PEAR PICKERS GO ON VIOLENT BATTING SPREE

Score Seven in Second Inning, Ending Game With Total of 10.

Seven runs by the Medford Pear Pickers, coming as the result of a bobble and some plain, fancy and long distance clotting, all in the second inning Sunday afternoon completely spoiled the party for the locals. Droulette, husky Medford receiver, put a quietus on the fray when he gave one a ride out of the park to score Markel ahead of him. Bowman playing second base and Maas playing first each garnered three safeties for their afternoon's work. Fuller of the locals rifled out four hits out of a possible five. Varnadore hit two as did Granger.

Just how good Lefty Best proved to be can be shown by the fact that the usually consistent and heavy hitting Ziel was turned back without a blow for the first time this year. Eddie did get two walks however.

Played Under Protest
This game, unless a protest over the eligibility of Maas, who formerly performed for Ashland and now graces a Medford unit, is allowed, gives the first half championship to Medford. Manager Sanders formally entered a protest before the game started because Maas, it is claimed, had not been properly entered on the Medford roster on the Wednesday preceding the game. This is a hard and fast rule of the League and while technicalities in baseball are seldom taken with a relish it will be interesting to see just what will happen.

Hilton Off Color
The final score of the game was 10 to 3. The locals could not dent the score and baseball column consistently off the slants of Best while the opposition was making hay off the delivery of Hilton. Earl was not up to his usual form yesterday on the one hand and on the other hand the boys from the pear country certainly did have their hitting clothes on. While some of the bingles made off Hilton were scratchy the most of the 17 gathered were of the old fashioned loud ringing variety. Considerable wangling marred the contest but this would have to be expected when two teams were keyed up and rarin' to go as they were yesterday.

Park Bear Brings Three New Babies To Spend Season

CRATER LAKE National Park, Ore., June 23.—The Lord instructed that each should bring forth after his own kind, at which point the responsibility seems to have been transferred to the individuals of the species. This injunction is taken more literally by some than by others, if numbers are an indication.

We own up to being a little grieved about the classification of our Hans, mother of many bear cubs here at Crater Lake. Obviously, she is a convert to numerology and puts her faith in odd numbers.

Third Set Of Three
On three successive occasions, she has brought three cubs into the bear community. The last three appeared yesterday.

We are naturally very anxious to meet the children, but so far, being neither a bird nor an aboriginal, it has been impossible. They persist in remaining at the very top of the tallest hemlocks, a situation which may have its compensations, among which, sociability is conspicuous by its absence.

Hans' triplets by the way, are the first brand new bears actually to arrive at the moss hall this season.

NAMPA WIN TITLE
BAKER, Ore., June 23. (AP)—Nampa won the championship title of the first half season of the Eastern Oregon-Idaho baseball league yesterday, defeating Baker 3 to 1 in the first game of a double header. Nampa won the second game of the doubleheader by the same score, this game counting as the first victory in the second half season.

The Herald to Publish the Life Story of Max Schmeling

The New Champion

Good news for sports fans! The Herald will publish "The Life Story of Max Schmeling," the new heavyweight champion. The story in six chapters will begin on June 24. It was written by Werner Lauder, sports writer for The Herald and NEA Service. Lauder collected much of the information contained in the story during chats with the German at Eudicot, N. Y., as he was training for the sharky fight.

The story will tell of Max's first fight which resulted in a stroping at the hands of his teacher, his first knockout, his first job, his life with a wandering German circus and then his later career in the ring.

The story will appear exclusively in The Evening Herald.

Pinch Hitter Called and Found Asleep

THE REFORMED UMPIRE

YOU'RE NOT AS GOOD AS THE PAPERS SAY YOU ARE!!

DON'T LET IT WORRY YOU—YOU WON'T BE IN THE LEAGUE THE 4TH OF JULY!

By AL DEMAREE (Former Pitcher, N. Y. Giants)
Billy Evans, former umpire and now general manager of the Cleveland Indians, told me a good baseball story down south.

"Way back in the days when Walter Wilnot was managing the Minneapolis club, he signed Jacklitzsch, a young catcher formerly with the Phillies and Brooklyn," said Billy. "The day Jacklitzsch reported Minneapolis and Milwaukee played a terrific sixteen inning game. At last with the score a tie and darkness fast descending, Wilnot's men packed the bases. Two down, a hit needed, and the supply of pinch hitters exhausted.

