in Waila county Monday.

Mr. Howa, of the Standard Oil company of Klamath Falls, transacted business in our valley Thursday.

E. H. Peterson, J. Evans, A. R. Grey of Eugene and Bruce Dennis of Klamath Falls were business visitors at the Joe Smith home Friday.

Victor Holm was a visitor in Klamath Falls from his home in Hildebrand, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoefler of Dairy and Karl Zantinger of

JUST ARRIVED

Two Important Groups of Dresses—One Important Group of Coats

IDRESSIES

Of Chiffon and Crepe
First Time Shown
67 Summer Styles

Printed chiffons and printed crepes in soft blending colors. Flare skirts, short sleeves, with or without cape collars—novel trimmings. From the hemline to the collar they're different, smart, stylish and accepted models for this season's wear.

This is positively the first showing of these summery frocks and you'll be delighted with seeing just how chic dresses can be for the two popular prices quoted below.

$16.⁵⁰

Sizes 14 to 40

These two colorful groups simplifies the dress problem for summer wear. They include silk suits, sport dresses, afternoon and evening dresses, jacket dresses, etc.

Fashioned on newest lines, princess and normal waistline effects, circular and long skirts with low placed fullness, smart trimming details and beautiful fabrics.

The sales ladies in the ready-to-wear department are so enthused about these new arrivals that they urge every woman to see them at once—it's a pleasure to show them and we know you'll enjoy it too. Come in today for they are all on display.

Summer Dresses with CAPES
FLARES
TUCKS
PLEATS

New Sleeve BOLORES
Effects TIERES
See Them PEPLUMS

$19.⁵⁰

Second Floor

Golden Rule Stores
ECONOMISTS IN DISTRIBUTION THE NAME OUR POLICY

These outstanding coats and dresses are but a few hours old—coming to the Golden Rule direct from the manufacturer by fast express. We're extremely proud of this collection of summer apparel and are anxious to show it—Get the first glimpse of what's new by seeing them today.

COATS

50
New Models

ALL WOOL COATS
TWEED COATS
SPORT COATS

WITH—Removable
Cape Collars.

WITH—Plain Tailored Collars.

WITH—
Flare Skirts—
Belts—Yoke Depth
Silk lined.

Sizes 14 to 42.

THE VERY SMARTEST AND FINEST EVER DISPLAYED FOR $9.85. Every important style feature is included in each coat—every coat is perfectly tailored—every coat is all wool—and this entire group of coats cannot be compared with others selling for as low a price. Make a special effort to see them today.

$9.⁸⁵

Second Floor

Golden Rule Stores
ECONOMISTS IN DISTRIBUTION THE NAME OUR POLICY

We Extend to All Members and Delegates of

P. E. O.

The Glad Hand of Friendship, and May Your Convention be An Enjoyable Event.

Please feel free to ask any of our employees for information or services that will add to the joy of your visit here or better acquaint you with Klamath Falls. It's a pleasure to have you among us.

Golden Rule Stores
ECONOMISTS IN DISTRIBUTION THE NAME OUR POLICY