

NEWS IN BRIEF

Character Close-Ups

Tickets on Sale

Sale of reserved seats to "Aunt Lucia," the play being sponsored by the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's club, was started this morning. The play will be given at the Klamath Union high school auditorium on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. It was stated that all the first floor and the first three rows in the balcony will be reserved for the night. Tickets are now on sale at Magill's drug store.

To Serve Luncheon

The Ladies Aid of the First Methodist church will serve a plate luncheon on Wednesday, June 4. It was announced this morning. The hours are to be from 12 until 1:30 for the convenience of the business and working people of the city. A fee charge will be made for the dinner. The general public is invited to attend. Benefits derived from the luncheon will be used toward paying for the new church.

Headquarters at Park

From now on until the close of the season late next fall, the Crater Lake National Park headquarters offices will be located at government camp in the park. The office equipment was moved from the federal building in Medford yesterday to the park headquarters.

Enjoying Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schnur and Paul, Jr., left today for Spokane, Wash., where they will spend the next two weeks visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Schnur is connected with the Locke Motor company of this city.

Returning to School

Emmett Possum, Eldon Strom, George Sprague and David Totten, all students at the University of Oregon, who have spent several days here this week, returned today to Eugene to resume their school work.

Rev. Luvans Here

Rev. P. J. Luvans of Eugene will be here Sunday morning and conduct services. All Lutherans are invited to attend and hear him talk. Services will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal church, 8th and Jefferson streets.

R. Stein in Juarez

Word was received today from Remy Stein, ticket agent at the S. P. offices, that he had arrived in Juarez, Mexico. Mr. Stein is on his way to Louisiana where he was recently called by the illness of his grandfather.

Visiting at Roseburg

Mrs. Sidney Abbott and two children left Thursday for Roseburg to visit over the week end. She was joined at Medford by her sister, Mrs. Grant Nelson and two children.

Returned to Medford

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Boyle returned last evening to their home at Medford. While here they attended funeral services for the late James Grimes, which were held yesterday.

Malin Visitor

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, of Malin, were visitors in this city yesterday.

Plan to Attend Picnic

Many Klamath residents are leaving tomorrow morning for Medford where they plan to attend the annual Montana state picnic which will be held at Ever-Shady park. Close to 300 Montanans are expected to attend. Mrs. Cummings has charge of the Montanans in Klamath Falls.

Attended Last Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Orr of Medford, spent Friday in Klamath Falls, attending the funeral services of the late James Grimes. Mrs. Orr is a sister of the deceased. Joe Grimes of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Estes of Dunsmuir, were other relatives of the late Mr. Grimes who attended the last rites yesterday.

Edith Gore Left

Miss Edith Gore of the city grade schools' teaching staff, left Thursday evening to spend Memorial day and the week end with relatives in Medford. Mrs. Gore will spend her summer vacation at Lake Tahoe.

Mrs. Lee Returned

Mrs. James Lee returned recently from Seattle where she spent a few days visiting friends and visiting with her niece who had just returned to the United States after spending the past two years in the Orient.

Returning to Klamath

Ross Bates, who has been at Hollywood, Calif., for the past six weeks visiting with his brother, Bert C. Bates, will return home this evening to continue his visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Bates at the Marion apartments.

Spent Several Days Here

A. A. Mehaffey of Oakland, Calif., and L. W. Mehaffey of Antioch, Calif., who spent several days the first of the week visiting in Klamath Falls, returned to their homes Thursday morning.

Back from Portland

Mrs. J. H. Carter and Mrs. B. A. Oldenburg returned to Klamath Falls yesterday from a three day's business and pleasure trip to Portland.

Spending Sunday Here

Miss Winifred Walker, of Medford, with a party of friends is motoring to this city this afternoon, and will spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anders.

Initiation Postponed

Because of illness in the degree staff of the Rebekah Lodge, initiation will not be held on Thursday evening, June 5th, as previously announced.

Suffering from Accident

Charlotte Trimble is very ill at her home on North Fourth street, suffering from several fractured ribs, and an attack of influenza.

Convalescing from Illness

Mrs. W. Paul Johnson, who has been suffering from an attack of influenza for the past week, is recuperating at her home at 734 Walnut.

