DIXON SCORES TECHNICAL KO IN FATAL 7TH

Feldman Outboxes Rival But Lacks Punch to Settle Fracas

It was only Tuesday the 10th, but it might have been Friday the 13th as far as Willie Feldman was concerned.

After battling six fast and clever rounds, Feldman left an opening and Cyclone George Dixon, not as tired as the Klamath boy, took advantage of his opportunity and patted Willie one which made him wobble. Following this advantage, the colored boy sent over a haymaker and Willie went down for the count of eight. The brief respite gave the Jewish boy time to collect his scattered faculties and although he was game he could not ward off the vicious slugging of the Cyclone and after a few passes Willie was on the ropes with Dixon pounding the senses out of him. Referee Louitt waited a few seconds thinking Feldman's seconds would throw in the towel and seeing that was not to be done, raised Dixon's hand in token of a technical knockout.

The Fatal Seventh
Coming back in the seventh it was plain that the end of the fight was not far distant. Feldman was tired; the trip to the canvas had not been beneficial to his fighting spirit and although he was game he could not ward off the vicious slugging of the Cyclone and after a few passes Willie was on the ropes with Dixon pounding the senses out of him. Referee Louitt waited a few seconds thinking Feldman's seconds would throw in the towel and seeing that was not to be done, raised Dixon's hand in token of a technical knockout.

A Great Card
Feldman entered the ring with loads of confidence in his ability to take the colored boy. He received a great hand from the crowd that packed the region pavilion, for it is known that Klamath fans appreciate the superior ring ability of the Jewish boy. Dixon was cordially received and had many backers.

A business like atmosphere hovered about the ring as both fighters prepared for the battle. The Dixon corner was colorful with fighter and attendants decked out in purple garments similar to the type worn by service station people. The Cyclone was calm, scarcely conversing with his trainer. In the opposite sat Willie Feldman with his days of '49 crop delicately shading a healthy tan face. He too was calm but lacked the expression of cold indifference that showed on the face of the man in the opposite corner.

At the tap of the bell Feldman opened the attack with short left jabs to Dixon's face. Dixon resorted to body blows, delivering several in the first round. In the second round Willie began to cover his body a little better and continued his attack on the Cyclone's face. If this attack was hurting Dixon nobody knew about it but himself. He never changed expression. The manner of fighting prevailed up to about the middle of the 6th round when Feldman showed a slowing up and then Dixon pressed his advantage. It might be said that Willie had the best of the fight up to that minute. He clearly outboxed Dixon as often said before. Willie lacks the punch to follow up the advantages he so frequently opens with his clever boxing.

It was a great fight and no crowd of Klamath fans was ever better satisfied. Tex Bickertson accomplished a great success in bringing these two clever boys together. Just what Tex will bring in next to sustain his reputation as a matchmaker remains to be seen but his efforts thus far have made Klamath Falls an outstanding fight center in the northwest.

House Is Packed
The Cyclone is by far the best boy to show in the Falls, and if matched with some very good boy, for the fourth or July, would jam the fair ground's seating capacity to overflowing.

The card was a whole of a card and deserved the wonderful crowd that turned out for the fight. It proves that two real boys will bring them out. The Dixon seconds were all dolled up in gas station blue coats and dressed the card up.

Preliminaries Good
Tom Louitt handled the last three fights of the card and showed as often said before, that Sherman handled the first three fights. Jack Morrison did the announcing and looked good. Benny Dyson was introduced as the champ of K. F. and Feldman wore his '49 whiskers in the ring.

The four four-round fights that opened the card were all fast and hard fought but the draw between Bob Evans and Gus Eaton. Honolulu Joe won the decision from Johnny Jackson, Modoc Indian. This could have been called a draw. Joe has developed a left and used it the first round like a champ.

Lee Burns and Joe Romeo fought a hard, bloody, wild four round draw. This fight had the fans wild.

Turkey Red, of Eugene, knocked out Dave Judd in one half minute of fighting. This looked like it would be a tough night for both fighters the way they started. Turkey Red looked good.

It was announced after the main event that Gene O'Grady had issued a challenge to the winner of the fight. Dixon was not long in accepting the fight.

We must give Joe a vote of thanks for the high class entertainment he offered the fans last night.

Sharkey-Schmeling Affair Most Significant Since Days of Tex Rickard, Dempsey and Tunney

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 11. (AP)—In the most extravagantly publicized fight since the late Tex Rickard pulled the strings of the heavyweight championship of the world.

It is by all odds the most significant heavyweight bout since the retirement of Gene Tunney, but whether the winner will be recognized outside of Germany, Lithuania and the United States remains to be seen.

