

IN THE REALM OF SPORTS

JONES DROPS CYRIL TOLLEY IN 4TH ROUND

Ten Thousand Excited Scots See Battle Of Champions

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 28. (AP)—Bobby Jones eliminated Cyril Tolley, defending champion in the fourth round of the British amateur golf championship, one up, in 19 holes.

Ten thousand madly excited Scots and all the Americans who could get here from London and other centers saw the spectacular finish of the match of the champions.

All St. Andrews was packed about the home green and hanging from windows of the hotels and buildings nearby. After the 17th was halved with birdie fours and the home hole developed a pair of par fours, the crowd followed Jones and Tolley across the Swilcan Burn to the 19th.

Tolley teed off.

At the extra hole Tolley was stymied and barely missed when he attempted to jump Jones' ball with a mashie. Jones holed a three foot putt for a par four and the match was over.

With modal scores of 75 each, the two players, who are old friends, battled through every hole and every shot to the finish. They were never more than one hole apart and from the 11th through the 16th they exchanged holes, with not one halved.

Flagman Run Down

It required five minutes to clear the fairway in front of the royal and ancient club so that they could hit their tee shots on the extra hole. Flagmen frantically waved the galloping crowd back and were run down for their efforts.

With the fairway lined solidly from tee to green and people blackening every knoll and hummock for vantage points the American star and his big British opponent drove almost level, nearly 300 yards.

Jones was outdriven by the long hitting Tolley on the most of the holes on the second nine but he offset Tolley's superior length from the tee by his putting.

Roland MacKenzie, Wilmington, Del., was eliminated by Kenneth Grieg, St. Andrews, four up and three to play in the fourth round. The defeat of MacKenzie marked the first Walker Cup team casualty of the day and third of the week. Dr. O. F. Willing and Donald K. Moe losing yesterday.

Outmet

Francis Outmet, Boston, won his second match of the day and advanced to the fifth round when he stopped J. Lyndon Jones, Cardiff, seven up and six to play.

Harrisau R. Johnston, St. Paul, American amateur champion, joined Jones, Volgt. Von Elm and Outmet in the fifth round by defeating Reginald Straker, Walton Heath, three up and two to play.

Jones, Von Elm To Compete

CONQUEROR OF BOBBY JONES IN THE 1926 NATIONAL AMATEUR, IS A YANKEE THREAT IN THE BRITISH AMATEUR

By AL DEMAREE (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

The British Amateur golf tournament is now in session and all the greatest simon-pures of Great Britain and America are sharp-shooting for the coveted honor. Outside of the only Bobby Jones, George Von Elm is looked upon as the greatest threat among the American invaders.

The former Little Salt Lake City caddy has a sense of humor as well as a sound golf game.

During the Walker Cup matches two years ago, he told me a story about a friend of his who was a rather indifferent player. His friend mentioned that he had been playing on a certain nine-hole course.

"What's it like?" Von Elm asked.

"It might have been worse," he said.

"What do you mean, it might have been worse?"

"Oh, it's a nine-hole course," his friend answered quietly. "It might have been eighteen!"

Dr. Willing, another great American amateur, told me about a hole in one he once made.

"I remember it only too well," said the good doctor. "For I was so elated I gave the caddy-master a bottle of whiskey, and it wasn't till several days later I found out the caddy had kicked my ball in!"

SENATORS HOLD LEAD BY WORK OF SAM JONES

Pitcher Holds Yanks To Four Hits, Three Going to Babe

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer

Two Major league baseball teams, the St. Louis Cardinals and Washington Senators, are doing their best to break away from the pack of contenders in the close Major league races. But so far their efforts have resulted only in a pair of fine winning streaks and rather precarious holds on first place for the present, holding a margin of four games over the Philadelphia Athletics. However, the Senators cannot take many chances and still remain ahead. To get to its present position, Washington has had to win seven games in a row and continue an almost unbroken streak through 20 contests. The Senators have won eleven out of their last 17 games and 16 out of 20.

Pals at Bedside

Cliff Heathcote, Hazen Cuyler and Riggs Stephenson, cub outfielders, were at Carlson's bedside when he died. Mrs. Carlson was at her home in Rockford, Ill., the city where Carlson was born. Besides the widow, a three-year-old child survives.

