INDIANS TAKE SECOND PLACE IN AMERICAN

Steady Plodding Gains Peckinpaugh Troops Good Standing.

By HERBERT W. BARBER
Associated Press Sports Writer

While other clubs have been getting most of the publicity, Peckinpaugh's Cleveland Indians have been attending strictly to business, taking all rivals as they come, until today, they had pushed into second place in the American league standing, only a game behind the pace-setting Philadelphia Athletics.

Great pitching by Ferrall, Brown and Hudlin has been the outstanding feature of the Indians' upward surge since May 24. In the intervening three weeks Peckinpaugh's men have won 14 games and lost only four.

Sixth straight victory. The Indians' sixth consecutive victory yesterday, and their second in a row from the Athletics, enabled them to leap into second place while Washington was bowing to Chicago.

As the race stands now, all three leaders have lost 19 games, with the A's winning 22, Cleveland 21, and Washington 20.

Clint Brown pitched great ball to give the Indians a shutout triumph over the A's, 4-0, granting only four hits. George Earnshaw pitched well, but three of the eight hits he allowed were home runs.

Morgan getting his 10th and 11th and Myatt another with one man on base.

Solons Bow to White Sox. The Senators bowed to Chicago's White Sox, 10-6, in a free-hitting battle that saw Ted Lyons chalk up his ninth victory of the season after three previous failures to get past his eighth.

The New York Yankees fell on Waite Hoyt and two successors for 23 hits, including Babe Ruth's 30th homer of the season, and felled the Detroit Tigers, 14-2.

Walter Stewart won his eighth victory for the St. Louis Browns, beating Boston, 6-5, but just managed to halt a Red Sox rally in the eighth inning that fell only one run short of a tie.

Robins Stretch Lead. In the National League, Brooklyn stretched its lead to 4 1/2 games by beating Cincinnati, 2-3, while their leading rivals, the Chicago Cubs and New York Giants, were beaten.

Pittsburgh halted the New York Giants nine-game winning streak, 10-7, bunching hits for five runs in the first and four in the seventh. Rem Kremer went the route for the Pirates, allowing eight hits, three of which were home runs, two by Lindstrom and Mel Ott's 14th of the season.

Barred and Grantham hit for the circuit for the pirates.

Claude Willoughby scored his first victory of the season as the Phillies beat the Cubs, 5-3, in a game halted by rain in the sixth. Chuck Klein got three singles for the Phils, and ran his consecutive hitting streak to 29 games.

Try This for Putting Grip

By AL DEMARRE
(Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

"Of all the golfing arts putting is at once the most important, the most aggravating and the most unteachable," philosophized Jack Hutchison to me one day. "One or two putts of merely dubious length holed in the course of a round often make all the difference between exhilaration and despair," continued Jack.

"I have found putting the most unteachable of the golfing arts, and by this I mean that a man must to a great extent pursue it out for himself.

"However, in putting a player must have a club and he must take hold of it. And then comes the question of the grip. There is one grip that deserves, perhaps, a special word of description, because it is, as far as I know, a purely putting grip, never used for any other stroke, and because it was a grip used by as good putters as John Ball and W. J. Travis.

"It may be called the reverse overlapping grip. As in the ordinary overlapping grip, the player holds his left thumb down the shaft, but instead of allowing

Sacs Strengthen Lead by Grabbing Floodlight Game

(By The Associated Press)

Maintaining their habit of coming through with convenient victories whenever their Pacific coast league lead is threatened, the Sacramento team stayed out in front by downing the Oakland club last night in a free hitting spree, 14 to 12. Eight pitchers worked in the weird encounter, the Oaks going into the last of the eighth with a two run lead only to have the Sacs score four off Hurlst, to give the victory to Sacs, at the time hurling for Sacramento.

Angelo Trim Seals. San Francisco stopped temporarily in its thrust at league honors, being trimmed by Los Angeles, 4 to 3, after coming within a game and a half of the lead.

Curtis Perry, relief hurler, walked Jacobs with the bases full in the tenth, breaking up what had been a fairly tight ball game.

Mission hopes, high at the beginning of the week, took another jolt when Hollywood defeated the Reds for the second time, 8 to 5. The Stars made five off Nelson in the first three innings, and Ted Pillette was sent in to stave off the attack.

Rain caused the postponement of the Portland game at Seattle.

Lonergan to Meet With Opposition

SALEM, June 13. (AP)—Information has reached here that forces opposed to the election of Frank J. Lonergan of Portland as speaker of the 1521 house of representatives will confer in Portland Saturday and try to form a coalition against him. James W. Mott of Salem, who is a candidate for the speakership, has been invited to attend. Among others present, it is said, will be Emmett Howard of Eugene and Herbert Gordon of Portland, also candidates for the speakership.

Counties Receive $200,000 in Taxes

PORTLAND, Ore., June 13. (AP)—The controller general of the United States today approved claims of Oregon counties previously denied a part of the amounts due them under the Oregon and California tax reimbursement act of 1926 amounting to $200,000.

The treaty department will pay Clackamas county $153,053; Multnomah county $27,557 and Benton county $15,590. Curry and Jackson counties also will receive smaller payments.

