

GRAHAM PLANE LOCATED NEAR CEDAR CITY, U.

Jimmy Carson Identifies Wreckage as That of Lost Mail Pilot

LOS ANGELES, June 25, (A.P.)—With the discovery yesterday of the wreckage of his plane in the Wasatch mountains, eight miles south of Cedar City, Utah, officials of Western Air Express today are pressing a search for Maurice Graham, air mail pilot, who disappeared in a snowstorm last January 19.

Jimmy Carson, Graham's buddy on the Los Angeles-Salt Lake City air mail run, last night definitely identified as Graham's the jacket, boots and parachute found by sheepherders near the wrecked plane. Carson left Cedar City early this morning to view the wreckage.

Four Deaths From Exposure
While officials of Western Air Express believe Graham was not killed in the crashup of his plane, they feared he wandered in deep snow, became exhausted and died of exposure.

Ward Mortenson, 19, and Elwood Orton, 19, who found the plane, said it was not badly damaged and that the steel mail vault beneath the pilot's cockpit apparently was unbroken. The motor was intact. The parachute on which the name "Maurice Graham" was stenciled, was found hanging on the motor.

Flow Into Blizzard
Graham, a world war flier, was last seen when he took off from Las Vegas, Nev., on the night of January 19, for Salt Lake City, Utah. A blizzard was raging, and Graham apparently was forced to land on the mountain side.

Since then hundreds of persons on foot and horseback, and scores of planes have scoured the bleak desert and rugged mountain country along the Nevada-Utah mail route. The search never has been abandoned. Carson was flying over Nevada deserts when the plane was found.

Graham has a wife and two children in Los Angeles.

"Sock" Burglar Bobs Up Again

PORTLAND, Ore., June 25, (A.P.)—"The Sock," Portland's most elusive robber, did it again last night.
He robbed a drug store of $2, snuck his booty into the sock he carried and fled.
Last night's robbery is the twelfth police attribute to the unidentified robber.

FAR FROM DEAD

CENTRALIA, Pa.—After being thought dead for seven years, Jennie Snyder, 25, recently surprised the town by walking in on it as suddenly as she disappeared. She was thought to have been burned to death on Broad Mountain seven years ago, and her supposed body was found there. She told her parents she had been in New York.

CHARITY

NEW YORK—Father Francis A. Kelley, former war chaplain, had a hard time organizing his little Catholic parish of 17 families in Cairo, N. Y. Out of admiration for his courage, three Jews recently contributed $1500 to buy an organ for the church. They are ex-State Senator Herman Koppelman of Connecticut, Harry Bresloff, of Newark, and Michael Goodman, of Scranton, Pa.

COSTLY FISH

REED CITY, Mich.—A. L. Wallick, of Columbus, Ohio, and two other fellows were fishing. They caught 101 trout between them, and then the game warden entered the scene. They were only allowed 15 fish each, so they had all the rest of their fish seized and paid fines totaling $202 for violating the fishing laws.

ARTISTS' UNION

LONDON—Artists here are to have their own trade union. The purpose of the union, according to Sir John Lavery, is to raise the standard of artistic art and secure for the poster artist and designer of textile recognition to which they are entitled. Many well known English artists have joined the union.

The purest of drugs and expert care of your eyes and they'll take care of you,
—Eva Bergman, care of Fairview school, Klamath Falls.

Gun Store
While at the Gun Store, I looked around,
Was really surprised at the things I found;
Collars for dogs, some lines and reels,
Fishing rods, both bamboo and steel;
Boots for fishermen that come up high,
And all brands of merchandise, that you can rely;
Dozens of other things, I can't name them all,
When I outfit my camp, on the Gun Store I'll call,

Today in Klamath's Theatres

AT THE PINE TREE
Three popular songs, originating in the new First National pictures, "Show Girl in Hollywood," are among the entertaining feature of the program at the Pine Tree theatre, where this screen story of the cinema colony is now showing.
They are "Hung On to a Rainbow," "Hollywood," and "I've Got My Eye on You," all three written by that premier song writer combination, Green and Kept. Alice White, who is co-featured with Jack Mulhall.

M. J. B. Demi-Tasse Revue Has Ukulele Ike as Headliner
The popular radio feature known as the M. J. B. Demi-Tasse Revue tonight presents Cliff Edwards ("Ukulele Ike") singing his latest song successes on a program originating in the Los Angeles studios of the Columbia Broadcasting System and heard locally over KOIN from 8:30 to 9:30. George Olsen and His Music are scheduled to play groups of popular dance numbers on the same program.

Cliff Edwards first popped into limelight with his now almost classic vaudeville, the Polles, and talking pictures, his inimitable manner now being put on celluloid by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. A comedy skit by Crane Wilbur, author, actor and director, completes tonight's Demi-Tasse Revue.

Midland Road Oiling Is Started Today
Oiling was started today on 2.3 miles of recently graded and packed highway on the Midland road and the road was blocked to travel. E. B. Henry, county engineer is in charge.

