BASEBALL IN MODERN FORM GIVEN PUBLIC

Majors Feature Lively Ball, Home Runs and Two-Figure Scores.

BY ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Modern baseball, with its lively ball, home runs and two-figure scores, was exhibited to Mr. John Public in large quantities by major league ball teams yesterday.

A total of 254 hits, in which were interspersed 20 home runs, rang off the bats of the players, scoring 159 runs to furnish an example of the great American sport as played in 1930.

The American leagues outscored their National league rivals 11 to 75 and out-hit them 137 to 119 but seven games were played in the junior circuit as compared to four in the Hydril circuit. The American league also led in home runs 11 to 9 as Babe Ruth connected with his twenty-fourth of the season.

Cubs Lead Parade.
The Chicago Cubs led the parade, defeating the Phillies 21 to 3 as they found Philadelphia pitchers for 24 hits including Hack Wilson's twenty-second home run. Davis, Phillies catcher, drove the ball over the fence twice.

Not far behind the Cubs trailed the Brooklyn Robins, as they downed the Pirates 19 to 6 in the greatest array of hitting in either circuit. The Robins hit safety 28 times and in doing so tied two league records.

Their ten consecutive hits in the sixth equalled the one-inning successive hit record held by the Cubs and Cardinals while the two added at the start of the seventh ran the consecutive string to 12 and tied the mark made by the Cardinals against the Phillies on Sept. 17, 1929.

The out that retired the Robins in the sixth was made by catching fapes at the plate, thus allowing the unbroken string of hits to extend into the next inning.

Braves Cut Loose
Even the Boston Braves cut loose, winning a slugging match from the St. Louis Cardinals, 12 to 9. Wally Berger hit his twenty-first home run to retain runner-up honors in the circuit.

Bill Walker and the Giants managed to put on an old-fashioned ball game, the former holding the Reds to six hits and the latter winning 3 to 0. Ray Kolp held New York to eight safeties.

As if to give Mr. Public a variety the Athletics and White Sox hooked up in a 2 to 1 game in the opener of a double header in the American league and then closed with a 17 to 9 affair. The world champions were on the long end of the score in both games.

Mose Grove outpitched old Red Faber in the first encounter, but some runs came thick and fast in the nightcap. Five were divided between the Athletics. Al Simmons getting two and Fox, Haas and Cochrane one each while Jolley connected twice for the Sox.

Babe Hits 24th
The Yankees lost ground as they blanked the Browns in the first game of a double bill 15 to 0 and then dropped the second 19 to 6. Henry Johnson pitched four-hit ball in the first while Ruth got No. 24 in his home run campaign. The defeat dropped the Yanks to third place.

A double killing over the Indians by the Senators sent Washington into second place. The scores were 9 to 5 and 3 to 2. Alvin Crowder, Heinie Manush and Art Shires were stars of the opener while Fred Marberry outpitched Hudlin in the closing contest.

Behind Danny MacFayden's three-hit pitching the Red Sox defeated the Tigers 3 to 0. Sullivan pitched almost as well, holding the Sox to four-hits. It was MacFayden's second three-hit performance in a week.

Abe Coleman Wins Rough Bout With Hollywood Actor

SEATTLE, June 24. (AP).—Abe Coleman, New York light heavyweight wrestler, defeated "Bull" Montana, Hollywood, two out of three falls in a rough match here last night. Montana took the first fall when he sidestepped a flying tackle and pounced on Coleman for the fall. The movie actor lost the second fall on a foul when he slugged Coleman with a right cross to the chin. Coleman won the final fall with a series of flying tackles.

Al Karasick took a one-fall decision over Harry Demetral, and Des Anderson, Salem, Ore., also Farmer Vance, Idaho, wrestled to a draw in the preliminaries.

Knockout Blow on Head Brings Death

WHEELING, W. Va., June 24. (AP).—Injured in a six round boxing bout last night, Bruno Morasky, 23, of Mountsville, fighting under the name of "Young Bruno," died today in a hospital. Physicians said concussion of the brain caused death. Morasky was knocked down by Perry Bridges, of Warwood, his opponent, in the final round. Twice before in the round, Morasky had felled his opponent.

Bridges got to his feet after the second blow, and swung wildly at Morasky's head. The blow knocked Morasky to the floor. The final bell rang as the referee counted to four. Morasky was awarded the decision.

Bridges was arrested and held in jail. John Ritz, promoter of the fight, was released on $1,000 bail.

KLAMATH CUBS WIN FROM WEED IN TIGHT GAME

The Klamath Cubs continued their winning streak by defeating the Weed Sons of Italy Lions 5 to 3 Sunday in Weed.

The game was practically won in the first inning, when the Cubs scored three runs by two sacrifices and three hits. The Sons of Italy scored one run in their first inning. From then on until the eighth inning neither side scored. The Cubs succeeded in getting men on second and third several times, but could not bring in a run.

