DIXON ARRIVES TODAY TO MEET JEWISH BOXER

Big Preview Tomorrow To Give Fans Slant On Fighters

George Dixon, accompanied by his manager and trainer will arrive in Klamath Falls this evening and tomorrow the colored sensation will appear at the Legion pavilion in the big preview staged by Matchmaker Joe Bickert to give the fans a slant at the great boxing card he has arranged for Tuesday evening.

Out of Sorts

Although traveling in a brand spanking new Cadillac sedan, which is enough to make any boxer cheerful, George is said to be in an ugly mood because of the fact that the Portland boxing commission forced him to go through with his match with Feldman. Not that he is a afraid of "Willie," for he holds a technical kayo over the Jewish boy, but the chance he is taking of that thing that frequently happens—the unexpected—an event that might wreck his chances to go on up to the "big shot," Mick, Walker. If he loses to Willie he may lose to Wes Ketchell, or even may get the Ketchell bout, in which case George will be scoured on the world for good.

The winner of this bout and the Ketchell affair gets a chance at either Leo Lomski or Walker in an open air engagement at Portland on July 4th, so a setback by Willie will spoil George's chances to get in on the big money—and it takes money to operate a cad.

He's a Flash

The fans are in for a treat when this fiery negro steps in the ring Tuesday. He has never made a bad fight. He forces the milling and will fight it out if his opponent likes that style of milling.

Willie promises to be in shape to give George all the fight he wants. The local boy is now down to 162½, his normal weight, and under the watchful eye of manager Benny Dotsen he is in the best shape of his career.

Creates Great Interest

This match, which is proving a sell-out, is the talk of all southern Oregon and is a great boost for Klamath Falls. The fans know what they are getting in the big advance sale of tickets is a natural consequence. With Tom Louitt the third man in the ring the match will have a big league atmosphere.

Tax has lined up four hot preliminaries and is also giving the cash customers something new in the way of ring entertainment. Benny Dotsen and his guitar and "Klots" Hallis with his pet saxophone will entertain with song and stunts from the opening of the arena at 6:30 until the curtain raiser. If you have not heard Klamath's Nick Lucas, this will be a rare opportunity. Get your tickets at either of these pool parlors—Mecca, Spar or Waldorf. No raise in prices.

Morgan Staging Return to Ring

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 7. Ted Morgan of Seattle who lost his junior lightweight title to Benny Bass of Philadelphia last summer, and who at the same time lost the use of his good right hand, hit the comeback trail here last night in a bout with Santiago Zorrilla, but failed to come through with a victory over the dusky Panamanian.

Favoring his injured hand and suffering from a bad cut over the right eye which Zorrilla opened in the first round, Morgan just barely scraped through to his 15-round draw. Had Zorrilla packed a harder wallop in either hand he could have taken the honors.

Babe Ruth and Edgar Rice Spoil Chances of Youthful Batters to Make Reputations

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer

The younger batters of the American league haven't much chance to make names for themselves as long as those two old timers, George Herman Ruth and Edgar Rice continue to hit at their present rates. The Babe and Old Sam have almost a monopoly on the league's batting leadership, with Rice holding the highest honors.

Rice, a veteran of some 38 summers, 14 of them spent playing baseball for Washington, has made a record for consistent hitting this season that no younger rival has ever threatened. The Senators have played 45 games so far; Rice has taken part in 44 of them; and only once has he failed to get at least one hit. Sam connected safely in 25 consecutive games before his streak was broken. Rice leads the league's batters with a current average of .461.

Rain Defers Game

Rice had no chance to continue his batting streak yesterday, nor did his rivals do much hitting as wet grounds caused the postponement of two American league games while the pair that were played produced few hits compared to the totals that have been piled up in some recent games.

Joe Sewell of Cleveland and Russ Searritt of the Boston Red Sox had perfect days with three and four hits respectively as the Indians gained a 9 to 4 victory over Boston.

Mahaffey Wins for A's

The blows of the Philadelphia

Athletics and St. Louis Browns were pretty well distributed in the 5 to 4 triumph of the world's champions. The winning pitcher, Roy Mahaffey, contributed a home run to his victory.

Denny Southern of the Philadelphia Nationals turned in the best batting feat of the day to help the Phillies to a 14 to 15 victory over the Cincinnati Reds in five times at bat, he hit five times and scored five runs. Four of his hits were doubles, equaling an all-time major league record set on July 2, 1883, by Pop Anson and Abner Dairymple of the Chicago Nationals.

The New York Giants Get 17 Hits

The New York Giants hit 17 times, ten of that blows being divided between Critz, Leach and Terry, and defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 19 to 7, to move into a three way tie in games with the Cards and Pittsburgh for third place in the National league. Pittsburgh gained the post by a one point margin, defeating the Boston Braves, 4 to 3. A ninth inning homer by Adam Cosemery gave the Pirates the game after Al Bohl's four bagger had tied the score in the seventh.