Fistic World Discovers It Just Has Another Hangover

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, June 13. (AP)—The fistic world that had hoped to wake up today to celebrate the crowning of a new and undisputed world's heavyweight champion discovered, instead, that it had just another headache, hangover and controversy.

Max Schmeling won on a foul from Jack Sharkey within the last six seconds of the fourth round of what was to have been the decisive battle for the heavyweight title last night at the Madison Square Garden, emblematic of the situation as chaotic as were the wild scenes accompanying the abrupt finish of the match.

Severely Battered. Severely battered though he had been, the black-thatched 24-year-old German youth, who looks, bobs and weaves like the one and only Jack Dempsey, emerged with whatever honors and title claims go with the victory. He may, for the time being, be put at the top of the heavyweight class, at least by his own countrymen and by the New York state athletic commission, which proclaimed its right beforehand to crown the winner the new champion of the world and successor to Gene Tunney, who retired two years ago.

An Empty Title. Schmeling's cause may be espoused further by the National Boxing Association and he is a candidate at least for the inscription of his name upon the Madison Square trophy, emblematic of championship recognition so far as its donors are concerned. But today, cold analysis of the unsatisfactory and disappointing climax to a two-year search for a fit monarch of heavyweight ranks appeared to offer no sound basis for proclaiming the young German possessor of honors universal in scope, where neither of the principals in the main test, beforehand, held any clear or undisputed claim to championship position.

Dark-browed, likeable, courageous Max, experts may hold, should not be penalized and deprived of recognition for events beyond his control, but the fact remained that Schmeling was carried bodily and in apparently great pain from the ring last night, the winner, but a badly battered one.

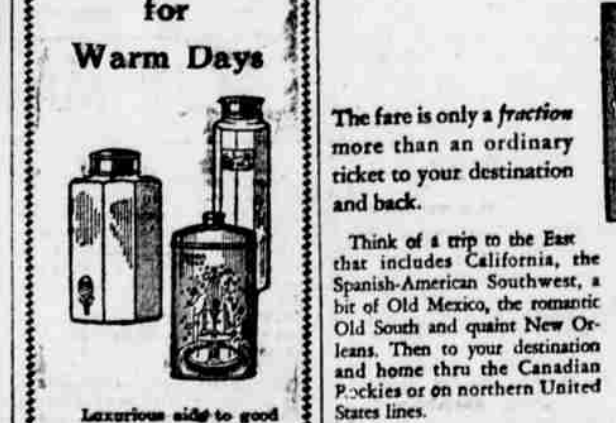

Sharkey Aggressor. Schmeling was hurt by a punch that was unquestionably low after having been decisively outboxed and outpunched by Sharkey, who with one erratic blow of his fist swept away the high honors that seemed almost certain to be his. The German crumpled to the floor, to be carried to his corner and declared the victor only a few minutes after it seemed he was on the verge of being cleanly knocked out. In the third round, when the American battered his young rival all over the ring with a viciously sustained two-fisted onslaught.

In the third round, Sharkey had Schmeling groggy and a quick victory apparently in his grasp. A round later, the tables were reversed with such startling rapidity that scenes of the wildest disorder and confusion developed.

One Judge Saw Blow. The fatal and final blow, intended as a left hook for the stomach but somehow unintentionally misdirected, was delivered as the fighters were close together along the ropes, with the tap of the gong adding the fourth round only a few seconds away. The referee, Jimmy Crowley, on the opposite side of the ring, with Sharkey's back between him and Schmeling, failed to see the punch. Withholding his decision, as the German sank writhing in agony to the floor, Crowley hesitated and was almost instantly surrounded and harassed by the managers, seconds and handlers of the two fighters as he sought advice from officials on either side of the ring. With the clamor still at its height and the crowd in complete uproar, Crowley finally accepted the unqualified judgment of one of the judges, Harold Barnes, and pronounced Schmeling the victor on a foul.

Add days in California to any trip East at Summer Excursion Fares!

No matter what your eastern destination it can be included in one of Southern Pacific's Circle Trips. A few itineraries are suggested here. You may reverse this order if you wish.

Summer excursion fares East are in effect on and after May 22. You have until October 31 to complete your journey.

Note these examples, and map. Then let the Southern Pacific agent give you further details. He will be glad to show you how to make your travel dollars go farther.

Think of a trip to the East that includes California, the Spanish-American Southwest, a bit of Old Mexico, the romantic Old South and quaint New Orleans. Then to your destination and home thru the Canadian Rockies or on northern United States lines.

That is one of Southern Pacific's Circle Trips. You double the enjoyment of any trip East when you use Southern Pacific's Four Great Routes and go one way, return another. You circle as much of the United States as you like at low summer fares.

SUNSET CIRCLE
San Francisco, Los Angeles, the Southwest, San Antonio, New Orleans, then by boat to New York or continue thru the Old South by rail to Washington, Philadelphia, New York or mid-west destination.

GOLDEN STATE CIRCLE
San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Hollywood, thru the picturesque Southwest, El Paso (Old Mexico nearby), to Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago and other mid-west points.

OVERLAND CIRCLE
San Francisco, Lake Tahoe, across Great Salt Lake by rail, Ogden, Salt Lake City. For a small additional fare you may return thru Yellowstone or continue to Denver.