Mr. Grigsby Ill

B. S. Grigsby, well known pioneer of Klamath Falls, is seriously ill at his home on South Eighth street.

Ashland Visitors

Mrs. W. F. Arant and Mrs. J. Arant, of Ashland, were visitors in Klamath Falls Friday.

Spent Memorial Day

M. H. Wampler and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wampler, of Odesa, spent Memorial Day in this city.

Returning Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Sanford will return Sunday from a three day business and pleasure trip to Bend and vicinity. Mr. Sanford is manager of the Miller-Sanford Tractor company.

Convalescing from Illness

Miss Helen Gobelbecher, a sister of Dr. E. Dietzsch, is convalescing from a major operation at the Dietzsch home. Miss Gobelbecher is not able to receive visitors.

Move into New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kramer have moved into their attractive new home in the Hot Springs addition. The new Kramer residence has recently been completed.

Visiting Friends Here

Mrs. D. N. Pomroy of Alturas, who will be remembered as Edna Norrie formerly of Ft. Klamath, is spending a few days in the city visiting with relatives and friends, before going to Jacksonville to spend some time with her mother. Mrs. Pomroy is accompanied by her two children.

California Visitors

Mrs. L. B. Thomas and daughter Edith Belle, of Denair, Calif., are spending a few days in this city visiting with friends. Mrs. Thomas and her daughter are the guests of Mrs. Docia Norris, and Miss Ida B. Momyer before going on to Lakeview to visit with Mrs. Thomas' parents.

Announce Birth of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Biehn, of Chiloquin, announce the birth of a seven pound daughter at Hillside Hospital, on Friday.

Submit to Operation

Mrs. W. A. Leonard submitted to a minor operation at Hillside Hospital early this week. She is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Indians Injured

Mr. and Mrs. Shakespeare Hicks, of the Klamath Indian Reservation, were slightly bruised and injured in an automobile smashup Friday.

Returned to Medford

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Koontz, of Medford, who spent several days in this city visiting with friends, returned to their home late Friday afternoon.

Will Visit Ashland

On Wednesday evening, June 4, Calvary Commanders, Knights Templar, of this city will motor to Ashland, where the Malta Commandery will exemplify the work in their honor.

Newspaperman Visits

Murray Hannon, newspaper man of Redding, Cal., is spending the week end in Klamath Falls visiting with his parents and friends.

Insurance Man Here

L. N. Brainard, of the World Fire and Marine Insurance company, with headquarters in Portland, is spending several days in Klamath Falls transacting business.

Motored to Crater Lake

Among those who motored to Crater Lake Friday were Mrs. H. E. Momyer, Mrs. Ida B. Momyer, and their guests, Mrs. Thomas and daughter Ethel Belle and Robert Odell.

Mrs. Piper Ill

Mrs. C. E. Piper is a patient at Hillside hospital, where she is receiving medical attention.

Visited in Dunsmuir

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kelley spent Memorial day in Dunsmuir visiting with relatives and friends.

Two Book Reviews Will be Given

At this time, "Laughing Boy," La Forge's popular novel which was given the Pulitzer prize not long ago, and John Macey's "About Women" have been chosen. Following this Mrs. Lamm will lead a general book discussion. Following this part of the meeting tea will be served by Mrs. C. B. Harding and Mrs. Jack Kimball.

Church of the Nazarene

Corner of Garden and Martin Sts. Mills Addition. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Brother Jim Graham will charge. We have a live and growing Sunday school. Children's Day program at Sunday school hour this Sunday. Preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. Special music. All are urged to attend these services. N. Y. P. S. 6:30 p. m. We have a live young peoples society, good lessons and special music. We invite all young people who do not attend elsewhere to worship with us. Evening preaching service at 7:30. Prayer meeting every Wednesday night at 7:30 at the church. Choir practice every Thursday at 7:30 at the church. Cottage prayer meeting Friday night at 7:30. This Friday we meet at the home of Brother and Sister Dunlap. Brother Herrick leader. Our missionary society, lead by Mrs. Paul Hanlin, meets every first Thursday in the month. Dorcas society every 3rd Thursday. We are looking forward to our big tent meeting at corner of Garden and Martin streets, with Brother and Sister Nerry as evangelists, starting June 15. We extend a hearty welcome to all to attend these services. Rev. James Dele, pastor.

