Vacancies in Northwest—

Competitive examinations are now open for junior stenographer, $1440-$1620, and junior typist, $1260-$1440, according to an announcement of the United States civil service commission. Receipt of applications will close June 23, 1930. Information and blanks may be obtained at the local post office.

Snow Removal Started—

Snow removal on the Rim road at Crater Lake has started, according to word received here. The big snow plow is being used for this work and opening of the rim road will probably be effected in the near future.

Leaving for East—

Miss Ann Gradinger, local teacher, is leaving tomorrow for Kansas City to spend the summer visiting with her parents at their old home where all her sisters and brothers will also be for the summer. Miss Gradinger plans to attend summer school in the east and will return here to teach again next fall.

Cases To Stop Here—

Further arrangements for the special train bearing 150 Knights of Columbus from San Francisco to Alaska which will stop in Klamath Falls for about an hour on June 29, are being made. The cases will arrive in the city at 7:30 a. m. on June 29 and will leave at 9:15. A special mass will be held for them at the Sacred Heart church.

Inspector Here—

A. Cross, field inspector for the World War Veterans State Aid commission, who has been in Medford for several days is in Klamath Falls on a business trip and will also visit several places in central Oregon. Mr. Cross is enroute to the annual encampment of the Oregon National Guard at Camp Clatsop.

Left for Montana—

Mrs. Ben Robertson and daughter Joan, left recently for Billings, Mont., where they will spend the summer vacation visiting friends and relatives. They were accompanied on the trip, which they are making by motor, by George May. Mr. Robertson is already in the Montana city.

Gladys Rice Left—

Gladys Rice, school teacher who took an active part in the recent play of "Aunt Lucia", left yesterday for Eugene, where she will spend the summer and will take up extension work at the University of Oregon.

Chileans Prefer Oregon Products

PORTLAND, Ore., June 4, (A P)—Ralph H. Ackerman, department of commerce attaché at Santiago, Chile, who arrived here today as a part of a business conference tour of the United States, said that Oregon products are finding favorable reception in Chile.

He said the opportunities were excellent for increasing this trade. "Chileans believe so much in the worth of American products," Ackerman said, "and trade between the two countries are now equal to the combined sales of England and Germany."

Pulp Survey Bill Will Help Lumber

PORTLAND, Ore., June 4, (A P)—W. H. Gibbons, head of the Forest Products office, under P. J. Buck, regional forester, said today that President Hoover's approval of a bill for appropriation of $25,000 for surveying pulp and paper potentialities indicated the coast would benefit. Such an appropriation, Gibbons said, would prove beneficial to the lumber industry of the Pacific coast.