"Wilnot had been so busy with the ebb and flow of the game that he had forgotten all about his new hard-hitting catcher. Eagerly he turned and called the new man to bat. Silence reigned. Again he yelled. No reply. Wilnot ran up to the bench and looked along the line of wriggling, twisting men, yelling their heads off. Jacklitzsch wasn't there. A moment later Wilnot found him—sound asleep in the grass and snoring like a bull. Sound asleep, with a sixteen inning game going on, a multitude shrieking, and two ball clubs going crazy with the frightful strain.

"Wilnot gazed a moment at the sleeping bird and then kicked him in the ribs and by signs indicated that he had better go, and that his life would be the forfeit if he was ever seen around the park again."

P. S. The pinch hitter who finally went up, struck out.

Home Run Contest Develops Courtesy

CHICAGO, June 23. (AP)—The home run battle between Hack Wilson of the Cubs and Walter Berger of the Braves has a courteous lining.

In the five-game series between the two teams, which closed yesterday, there was much cap tipping as one or the other made four base hits. When Berger hit his homers, Hack tipped his cap; when Hack bounced one into the bleachers, Berger curtsied.

Hack went one up yesterday, getting his twenty-first.

BEAVERS LOSE SIX STRAIGHT

Oaks Again Contenders for Honors in First Half of Season.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
With three weeks to go in the first half of the Pacific coast league season, Carl Zamloch's Oakland aggregation stood out again as a contender for honors, having taken six out of seven games from Portland. They completed the string by downing the Ducks twice yesterday, 2 to 0 and 5 to 2.

Orwell, erstwhile first baseman, took the mound for the Ducks in the morning and although he allowed only six hits and fanned eight batters, lost the game due to the stellar pitching of Bobbie Hurst, and some well-timed hitting on the part of the Oaks. Pete Daglia threw for the winners in the afternoon and won easily with good hitting support. The Acorns took Ortman for four hits in the first inning and were never headed.

San Francisco split two games with Los Angeles, dropping out of the third place with Oakland. The Angels took the morning game, 4 to 2, making it five wins out of the seven game series, and lost the afternoon contest in twelve innings, 4 to 5.

Sacramento maintained its favored position, two games out in front, taking the morning game at Stockton 5 to 2, but dropping the afternoon encounter at the Capital city, 2 to 6. The day's work split the eighth game series evenly. Zahniser, of Seattle, got revenge for a beating of a few days ago by trimming Ray Keating, the league's second best pitcher in percentages, who had previously beaten three Indians.

Actors Dim Reds' Hopes
Hollywood dimmed the Missions' hopes, making it five out of the week's series by taking the first game of a double-header, 6 to 1. The Reds came back to smash out a 9 to 4 victory in the second.

The Reds had little chance in the first affair, Hulvey twirling consistently good ball for the Stars, and Carlyle leading the attack with two homers.

Robin Tenure as Leader of National League Remarkable

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer

Considering the closeness of the rivalry among the National league clubs, the tenure of Brooklyn as leader of the circuit is something really remarkable. The Robins, who caused something of a surprise when they first gained the top, have shown the way to their rivals for nearly a month despite numerous threats to their security. After various ups and downs, the Robins took the lead at the end of May and have not been displaced since.

The costly Robin errors disappeared suddenly when first place was in danger while the Robins hats swung into effective action. Brooklyn came from behind yesterday, paced by two home runs by Babe Herman and one by Johnny Frederick, to score six runs in the seventh and eighth innings off Larry Franch, Pirate pitcher, to win 9-6. The Cubs made two homers off the delivery of Fred Frankhouse, recent Boston acquisition, and one of them was Hack Wilson's 21st of the season, but they could not get any other counters while the Braves ten hits scored in three different innings, taking the Cubs 3-2.

Giants Gain Game
The New York Giants picked up a game on the Cubs, remaining three games behind, by putting on a performance similar to Brooklyn's. The Giants seemed to feel it necessary to perform in the traditional manner as Cincinnati celebrated Bennis Frey day. They got to Bennis in the seventh and eighth for three runs at a time and took a 6 to 4 decision from the Reds.

The St. Louis Cardinals attained a .500 average again by taking two games from Philadelphia. The Cards clouted 33 hits against five Phillie pitchers to win by scores 12 to 3 and 9 to 3. Flint Rhames and Hurligh Grimes, the latter making his first start for St. Louis held the Phillies well under control.