Young Graduates

Enjoy Informal Party

A group of the young graduates of the Klamath Union high school, the girls dressed in dainty formal gowns of rainbow colorings, and the boys in dark coats and white flannels, gathered at the A. F. Graham home on Wednesday evening for the commencement exercises, and enjoyed the balance of the evening dancing and enjoying a good time. At a late hour they were served refreshments and returned to their homes. About 20 couples attended and enjoyed Graham's hospitality.

Swimming Party

Monday Evening

On Monday night about 20 of the employees of Poole's Liberty, Pine Tree and Pelican theatres, enjoyed a swimming party at the natatorium, after which they enjoyed a dinner and social time.

CHURCH CIRCLES

A devotional conference will be held by the women of the city in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday, June 4. E. N. Warner of Medford will be one of the speakers and women from the churches of Klamath Falls will have part in the day's program. Morning, afternoon and evening sessions will be held, with a lunch at noon at the church. Since the conference comes four days before the anniversary of Pentecost, the general theme of the celebration will be "The Holy Spirit."

On Sunday, June 8, the young people of the Immanuel Baptist church will entertain a large number of young people from Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass and other Rogue River valley points, at a huge rally. An interesting program is being arranged in honor of the visitors by the committee in charge. "Upward and Ever Upward" will be the theme of the rally.

Girls of the Jobs Daughters organization will meet on Sunday, June 1st, to attend the services of the Methodist Episcopal church, it has been announced by Miss Helen Cofer, queen.

At The Churches

First Baptist Church, Corner 8th and Washington streets, phone 493-W. Leonard B. Sigle, pastor. A procession of cars are leaving the church at 8:00 Sunday morning for Crystal Springs for a baptismal service. The service at the waters will begin at 8:30. They will be over in time to return to the church for Sunday school which begins at 9:45. The morning message of the pastor will be on the subject of "Prayer." This service begins at 11:00 o'clock. Special music by the choir will be rendered.

Young People's meeting begins at 6:45 p. m. Mrs. Fay Southard is the president. Her help is to see to it that it is worth while for anyone who wants spiritual assistance and attends these programs.

The evening worship begins at 7:45. The message will be preceded by a lively song service led by Mr. G. W. Tenove. All who wish to do so will have an opportunity to testify of blessings from God in this service. The message of the pastor for the evening will be "When Foundations Move," or the Message of Modernism. This will not be a mere sentimental cry against certain harmless tendencies of the modern age, but it will be a scientific and scriptural appeal disproving completely that subtle and dangerous opposition to Christianity in every age. Mrs. E. E. Millam will sing "The Old-Fashioned Faith."

Klamath Temple, church of the Fourth Gospel, corner of Eighth and Oak streets. The church with a welcome, and message of the "Old time religion" that really satisfies the human heart, "Jesus the mighty Saviour, Healer, Baptizer, and soon coming King." A live growing Bible school at 9:45 a. m., classes with competent teachers for all ages. Mrs. John Linfield, supt. If you are not already an attendant at any other Sunday school, we cordially invite you to visit us Sunday, a big welcome awaits you.

Morning worship at eleven o'clock, special message by the pastor, "God's Promises," don't miss this service of special blessing to all. No Sunday evening or week-night services at the temple, because of the Parrott evangelistic campaign in the big wooden tabernacle, at the corner of Seventh and Oak streets. These services are proving a great blessing to the hundreds which are attending, many every night. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 Rev. Parrott will speak on the vital message of the hour, "What will happen to Klamath when Jesus Comes?" you cannot afford to miss this great service.

Sunday evening at eight o'clock special music by the large choir and orchestra, followed by the evangelist bringing the message that is stirring thousands today, "Miracles of Salvation and Healing, Is Christ the Son of God?" The little Gifford child, who was left a hopeless, helpless cripple as a result of infantile paralysis, was definitely healed in answer to prayer, will be on the platform Sunday night. Don't miss this great service, also services continuing every night. Pastor Guy DeVries, 730 Oak street, phone 1573-J.