Carlson has not been in robust health for many months, although at the spring training camp on Catalina Island he was reported as being in better form than for years. He was a player-who was conscientious in the best possible physical condition, was well depended upon by Manager Joe McCarthy to win a majority of the games he pitched this year.

Hal Carlson, Valuable Hurler Chicago Cubs, Dies Suddenly

Chicago Cubs, Dies Suddenly

CHICAGO, May 28. (AP)—Hal Carlson, one of only two Chicago Cubs pitchers with a winning percentage for this season, died suddenly in his hotel room early today. He was 36 years old and married.

Dr. John F. Davis, physician of the baseball club, was called at 3 o'clock this morning when Carlson complained of severe stomach pains. Death occurred 35 minutes later as plans were being made to move him to a hospital.

Hard fight. Hornsby, Bell, Bush and Stephenson are four regulars whose talents have been denied the club most of the year by illness and injury.

Was "Heady" Pitcher

Carlson was best known as a "heady" baseball pitcher. He did not possess great speed, but used a curve ball and change of pace with success.

Carlson was born in Rockford, May 17, 1894. He served in France during the world war as a machine gunner and was discharged with the rank of sergeant. He had been gassed but escaped unscathed.

He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Eva Nelson, of Altoona, Ill. They were married Oct. 28, 1924 and have one child, Betty Elaine. Mrs. Carlson is in a maternity hospital now and has not been told of her husband's death.

The African gnu appears to be made up of odds and ends. Its head resembles that of a buffalo, while it has a tail like a horse, its limbs and hoofs are those of the antelope, to which family the gnu really belongs.

THREE TEAMS BUNCHED FOR FIRST PLACE

Sacs, Oaks and Angels Continue in Half Game Position

By The Associated Press

Conat league ball fans can distinguish the leaders and the tall-enders a little more easily as a result of yesterday's games opening the week's series, but among the first few team's one's own preference is still about the only guide. The Sacs, the Angels, and the Oaks, all winners in the day's contest, remain bunched within a half a game in the standings. The Soals, who are hard pressed to stay in the first division, ran into somewhat of a freak game and fared poorly. The San Francisco boys collected eighteen hits off pitcher Frank Shellenback, of the Stars, and still lost to Hollywood, 11 to 6.

The Stars took Jacobs, Montgomery, Perry, and McDouglas for one less hit than the victims got but made better use of them. Jacobs went out after the first inning with the score 4 to 0 in favor of Hollywood. Mickey Heath accounted for four of the winner's tallies with two home runs.

The Senators downed the Indians, 3 to 7, only by virtue of a five run rally in the sixth inning, at the expense of pitcher Hubbell, to hold their precious three-point percentage lead. Home runs were made by Rohwer and Wirts of the winners.

Oaks Clout Circuit

Johnny Vergos and Mellana clouted four baggers for the Acorns as another second division team was pushed farther down at Portland by a 6 to 3 score. The Beavers started with a lead, and collected two doubles, a single, and two walks off Craghead in the seventh inning when they could have cleaned up, but failed. Walters threw for Portland.

The Missions opened their series with Los Angeles by watching Bill Peters, Angel southpaw, throw and hit to win his first start of the season, 10 to 12. Peters held the Reds well in check and banded out a triple and two doubles in four times at bat.

Flying fish usually take to the air when being pursued by enemies in the water. They do not flap their wings but are able to glide for long distances, often sailing over the heads of boatmen.

WE WELD EFFICIENTLY

When any part of your machinery breaks send it to us or send for us and we will weld it by our electrical process and guarantee to make it as good as new. When metal can be welded as well as we weld there is no need to send to the factory for a new part. We can save you both time and money and avoid expensive plant shut-downs.

WELDED WELL

SEWING MACHINES

At the extra hole Tolley was stymied and barely missed when he attempted to jump Jones' ball with a mashie. Jones holed a three foot putt for a par four and the match was over.

With modal scores of 75 each, the two players, who are old friends, battled through every hole and every shot to the finish. They were never more than one hole apart and from the 11th through the 16th they exchanged holes, with not one halved.

Flagman Run Down

It required five minutes to clear the fairway in front of the royal and ancient club so that they could hit their tee shots on the extra hole. Flagmen frantically waved the galloping crowd back and were run down for their efforts.