Dunn and Baker have the contract for the work which is the first oiling to ever be done by the county. The road will be closed until further notice, Engineer Henry stated.

BULLY BATTLE
BALTIMORE—Jack Wildstein recently played the part of an unswerving roadster on a narrow road near Prince Frederick, Md. Driving along in his car he came upon a bull pulling a tobacco cart. He pulled to one side to let the bull pass, but the bull didn't want to pass. He wanted to fight. He charged the car and hurled it more than 15 feet. Wildstein stepped on the gas and fled in the other direction.

GIANT CASINO
PARIS—Frank J. Gould, American millionaire, has bought a large part of the town of Granville, a resort near Deauville, at which he will erect one of the most luxurious baccarat palaces in the world. The casino alone will cost more than $1,000,000, and will be open all the year round. Gould has purchased every hotel in the town as part of his layout.

THE SILENT SPIRITS
The Pathfinder in England Sir Arthur Conan Doyle has quarreled with the Spiritualists, calling them "inactive." In Florida the widow of Houdini, the magician, announced the abandonment of her three years' effort to communicate with her late husband. In other words there seems to be very little activity of late in the spirit world. Could unemployment have reached so far?

AT THE LIBERTY
Art Acord turns bandit and outlaw in "The Arizona Kid," another thriller produced by the J. Charles Davis Productions, and showing at the Liberty theatre.

WORDEN FOLKS ENJOY PICNIC

MARY GAY, Correspondent
WORDEN, June 25.—Ben Gay and daughters Lydia and Ethel, Frank High of Dorris, and Christina Gay attended the Spanish-American War veterans' picnic at Garbert dam Sunday. A most excellent dinner was served and the day was spent pitching horseshoes and playing baseball. Everyone who went from Worden and Dorris reported an excellent time.

R. C. Zuckerman spent several days at his ranch near Worden last week. He is from lower California.
B. Ayers, Scott Warren and Orville Clark spent the week end fishing at Diamond Lake. Luck seemed to be with someone else.
Robert F. Franklin, Porter Brantwiler, Christina Gay and Orville Clark spent a day at Crater Lake last week.

Mrs. Tom Higgins and son LaVell and Laurence Grey spent Monday with Christina and Mary Gay.
Orville Clark visited the dentist last Tuesday at Klamath Falls. He has also been suffering from a severe cold.

John Collins went to Klamath Falls Saturday evening to see a doctor. He has a severe cold and had to lay off from work Sunday.

Frank High and Bob Webster of near Dorris went to Ashland last Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Gordon and daughter Darlene and Mrs. Ben Gay transacted business in Klamath Falls Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cumming transacted business in Klamath Falls Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller transacted business in Dorris last week.

Howard Shur has gone to Malin to work in hay.

Mrs. Don Wilfound and daughter are in Lakeview at the home of Mrs. Wilfound's mother, Mrs. Barnes, where they will remain several weeks.

Paul Collins spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McCoy in Worden.

Mr. Barnes of Lakeview spent a few days at Worden last week. Mrs. Wilfound went back to Lakeview with him.

Mr. Romvet is doing some repair work for Ben Gay.

DOGS SAVE HER

STEVENS, Wash.—Two tiny dogs recently saved the life of Mrs. Nate Sable. While out in the pasture of her farm near here, she and the dogs came upon a cougar. Before the huge cat could attack her, Mrs. Sable's dogs tore into the cougar and, despite their smallness, caused the large beast to retreat up a tree. Mrs. Sable then rushed home and the two dogs kept the cat up the tree until her husband came and shot it.

Girls always had 'another date'—until he ended 'B.O.'

HE KNEW he wasn't popular with girls. But he never suspected why until one day a clerk in a drugstore suggested Lifebuoy to him.
That simple change in toilet soaps changed his whole life! For it ended the fault that had made girls unwilling to go out with him. "B.O.," the polite name for a condition people dislike even to mention—body odor... No more turn-downs now. Girls accept his invitations gladly. He knows the easy way to keep perspiration odorless.

Hot weather no excuse

Even if the thermometer is up in the nineties—even if we are perspiring more freely—no need to let "B.O." offend. Just take this simple precaution. Millions of particular men and women realizing how quickly others notice "B.O.," have switched to Lifebuoy to be safe. And they like this delightful toilet soap more and more every day. Everything about it. Its bountiful, creamy lather—even in hardest water. Its pleasant, extra-clean scent that vanishes as you rinse. The gentle antiseptic lather that cleanses so thoroughly—purifies pores so deeply—removes every trace of "B.O."

What a complexion soap!
Women add a special word of praise for Lifebuoy as a complexion soap. Its bland, deep-cleansing lather gently frees clogged pores of beauty-stifling impurities—freshens dull skins till they glow with healthy radiant loveliness. Adopt Lifebuoy today. LEVER BROS. CO., Canton, Mass.