Chicago's Cubs scored their ninth successive victory at the expense of the Brooklyn Robins and Bazy Vance, 13 to 0, and cut the Robins' lead from two to one. Charley Root held Brooklyn to two singles while the Cubs were getting ten hits off Vance in the six innings he lasted, and a half dozen more from the successors. Vance struck out a man for every hit, but he could not keep Chicago from scoring.

Oakland evened matters for the week with Seattle, giving veteran Dutch Reuther another setback, 5 to 3. The Indians had a two run lead in the second, and tied the score at three all in the fifth, but the Oaks got to Reuther for five tallies in the seventh and eighth, driving him from the mound to be replaced by Hubbell. Hurst let Seattle down with ten hits to the Acorns' fifteen, and kept them well scattered.

RIGA—One hundred and twenty-nine years old and all due to the eating of raw herrings dipped in weak black coffee every day. That was the record of Mrs. Anna Kreidler, the oldest inhabitant of Latvia, who recently died here at that age. She attributed her old age to the herring-coffee diet.

Hurler Not Announced

Manager Sanders was not announced his pitcher for tomorrow, but in any event will have a man capable of bringing home the bacon.

Eddy Arthur will call "play ball" at 2:30 and the good old game will be under way. Good weather is promised and it will warm the hearts of the players to see the grandstand filled with enthusiastic baseball fans.

Turn Sluggers Loose on Mails and Send Him To Baths in 6th

By The Associated Press

Relieved by the double defeat of the menacing Angels, Sacramento built up a two game lead in the coast standings yesterday by routing Portland, 14 to 2, using Tony Freitas on the mound. Malls had the Sacs controlled in the sixth, when they cut loose and drove him in the showers. McDonald suffered the same sort of treatment and was replaced by Diehl at the opening of the seventh chucker. The Senators got to him for five more runs to leave the Beavers far behind.

Angels Drop Pair

Los Angeles' threat which had brought the team to within a half game of first place in the Pacific coast league standings, received a two-fold setback yesterday as the Angels lost a doubleheader to Hollywood, 3 to 6 and 10 to 11. San Francisco appeared the day's most aggressive challenger, taking its second straight from the Missions, 11 to 2, and moving a tie in games with the Angels.

Hollywood broke a long losing streak, taking the first game in a dramatic ninth inning, and going into the eleventh to eke out a one run margin in the second contest.

Oakland evened matters for the week with Seattle, giving veteran Dutch Reuther another setback, 5 to 3. The Indians had a two run lead in the second, and tied the score at three all in the fifth, but the Oaks got to Reuther for five tallies in the seventh and eighth, driving him from the mound to be replaced by Hubbell. Thompson Floors British Mitt King

OMAHA, Neb., June 7. (AP)—When Billy Wells, former British welterweight king, was knocked out last night in the second round by young Jack Thompson, negro welterweight champion of the world, it was the first time that Wells had ever been counted out in more than ten years of fighting.

The wily veteran was sent down for the count by a terrific overhand right that seemed to come out of nowhere. It landed flush and the British scrapper was counted out with seconds to spare.

Up to the time of the knock-out blow, the champion and Wells had waged an even battle. Thompson was fighting his first bout since defeating Jackie Fields in Detroit and annexing the title. The title was not at stake, both being overweight.

Superstition, Your Name Is Prizefighter, Says Follower of Great Game of "Manly Art"

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7. (AP)—Superstition, you may not know it, but your other name is "Prizefighter."

Of all the boys of all lines of sport, the boys who thump and thud their way with boxing gloves are the best customers when it comes to believing in the supernatural agencies. Baseball players had the inside track for a long time, so far as the writer is concerned, but after delving deeply into the subject he is ready to award the fillgree soup spoon to the fighters. They are a riot.

Calls Palooka a Palooka

On this matter the writer consulted Mr. James Julius "Moose" Tausig, a veritable walking encyclopedia concerning things firstly, Mr. Tausig is this department's chief informant, an enviable position, and he holds it by virtue of the fact that he never tries to put over "fast ones." All the newspaper boys in this town was a real fighter, sang a song in his dressing room every time before a fight.

Young Corbett, III, of Fresno, chief challenger for the welterweight title, believes in the magic of the dressing room. In training there for bouts he always must have No. 1 room in Tausig's establishment. He pays for the room by the year, which is unusual—not that he pays but that he takes long time leases.

Pitman Jim Flynn, the old time heavyweight, always carried a "jockey cane" in his grip along with his training paraphernalia.

Harry Wills, huge negro who had the boys sidestepping for a while, used to bring one big cigar to smoke after a fight. He would look at it and say: "Boy, ah gonna enjoy you after Ise win this fight."

Jimmy Britt famed old lightweight wore one sweater so long it was difficult to distinguish the garment from the holes. Tailors by the dozen tried to give him a fine dressing gown in order to benefit from advertising their names on the back but always Britt strutted into the ring wearing his old sweater.

Jack Malone veteran middleweight and Jackie Fields who just dropped the welterweight title make it a point to shake hands with their chief second before the first round opens.