Buck Jackson, the big farmer boy from Healey, had the Weed batters at his mercy all through the game. In the second, third, fourth and fifth innings the Italians had the pleasure of seeing 12 of their players go to bat and not one get on bases. In the sixth they did get a man on second.

In the seventh inning the Cubs pulled off one of the fastest double plays ever made in the city of Weed. Altogether there were four double plays made during the game, the Cubs making three and the Italians one. In the eighth inning due to two hits and an error the Sons of Italy scored one run, making the score three to two. In the ninth, with the score too close for comfort, the Cubs determined to increase their lead. With one man out Jackson hit a hard grounder to second. The Weed second baseman misjudged the ball and received it on his head. He was revived some few minutes later. With one man on base, the bewhiskered Captain Farrell put the game on ice by polling out a nice, long three bagger, and scoring himself on a wild throw to home. The next two men were out at first.

But the Sons of Italy were not beaten yet. Those Italians die hard. The first man out fouled out at third. The next man hit a two bager and stole third. The next man also fouled out at third, but due to an overthrow from third to pitcher the man on third scored. Jackson then fanned his thirteenth victim and thus ended the game. Final score, 5 to 3.

Farrell started at bat, Olson in the field and Jackson in the box. This is the third straight victory for the Cubs and they are all set to take Sons of Italy again, when they play here July 13. The Sons of Italy lodge of Klamath Falls is planning to attend the game in full force, and a big crowd is expected. The Cubs go to Dunsmuir the fourth of July.

Buccaneers Loot Chinese Steamer

HONG KONG, June 24. (AP).—Fifty Buccaneers wearing soldiers' uniforms pirated a Chinese steamer near Kongsong, 50 miles south of Canton, shot several passengers, kidnaped 150 Chinese for ransom and took loot valued at $20,000.

The passengers were shot when about 20 of them jumped overboard and started swimming toward the shore. The Pirates shot most of them, only a few escaping.

Forty Thousand Customers Pay $200,000 to See Giant Italian Declared Winner on Foul Blow

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA, June 24. (AP).—Another foul caused a stir today about heavyweight prize fighting.

This time it was George Godfrey, the giant negro of Leiper, Pa., who committed the foul. This time the fallen gladiator, writhing in anguish on the floor of the battle pit, was Primo Carnera, the Italian colossus, and again the faithful, come to see a fight, booed and roared, and shouted "fake"—and went home talking to themselves.

The battle of the behemoths, the two largest men ever to face each other in a ring, missed duplicating the farcical ending of Jack Sharkey's duel with Max Schmeling for the heavyweight crown by less than two minutes.

to Schmeling and Godfrey belted Carnera low.

For this display of submarine twisting and grimacing the fans have paid an attendance bill of approximately $1,300,000.

Nearly 40,000 See Fight
Last night almost 40,000 customers paid close to $200,000 for the bout that was billed as the real test of Carnera as a fighting man. His fange hitting against ninth and tenth raters in a four throughout the country was ended.

Charges of "fake" in his fight with the negro Leon Chevalier in Oakland, Cal., were to be forgotten in the glory of a huge but genuine fighting man overcoming his first real opposition.

But unfortunately for boxing it failed to turn out that way. Godfrey, contributing an even $50 pounds to the quarter of a ton of struggling humanity in the ring at the National league ball park, belted the vast Venetian ditz in the first round, socked him solidly in the second, eased up in the third, and went ahead again in the fourth.

Carnera Shows Ability
Carnera showed genuine ability to balance his 262 pounds on his amazing feet despite the leather that bounced freely off his chin and buried deep in his body. He was fast on his feet for such a tremendous fellow. He was cool but he damaged the negro giant but little.

Godfrey was obviously tiring badly when he let loose the low left hook after one minute, 12 seconds of the fifth.

While the crowd boomed and cries of "fake" rolled down the ringside, critics up close were mixed in their opinions. Several believed the match had been talked over before it was put on. Others could see nothing wrong.

Foul Called Quickly
Dr. J. Webb Vaughn, of the Pennsylvania state athletic commission, said Carnera had been fouled and incapacitated. Referee Tom Riley, who was third man in the ring the night Gene Tunney won the heavyweight title from Jack Dempsey, called the foul without hesitation.

Frank Wienc, chairman of the athletic commission, said there would be an investigation before the fighters were paid. It was reported Carnera was to receive 60 per cent of the gate receipts, and Godfrey $10,000 flat, although there seemed to be some doubt as to who would pay the negro.

No Question About Blow
There was no question as to the low blow. Early in the fifth round Godfrey, who had been punching short but with increasing lack of power to the body as the fight wore on, suddenly loosed a long left hook that looked foul from the start all the way to the point of contact.

Carnera yowled, grimaced and then collapsed, his huge body shaking the reinforced ring as he landed.

REBEL AGAINST CZAR
CHICAGO, June 24 (AP).—The first open rebellion against the arbitrary authority of Kenesaw Landis, baseball commissioner, broke out today when the Milwaukee club of the American association brought suit in the federal court to stop the transfer of one of its players to the St. Louis Browns of the American league.