Church of the Nazarene, Corner of Garden and Martin Sts. Mills Addition. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Brother Jim Graham will charge. We have a live and growing Sunday school. Children's Day program at Sunday school hour this Sunday. Preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. Special music. All are urged to attend these services. N. Y. P. S. 6:30 p. m. We have a live young peoples society, good lessons and special music. We invite all young people who do not attend elsewhere to worship with us. Evening preaching service at 7:30. Prayer meeting every Wednesday night at 7:30 at the church. Choir practice every Thursday at 7:30 at the church. Cottage prayer meeting Friday night at 7:30. This Friday we meet at the home of Brother and Sister Dunlap. Brother Herrick leader. Our missionary society, lead by Mrs. Paul Hanlin, meets every first Thursday in the month. Dorcas society every 3rd Thursday. We are looking forward to our big tent meeting at corner of Garden and Martin streets, with Brother and Sister Nerry as evangelists, starting June 15. We extend a hearty welcome to all to attend these services. Rev. James Dele, pastor.

Church of the Nazarene

Corner of Garden and Martin Sts. Mills Addition. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Brother Jim Graham will charge. We have a live and growing Sunday school. Children's Day program at Sunday school hour this Sunday. Preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. Special music. All are urged to attend these services. N. Y. P. S. 6:30 p. m. We have a live young peoples society, good lessons and special music. We invite all young people who do not attend elsewhere to worship with us. Evening preaching service at 7:30. Prayer meeting every Wednesday night at 7:30 at the church. Choir practice every Thursday at 7:30 at the church. Cottage prayer meeting Friday night at 7:30. This Friday we meet at the home of Brother and Sister Dunlap. Brother Herrick leader. Our missionary society, lead by Mrs. Paul Hanlin, meets every first Thursday in the month. Dorcas society every 3rd Thursday. We are looking forward to our big tent meeting at corner of Garden and Martin streets, with Brother and Sister Nerry as evangelists, starting June 15. We extend a hearty welcome to all to attend these services. Rev. James Dele, pastor.

Zion Lutheran Church, 1025 High Street, G. W. Hoffmann, pastor. Morning service begins at 10:30. The Ascension of the Lord will be celebrated at this service. The pastor will speak on "The Command and the promise given at Christ's Ascension." Sunday school and adult Bible class meet at 9:30. The mid-week Bible class will not meet next Wednesday. A cordial invitation to strangers to attend our services.

Community (Congregational) Church, 2027 Wantland, East side, T. Davis, pastor, minister, phone 1447-R. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bailey, student assistants. Church school for all grades meets at 10 o'clock. Young Peoples discussion group at 10 o'clock. Service of worship at eleven with sermon by Mr. Preston.

First Christian Church, Ninth and Pine Ave. At 11 a. m. Dr. Eaton will preach on the theme "THE THINGS THAT GOD HATH PREPARED" In the Evening at 7:45 His Subject Will Be "Not Your Own"

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. A class for every age. Under the leadership of Superintendent R. H. Dunbar.

First Baptist Church, Corner 8th and Washington streets, phone 493-W. Leonard B. Sigle, pastor. A procession of cars are leaving the church at 8:00 Sunday morning for Crystal Springs for a baptismal service. The service at the waters will begin at 8:30. They will be over in time to return to the church for Sunday school which begins at 9:45. The morning message of the pastor will be on the subject of "Prayer." This service begins at 11:00 o'clock. Special music by the choir will be rendered.

Young People's meeting begins at 6:45 p. m. Mrs. Fay Southard is the president. Her help is to see to it that it is worth while for anyone who wants spiritual assistance and attends these programs.

The evening worship begins at 7:45. The message will be preceded by a lively song service led by Mr. G. W. Tenove. All who wish to do so will have an opportunity to testify of blessings from God in this service. The message of the pastor for the evening will be "When Foundations Move," or the Message of Modernism. This will not be a mere sentimental cry against certain harmless tendencies of the modern age, but it will be a scientific and scriptural appeal disproving completely that subtle and dangerous opposition to Christianity in every age. Mrs. E. E. Millam will sing "The Old-Fashioned Faith."

Klamath Temple, church of the Fourth Gospel, corner of Eighth and Oak streets. The church with a welcome, and message of the "Old time religion" that really satisfies the human heart, "Jesus the mighty Saviour, Healer, Baptizer, and soon coming King." A live growing Bible school at 9:45 a. m., classes with competent teachers for all ages. Mrs. John Linfield, supt. If you are not already an attendant at any other Sunday school, we cordially invite you to visit us Sunday, a big welcome awaits you.

Morning worship at eleven o'clock, special message by the pastor, "God's Promises," don't miss this service of special blessing to all. No Sunday evening or week-night services at the temple, because of the Parrott evangelistic campaign in the big wooden tabernacle, at the corner of Seventh and Oak streets. These services are proving a great blessing to the hundreds which are attending, many every night. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 Rev. Parrott will speak on the vital message of the hour, "What will happen to Klamath when Jesus Comes?" you cannot afford to miss this great service.