75,000 to See Fight
With any kind of an even break from old man weather, a crowd of 75,000 fans probably will pay in excess of $700,000 to see the big show. This is a far cry from the figures attending the last of the outstanding extravaganzas on Chicago's lake front in 1927, but it exceeds anything on the books of the heavyweight business for the past three years. In addition the customers will have the happy opportunity to serve a double purpose in benefitting the children's milk fund, sponsored by Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, and in aiding the recovery of the indigent heavyweight division.

The Main Questions
Today, the two main questions up for debate among the rabble are:

First, can Schmeling carry the first heights that three previous foreign challengers, Firpo, Carpenter and Heamey, failed to reach?

Second, can Sharkey overcome the temperamental jinx that has seemed to pursue him in international competition and fight at his best?

This fight is no exception, when it comes to the speculative "ifs" and "buts" or even the loose talk that everything is "in" and "all right" for one principal or the other. So far as that goes

SOLONS BLANK OAKS IN FIRST NIGHT MEETING

12,000 Fans Satisfied With Mechanical Light System

(By Associated Press)
So far as the Sacramento Senators were concerned last night's initial test of baseball by artificial lighting was quite successful—12,000 fans being satisfied by the mechanical provisions and the Sac's beating Oakland, 8 to 9, to stretch their lead in the Pacific Coast League. A bevy of prominent guests in the stands saw the leaders pound Howard Craghead in the fourth for five runs, as Bryan pitched nine innings of shut-out ball for the winners. Pierson relieved Craghead on the mound for the Oaks, and was hit for three more runs. Only two errors, both by Oakland, ten strikeouts, and seven extra-base hits attested to the practicability of the lighting system.

Seals in Second.
San Francisco moved into second place again by taking the first of its series from Los Angeles, 7 to 3. Elmer Jacobs worked well on the mound for the Seals as they overcame a two-run first inning Angel lead to make considerable trouble for Harfoot and Peters.

Missions advanced to within a half game of the last first division club by downing Hollywood, 10 to 5, as young "Dutch" Lieber pitched consistently good ball for the Reds.

Play 15 Innings.
Seattle emerged with a slight advantage in a tight fifteen-inning battle with Portland in the opener of their series, winning 5 to 3. Kallio, of Indians, held the Beavers to 13 hits in the protracted contest, while his mates only scored 12 off Fullerton, but the last two of those 12, after two were out in the 15th, decided the issue. The victory put the Indians close to rising out of seventh position, which they have occupied for some weeks, due to Hollywood's defeat.

She is being held in the county jail at Chehalis for further questioning, although authorities said evidence they have gathered near the spot where the crime was committed here out her story of an unidentified assailant.

A revolver was found in the brush near the automobile when police were summoned by Miss Stitham and a beaten track led through the underbrush. Taylor's lifeless body was in the road.

CARDS SLUMP AFTER TAKING FLYING START

Drop 5 Straight Games Before Brakes Begin To Function

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

A little thing like a rapidly descending elevator, which causes unpleasant sensations in many quarters, shouldn't bother the St. Louis Cardinals a bit from now on. The Cards went up to the top of the National League with about the greatest possible speed, winning 17 out of 18 games, and have been coming down from the heights with about as great rapidity.

The Cardinals came to a temporary stop in their losing yesterday after dropping five straight games, but it took them ten long innings to gain a 2 to 1 decision over the Boston Braves and even that triumph left them with a record of only two victories in their last 12 games.

Cubs Also Slump
The Chicago Cubs, who appeared to be heading for the job of successors to the Cards as league leaders, suffered another setback yesterday after losing two out of three to Brooklyn.

The six-round preliminary between Harry Demareal and Walter Logan ended in a draw, each taking a fall.

Genaro Retains Flyweight Title

TORONTO, Ont., June 11. (AP)—Once again Frankie Genaro, recognized as the flyweight champion by the National Boxing commission, has thwarted the attempt of Albert (Franchy) Belanger to regain the crown that formerly rested on the Canadian's head.

Genaro retained his National Boxing commission title last night with a slashing ten-round victory over Belanger. The diminutive Toronto fighter had the rest of the argument for four rounds but thereafter Frankie displayed the speed and cleverness that has carried him to the top of the division.

The fight was a speedy affair from the start to the finish, but the champion forged ahead slowly and surely in point scoring as the end here into view. Late in the fight Genaro scored repeatedly with left jabs and a powerful over-hand right.

Edwards Defaults Match to T. Thye
PORTLAND, June 11. (AP)—After each wrestler had taken a fall in their re-match here last night, Billy Edwards, Kansas City, sent word from his dressing room he could not continue on account of an injured shoulder, and Ted Thye took the decision by default. Edwards won the first fall with his knuckle headlock in 23 minutes, 13 seconds. Thye forced Edwards to give up with his tendon-wearing wristlock for the second fall in 7 minutes, 24 seconds.

The six-round preliminary between Harry Demareal and Walter Logan ended in a draw, each taking a fall.