Tigers In Fifth
The Detroit Tigers altered the American league standing a bit by winning a pair of games from the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 3 and 4 to 2. The double triumph while St. Louis was dividing a twin bill with the New York Yankees, put the Tigers into fifth place.

Despite their even break, the Yankees picked up a half game on the leading Philadelphia Athletics, who moved to Cleveland for Sunday and dropped the final contest to the Indians, 4 to 2. Wea Ferrell broke Cleveland's losing streak, holding the champions to seven hits.

They scored all their runs in one inning to win the first game 5 to 1 after Gullie had dropped a fly that would have retired the side. But the Yanks could not make their 12 hits count in the second contest and lost by a 5 to 0 count.

Washington, with Ad Liska pitching a five hit game and Ari Shires leading the attack on his old team with three blows that drove in four runs, made an even greater advance by trouncing the Chicago White Sox, 10 to 3. They picked up a full game on the Athletics, resting 2½ games behind the leaders and only a half game behind the Yankees.

Man Pleads Hunger As Robbery Cause

PORTLAND, June 23. (AP)—Jack Thompson was in jail here today under $2500 bail charged with breaking the show window of a downtown jewelry shop and stealing watches valued at $270. He was caught a few blocks from the store. He pleaded that he was hungry and intended to pawn the watches to obtain food.

The cost of light has decreased so enormously that as much light can be purchased today for one cent as a hundred years ago for one dollar.

Young Stribling Receives Plenty Of Bids To Fight

CHICAGO, June 23. (AP)—Young Stribling, no longer regarded among heavyweights as the boy with a schoolboy fighting complexion, placed his left hand back into a plaster cast today and awaited developments in the leather tossing industry.

Since the "crippled" left hand paralyzed Otto Von Forst, the Norwegian prizefighter, less than a round at the Chicago stadium Friday night, the punching Georgian has been veritably showered with offers, but has shied them all aside, confidently awaiting one that will give him a shot at Max Schmeling's heavyweight crown.

His parental manager, "Pa" Stribling, has called promoter Jeff Dixon in London and requested a 30-day postponement of his son's match with Phil Scott, scheduled for next month because of the "crippled" hand and, if the English heavyweight reads newspapers and knows what the hand did to Von Forst, the postponement is expected to be granted unhesitatingly.

PRIMO FACING TEST OF SKILL AGAINST NEGRO

Black Panther Sure He Will Score Kayo on Man Mountain.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23. (AP)—Primo Carnera, Italy's challenger for recognition as a first-flight heavyweight, meets his biggest and perhaps his most formidable opponent tonight when he fights Godfrey, gigantic negro of Leipersville, Pa., at the Phillies ball park. The bout is ten rounds.

Scalling 245, the black panther has never traded punches with a ring rival of the bulk of the mauling mastodon of Venice. Carnera, standing six feet seven, weights 268, will also be facing his biggest foe, none of his long list of quick knockout victims, measuring up to the size of Godfrey.

Godfrey Outspotted
Godfrey will spot Carnera 23 pounds, five inches in height, two inches in reach and, in the matter of age, about seven years. He claims an advantage in fighting experience and boxing skill, and insists that Primo's American victories were scored over second rate opponents.

"I ought to knock Carnera out in five or six rounds," Godfrey said. "And if I can land a left hook on the button before that Mr. Carnera will be through."

"No man in the world can hit hard enough to knock out Carnera," said Billy Duffy, his American manager. "And if Primo nails Godfrey with that right under the heart, the negro will fold up."

The promoters predicted an attendance of more than 30,000 and said the advance sale had passed $100,000.

Well Known Short Story Writer Dies

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., June 23. (AP).—Melville Davison Post, 59, well known short story writer, died today in a hospital here.

While riding a horse on June 10 at his country estate near here, Post was stricken suddenly and was brought to a hospital here. Blood transfusions improved his condition, but he suffered a relapse last Thursday. Various veins of the esophagus with complications was the cause of death.

Post was a prolific contributor to American literature. The scenes of many of his works were laid in his native hills of West Virginia. He was especially noted for his mystery stories, among them his "Uncle Abner" series, and "Walker of the Secret Service."

His wife died in 1919. Their only child died in infancy.