Sunday evening at eight o'clock special music by the large choir and orchestra, followed by the evangelist bringing the message that is stirring thousands today, "Miracles of Salvation and Healing, Is Christ the Son of God?" The little Gifford child, who was left a hopeless, helpless cripple as a result of infantile paralysis, was definitely healed in answer to prayer, will be on the platform Sunday night. Don't miss this great service, also services continuing every night. Pastor Guy DeVries, 730 Oak street, phone 1573-J.

Church of the Nazarene, Corner of Garden and Martin Sts. Mills Addition. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Brother Jim Graham will charge. We have a live and growing Sunday school. Children's Day program at Sunday school hour this Sunday. Preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. Special music. All are urged to attend these services. N. Y. P. S. 6:30 p. m. We have a live young peoples society, good lessons and special music. We invite all young people who do not attend elsewhere to worship with us. Evening preaching service at 7:30. Prayer meeting every Wednesday night at 7:30 at the church. Choir practice every Thursday at 7:30 at the church. Cottage prayer meeting Friday night at 7:30. This Friday we meet at the home of Brother and Sister Dunlap. Brother Herrick leader. Our missionary society, lead by Mrs. Paul Hanlin, meets every first Thursday in the month. Dorcas society every 3rd Thursday. We are looking forward to our big tent meeting at corner of Garden and Martin streets, with Brother and Sister Nerry as evangelists, starting June 15. We extend a hearty welcome to all to attend these services. Rev. James Dele, pastor.

Church of the Nazarene

Corner of Garden and Martin Sts. Mills Addition. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Brother Jim Graham will charge. We have a live and growing Sunday school. Children's Day program at Sunday school hour this Sunday. Preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. Special music. All are urged to attend these services. N. Y. P. S. 6:30 p. m. We have a live young peoples society, good lessons and special music. We invite all young people who do not attend elsewhere to worship with us. Evening preaching service at 7:30. Prayer meeting every Wednesday night at 7:30 at the church. Choir practice every Thursday at 7:30 at the church. Cottage prayer meeting Friday night at 7:30. This Friday we meet at the home of Brother and Sister Dunlap. Brother Herrick leader. Our missionary society, lead by Mrs. Paul Hanlin, meets every first Thursday in the month. Dorcas society every 3rd Thursday. We are looking forward to our big tent meeting at corner of Garden and Martin streets, with Brother and Sister Nerry as evangelists, starting June 15. We extend a hearty welcome to all to attend these services. Rev. James Dele, pastor.

Zion Lutheran Church, 1025 High Street, G. W. Hoffmann, pastor. Morning service begins at 10:30. The Ascension of the Lord will be celebrated at this service. The pastor will speak on "The Command and the promise given at Christ's Ascension." Sunday school and adult Bible class meet at 9:30. The mid-week Bible class will not meet next Wednesday. A cordial invitation to strangers to attend our services.

Community (Congregational) Church, 2027 Wantland, East side, T. Davis, pastor, minister, phone 1447-R. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bailey, student assistants. Church school for all grades meets at 10 o'clock. Young Peoples discussion group at 10 o'clock. Service of worship at eleven with sermon by Mr. Preston.

First Christian Church, Ninth and Pine Ave. At 11 a. m. Dr. Eaton will preach on the theme "THE THINGS THAT GOD HATH PREPARED" In the Evening at 7:45 His Subject Will Be "Not Your Own"

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. A class for every age. Under the leadership of Superintendent R. H. Dunbar.

ing o the Gospel in Russia. The tag of the Gospel in Russia. The close of service. Evening evangelistic service at 7:30, subject, "The Seven Planks in the Platform of Jesus Christ." Week night services, Tuesday, Thursday at 8:00. Tuesday, chart lectures on Book of Revelation, Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. The Ladies Prayer circle will meet at the assembly hall, Thursday evangelistic meeting at 8:00. Believe it or not, we preach the whole Bible. Rev. J. H. Stevenson, pastor, phone 55.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, corner of 8th and Jefferson Sts., Rev. Joseph S. Ewing, residence 800 Upham St., phone 425-J. 9:45 a. m. Church school, this is Promotion Day for the primary department. 11:00 a. m. Holy communion and sermon. The subject of the sermon will be "Jesus' Ascension Into Heaven—its meaning for today." 5:00 p. m. everyone is invited to see the moving pictures taken of our summer school for church leaders at Cove, Oregon. These pictures will be shown in the Parish house, Tuesday 7:30 p. m., Troop 11 B. S. A.; Wednesday 8:00 p. m. regular monthly meeting of the Bishop's committee. Thursday 7:30 p. m. choir rehearsal.

