A regular 4-oz. jar of Schilling PREPARED MUSTARD SAUCE Free with your purchase of Schilling Coffee. Schilling Prepared Mustard Sauce is not an ordinary prepared mustard. It is a new formula suitable for all kitchen and table uses, as called for in modern recipes.

A regular 2-oz. tin of Schilling CINNAMON Free with your purchase of Schilling Tea (Orange Pekoe or Japan) Schilling Cinnamon is the standard of the world.

A regular 1-oz. bottle of Schilling MAPLE Free with your purchase of Schilling Baking Powder. Enough to make a gallon of that delicious and famous Schilling Maple Syrup

Clever things you can do with Prepared Mustard Cinnamon Maple

Roast beef acquires a delicious flavor when coated with Schilling Prepared Mustard Sauce, before slipping it into a hot oven. Spread slices of cold roast beef with Schilling Prepared Mustard Sauce, add a dash of Schilling Cayenne and Onion Salt. Brown in hot fat. Schilling Prepared Mustard Sauce added to batter in which fish is dipped before frying, will greatly improve its flavor. A thin layer of Schilling Prepared Mustard Sauce spread on an omelet before folding lends a most piquant touch. Fish dishes put on a new dress when served with a sauce made by adding 1 tablespoon Schilling Prepared Mustard Sauce to 1 cup medium white sauce. This sauce is a delightful accompaniment for cauliflower, asparagus, and artichokes. PEANUT SALAD DRESSING Mix together: 2 teaspoons Schilling Prepared Mustard Sauce, 2 teaspoons peanut butter, 2 teaspoons sugar. Add cream to make thick enough to pour over salad. For savory sandwiches, blend equal parts of Schilling Prepared Mustard Sauce and butter, and spread on the bread. Meat, chicken and cheese sandwiches are ever so good this way!

Artichokes may be baked in oil and water to which 1 teaspoon Schilling Ground Cinnamon has been added. A sprinkle of Schilling Cinnamon over the top of meringue before baking gives an unusual touch to cream pies. To vary hot chocolate, add a dash of Schilling Cinnamon to each cup. Or, if topped with whipped cream, shake the cinnamon over the cream. Before placing muffins in the oven sprinkle the top with a mixture of 2 teaspoons of Schilling Ground Cinnamon and 4 teaspoons of sugar. Did you ever serve cinnamon honey with waffles? Just honey blended with Schilling Cinnamon to taste. A dash of Schilling Ground Cinnamon in cranberry sauce gives a new flavor. Sprinkle Schilling Cinnamon on pan-fried apples. And when you bake apples—Schilling Cinnamon dusted over each apple is a magic sprinkle. A bit of pastry rolled out, spread with a little melted butter, sugar and Schilling Cinnamon, and a piece of banana rolled up in it, is baked and served with cream or lemon sauce.

To almost any plain sugar cookie dough add 1/2 teaspoon Schilling Maple Flavoring and finely chopped nuts. When milk for the youngsters goes "be-gingering," add 1/2 teaspoon Schilling Maple Flavoring to the glass. For a sweet dessert, prunes may be baked slowly in Maple Syrup (made the Schilling way—see below). Serve with a tuft of whipped cream. Home-made Maple Syrup is made by pouring one cup of boiling water over two cups of granulated sugar. Boil without stirring for two minutes. Remove from fire and add 1/2 teaspoonful of Schilling Maple Flavoring. A dash of salt improves the flavor. (This recipe makes one pint of delicious syrup at a cost of less than eight cents.) This easily made syrup has many uses beside the usual hot cake or waffle accompaniment. It may be used as a sauce for ice cream, pudding and cake, and for flavoring frosting and candies. Malted milk is delicious flavored with a bit of Schilling Maple Flavoring and colored a rich brown with Schilling Caramel Coloring. Tapioca cream is a long remembered dainty when Schilling Maple Flavoring (1 teaspoon to a quart of milk), and coconut or sliced bananas are added.

Flavor Secrets with each Schilling purchase A copy of the 80 page book "Flavor Secrets" The latest thing in cookery. Thousands of new suggestions in the fine art of flavoring food You have never seen anything quite like this book. Nothing of the sort has ever before been published. You will find it an adventure into a new realm of cookery which will delight you and those who gather around your board. It takes the monotony out of cooking. It shows how to dress up the "stand by's." You will keep it handy in the kitchen and refer to it frequently. In it you will find little tricks at your finger tips—unexpected touches that will give new zest to old favorites and add many new favorites to your kitchen repertoire. It will lead you into all manner of intriguing seasoning paths, the perfumed trail of spices and fragrant essences. This book has been three years in preparation. Its material has been gleaned from all over the world, and carefully tested in the kitchen. Everything in it is practical, and easy. You will find many complete recipes for new and interesting dishes. But the important part of the book is in the thousands of suggestions for adding new piquancy, new delights to your every-day recipes.