With the fairway lined solidly from tee to green and people blackening every knoll and hummock for vantage points the American star and his big British opponent drove almost level, nearly 300 yards.

Jones was outdriven by the long hitting Tolley on the most of the holes on the second nine but he offset Tolley's superior length from the tee by his putting.

Roland MacKenzie, Wilmington, Del., was eliminated by Kenneth Grieg, St. Andrews, four up and three to play in the fourth round. The defeat of MacKenzie marked the first Walker Cup team casualty of the day and third of the week. Dr. O. F. Willing and Donald K. Moe losing yesterday.

Phyllis Mudford Forces Mrs. Moody To Play Her Best

AUTUIL, France, May 28. (AP)—America's first and second ranking woman tennis players, Helen Wills Moody and Phyllis Jacobs, won their matches in straight sets in the French championships today but Mrs. Moody was forced to show her best tennis against her young English adversary, Phyllis Mudford.

Although beaten by scores of 6-2, 6-4, the youthful player whose advent in British feminine tennis circles has caused her to be compared with Sarah Palfrey in the United States, showed herself well able to trade drives with the champion and also to solve her powerful service. Miss Jacobs won somewhat more easily from Miss Anna Payot, Swiss champion, at 6-0, 6-2.

Bill Tilden and his young German partner, Cecilie Aussem, won the mixed doubles title by defeating the defending champions, Henri Cochet of France and Mrs. Eileen Bennett, Whitehingsall of England in the final at 6-4, 6-4.

Beat Yankees

The Senators held their place yesterday by beating the New York Yankees, 7 to 2. Sad Sam Jones was the whole show. He held the Yanks to four hits, three of them going to Babe Ruth, pitched his fifth complete game of the year and won his sixth successive victory. His teammates backed him to the extent of 14 hits.

The Cardinal string of victories was broken for the second time in 19 games yesterday and St. Louis lost a fine chance to get a safer lead over the Brooklyn Robins. But the St. Louis hitters were not much more effective against Larry French, former Portland Coast leaguer, than the Robins were against Bill Walker and the two leaders of the National league went down in defeat, remaining only a half game apart. St. Louis lost to Pittsburgh, 3 to 1, and Brooklyn to the New York Giants, 3 to 1. French started Pittsburgh off to a good lead by hitting a triple with the bases full in the second inning then scoring the fourth run.

Giants Pull Victory

Brooklyn did not get started against Walker's pitching until the eighth inning, and that time the Giants had gained a three run lead, which was just enough. The Robins put the tying runs on base in the ninth inning only to have Walker end the game by striking out the great Babe Herman.

The two other National league games scheduled for yesterday were halted by rain.

The Philadelphia Athletics won their third game in a row and gave the Boston Red Sox its tenth successive defeat by a 7 to 5 score.

The third place Cleveland Indians did even better against Chicago, sending the White Sox down to sixth place by sweeping their second double header in two days, 3 to 2 and 9 to 8. Ted Lyons, the fourth Chicago pitcher, was the real second game loser. He went in for the ninth inning and was charged with the defeat after having won six games in succession.

Detroit, supplanting Chicago in fifth place, went to even greater limits of slugging for a 16 to 11 victory over the St. Louis Browns. As nine pitchers worked for the two teams, Detroit made 21 hits, three of them homers, and the Browns 13.

Staters Swamp Oregon

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 28. (AP)—Brown, Oregon state pitcher, held the University of Oregon baseball team to one lone tally while the Staters ran up a total of 10 here yesterday. The Orangemen have won both games in the state championship series. Two more games are scheduled for this week. The score:

RED BALL STAGE LINE

Starting April 10th. Two Stages Daily for Lakeview, Oregon

Leave K. F. 8:30 a. m. Leave K. F. 2:00 p. m.

Office 6th & Main

PHONE 999

Natural Relief from Constipation

AGAREX $1.00 ONE PINT

Agarex lubricates the bowels and softens the hardened contents. The action is purely mechanical. That's because Agarex is non-absorbent and non-irritant. It's pleasant-tasting and is not fattening or gripping. With or without phenolphthalein. Sold only at Rexall stores.

WEAK DRUG STORE

SWIMMING

Mineral Hot Springs Natatorium

Water changed Wednesday, Friday and Sunday nights.

Paul H. Gravelle Instructor.

Tub, Shower and Steam Baths.