First Church of Christ Scientist, 16th and Washington, Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Sunday service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced." Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. Free reading and free lending library open afternoon, on week days from 2:30 to 4:30 except on Wednesday and holidays, also before and after the Wednesday evening meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend the services and use the reading room.

First Christian Church, On Sunday morning at the First Christian church Dr. Eaton will preach the theme, "The Things that God has Prepared." In the evening at 7:45 his subject will be "Not Your Own." Sunday school commences at 9:45 a. m.

The Immanuel Baptist Church, Eleventh and High streets. Rev. A. O. Broyles, pastor, 1112 High street. Rev. H. J. Lorenz, assistant pastor and superintendent of the Sunday school, 340 N. 9th streets.

The pastor will use for his subject Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock hour, "The Story of Kibiroh-Hataaava." The story of Kibiroh-Hataaava, a great chief leading in the hymns and Greydon Broyles will sing a solo. There will be a very unusual and interesting service Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. We plan to show the pictures of the Holy Land. Be sure and see them. You will appreciate your Bible more by having seen them. The song "In the Garden" will be illustrated as we sing it. The Intermediate and Junior young people will meet at 6:30 p. m. The Senior young people meeting at 7:00 p. m. These are all interesting meetings. The Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. every one should be present and every one should be present and on time. The Bible study and prayer meeting every Wednesday evening. The teachers training class meets every Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Ladies Society of the church will meet next Thursday at 2 o'clock. The Senior B. Y. P. U. will entertain the young people from Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass Sunday, June 8. They are planning a big time and have a fine program in preparation. The greatest asset this government has is the church. Destroy the church and you destroy America.

The First Presbyterian Church

Sixth and Pine streets. Rev. Drury V. Haight, pastor. At the Sunday school hour, 9:45 a. m., young and old will find a welcome and an instructive, helpful lesson. The hour of morning worship is 11:00 o'clock. The topic of Mr. Haight's sermon will be "Looking for the Holy Spirit." On June 8 of this year comes the 190th anniversary of the first coming of the Spirit upon believers, the day of Pentecost, and the whole Christian church is commemorating it with great joy and thankfulness, and is praying for a fresh out-pouring of God's Spirit in power upon Christ's people. Everyone desiring a deeper experience of the Christian life will be helped by this message. There will be the usual uplifting music, both organ and vocal. The Intermediate Endeavor hour is 6:00, and the Senior hour 6:30. The evening service is at 8:00 o'clock. There will be, as usual, numerous good old hymns for congregational singing, a message to remember, and a beautiful soprano solo by Mrs. Lindsay Thomson.

The women of various churches of the city are holding a Devotional Bible conference all day Wednesday, and are looking forward to a most inspirational time. The sessions will be at 11:00 a. m., 2:00 p. m., and 5:00 p. m. All women interested are invited to attend, and the evening meeting will be open to men also.

First Pentecostal Assembly, Sunday services: Sunday school 9:45 a. m. in classes for all ages with spirit filled teachers, E. T. Davidson, supt. Morning worship at 11:00 a. m. Subject Bearing the Reproach of Christ. Heb. 12:13. Foreign missionary offering will be taken for the Spread-

9:45 a. m. A class for every age and an efficient staff of teachers under the leadership of R. H. Dunbar, superintendent. Christian Endeavor Society meets at 6:30 p. m.

EUGENE—David E. Fartila, Dean of the School of Business Administration announced that Harry C. Hawkins, economic adviser in the Department of State, Washington, D. C., would join the staff at the university.

EUGENE—Smoking by travelers along trains and roads in National forests will be forbidden between July 1 and September 30, according to R. S. Shelley, supervisor of the Sitka National Forest.

Presbyterians to Unite Branches

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 31, (AP)—The United Presbyterian church of North America, in 72nd annual assembly, today voted to merge with five other Presbyterian denominations.