Battery Presented Country's Flag

Battery D, 249th Coast Artillery, received its first official American flag last night as a gift from the local organization of the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. F. E. Boyd acted as master of ceremonies at the presentation. The flag was received by Capt. Walter W. Abbey, which was followed by a story told by Mrs. F. W. Abbey. The ceremony was closed with a song prepared especially by the W. C. T. U. members for the battery.

After the ceremony, the battery drilled on the street with the new flag "going before." The flag will accompany the battery to Fort Stevens for the summer encampment, Tuesday night. The drill was reviewed by Capt. O. C. Applegate as well as the W. C. T. U. ladies. During the evening there were short talks by Capt. Applegate, Leon Crawford, commander of the Legion, H. E. Getz, and George MacIntyre.

A number of the battery members, including Sergt. Call, Corporals Osborn, Bolen, French, Wolf, and Privates Provost and Evans, are leaving for Fort Stevens today and Sunday. The remainder will entrain for the north, Tuesday night.
