AT THE PELICAN

Swaying, rattling stage coaches, the din and confusion of a dance-hall crowd, and the deadly cracking of six-guns, and a whirlwind story of romance and action with Warner Barter again in the colorful role of a devil-may-care cavalier, all contribute to the entertainment qualities of "The Arizona Kid," the Fox Movietone sensation who comes to the Pelican theatre Sunday.

A remarkable cast interprets
"Second Choice," the Warner Bros. and Vitaphone production which comes to the Pine Tree theatre Sunday with Dolores Costello in the stellar role.
Miss Costello, one of the screen's most popular stars, has, through the medium of this talking picture, supplemented her ethereal beauty by a voice of great charm. In "Second Choice" she sings the lovely theme song, "Life Can Be So Lonesome."

Chester Morris, the magnetic young Broadway star of the speaking stage, a recent recruit to motion pictures, continues the remarkable work which made him an overnight sensation when he created his first talking screen role in "Alibi."

Jack Mulhall, First National star, was borrowed for the other principal male role, and effectively rounds out a trio who are seen in the story as the three points of the eternal triangle.

Other members of this great cast who have attained enviable reputations either on stage or screen are Edna Murphy, Charlotte Martindale, Jimmy Clemmons, Henry Stockbridge and Anna Chance.

"Second Choice" is based on Elizabeth Alexander's story. Joseph Jackson did the adaptation.

The star plays the modern son of an old California family and he fills the picture with the type of fast riding and fighting for which he is noted. The role is one of the best he has enacted and in it he exceeds even his past successes to provide new and dangerous thrills.

"Burning the Wind" has a strong romance. Virginia Brown Fairé appears opposite Root as Maria Valdes, the "daughter of the Don." The Spanish beauty

PLANES AND EAGLES
EL PASO, Tex.—Airplanes are a great aid to shepherds in Texas. Some herders have employed planes to go on eagle hunts. The eagles, heretofore, have had their own way in stealing young lambs from flocks.
Now, however, a plane "rides hard" over a flock all day. When the pilot sees an eagle approach to make a kill, he follows and shoots it.