Phone 1179

503 Spring St.

Jimmy Slattery And Pete Latzo Forfeit Purse

BOSTON, May 28. (AP)—The scutcheon of Jimmy Slattery of Buffalo, recently crowned lightweight champion by the New York boxing commission, today contained the blot of a "no contest" decision.

Slattery met Pete Latzo, of Scranton, Pa., former welterweight titlist, in the Boston Garden last night in a bout under the auspices of a Boston American Legion post. The dancing tactics of the New York commission's champion, plus Latzo's hobbling style, irritated the crowd of 4,600 from the start of the first round until Referee John Brassil halted the match at the end of the seventh.

Most of those at the ringside agreed that both boxers were trying but all of the experts admitted that their unusual styles could provide nothing but a dull and tiresome contest.

Both boxers were warned twice by the referee that they would have to improve or the bout would be stopped.

During the rest periods many in the crowd started to chant "throw them out" and this cry soon came from all parts of the garden.

Brassil finally heeded the cry, not only stopping the bout, but also ordering the boxers' purses, $6,000 for Slattery and $5,000 for Latzo, forfeited.

Realtors to Pay Klamath a Visit

Word received here today by C. S. Montelms, president of the Klamath Realty Board, stated that W. A. Irwin, president of the Pacific Northwest Real Estate association, and Thomas G. Fay, executive secretary of the association, together with a representative gathering of real estate men from the northwest and from Portland, would include Klamath Falls in their Oregon tour.

Their schedule calls for a dinner meeting in Klamath Falls on Thursday, June 5, and officials of the local realty board are busy making arrangements for a banquet and program to entertain the visitors.

Mom'n Pop

YOU KNOW WHAT POP SAID THAT YOU WERE TO TAKE FINNEGAN'S DOG BACK AND APOLOGIZE. TO BOOT

WHEN ANY BOYS AT APOLOGIZING TO FINNEGAN'S, AFTER SCUBBING THE PAINT OFF THEIR DOGS, CHICK GETS A BRIGHT IDEA OF USING THE POLISHED UP TO PROMOTE HIS OWN INTERESTS

I'M NOT GOIN' TO 'POLOGIZE! JUST BECAUSE YOU GURREL IS WATCHIN' YOU THINK YOU CAN ACT SMART !!

THAT BOMEQ NEXT DOOR IS HAVING A TOUGH TIME MAKING HIS KID SISTER CLEAN THE PAINT OFF FLUFFY

A Big Idea

THAT BOMEQ NEXT DOOR IS HAVING A TOUGH TIME MAKING HIS KID SISTER CLEAN THE PAINT OFF FLUFFY

By Gowan

ALL RIGHT! ALL RIGHT! STOP YOUR SQUAWKING! I'LL TAKE THE DOG OVER AND APOLOGIZE FOR YOU. HERE'S A NICKEL. NOW BEAT IT!

League Standings

COAST:	W.	L.	Pct.
Sacramento	28	20	.583
Oakland	29	21	.580
Los Angeles	27	23	.543
San Francisco	26	24	.520
Missions	25	24	.510
Hollywood	24	25	.490
Seattle	21	29	.420
Portland	16	32	.337

NATIONAL:	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Louis	23	14	.622
Brooklyn	22	14	.611
Pittsburgh	19	16	.543
Chicago	19	19	.500
New York	17	18	.486
Boston	14	18	.438
Cincinnati	14	21	.400
Philadelphia	11	19	.367

AMERICAN:	W.	L.	Pct.
Washington	27	10	.730
Philadelphia	23	14	.622
Cleveland	22	16	.579
New York	18	17	.514
Detroit	16	23	.421
Chicago	14	21	.400
St. Louis	12	23	.347
Boston	10	24	.293

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE SCORES

By The Associated Press

At Portland

Oakland	6	11	1
Portland	5	9	2

Craghead and Lombardi; Walters and Woodall.

At Los Angeles

Missions	2	8	1
Los Angeles	10	15	0

Nelson, Knott and Hoffman; Peters and Warren.

At Seattle

Sacramento	8	15	2
Seattle	6	14	2

Plynn and Wirts; Reuther and Borraani.

At San Francisco

Hollywood	11	17	0
San Francisco	6	18	2

Shellenback and Barsier; Jacobs, Montgomery and Penabsky.